Barr, in Lancaster City, on July 20th, 1858. has been subjected to a very severe test, which it withstood in a most satisfactory manner. This Safe, containing all my books, together with valuable papers belonging to myself and some to my neighbors and friends and representing a value of over Twenty Thousand Dollars, ($20,000) was in my Mill which was destroyed on the night of the 27th of July, 1860 and passed through the hery ordeal unscathed. The Safe was on the second floor and fell to the basement of the Mill, and was subjected for six hours to an intense hou among the ruius, which was greatly increased by the combustion of a large quantity of grain enfined within the brick walls. After the fire the safe was opened and the books and papers taken out in a state of perfect preservation, the paper not even being discoluted. This fact was, however, to many bystanders
