THE POOR HOUSE .- A communication appeared in last week's Freeman, from Mr. A. D. Criste, relating to matters and things connected with our Poor House. We publish the dommunication on the outside of to-day's paper. For several years past, a bitter fight has existed between our Democratio brethren on the subject of the Poor House. One portion took the ground that the management of the institution was so corrupt and inefficient that it would be a saving of money to the county to board the paupers at a first-class hotel, and shut up the House. This faction advocated a change of the officers of the concern. The other and ETCHINGS .- The Tyrone Herald is out opposing faction, prominent among whom were the holding-on officers, held that the affairs of the institution were administered fairly and faithfully, and opposed any change. The Directors of the Poor have been nominated and elected on this issue for at least two years past, and the result man died in the Blair county jail one of the fight is that the advocates of a change of administration now find themselves a majority of the Board.

Mr. Criste, the writer of the communication, was and is an adherent of the faction which ruled the House for so many years He was appointed Steward by the old Board on the 29th of September; but as soon as the new or "reform" Board was organized, to wit, on or about the 28th of October, the appointment was rescinded and Mr. C. was reduced to the rank of private citizen.

This is what the ex-Steward is troubled about. He may, and again he may not have just cause and provocation for his complaint. We will just now express no opinion on that point. But it is self-evident that he was mad as a March hare when he wrote, and while under the influence of the phrenzy of passion, he made a startling and unlooked-for expose of the inner workings of the Poor House. His charges are broad, bold, and defiant, and, if true, exhibit a condition of affairs which will astonish the people of the county not a little.

Mr. Byrne, one of the Directors assailed by Mr. Criste, has this week written a reply to the latter. We print the communication elsewhere. It will be noticed fob chain, anything in the ornamental that Mr. B. denies in toto the charges preferred against him, and courts investinight last. It had been deserted by gation. The reader may read and compare the two letters, and await further developments.

> TURN DOWN THE LEAF .- When you visit Johnstown, reader, first go and see the Cambria Iron Works, the largest rolling mill on the continent. After gratifying your curiosity there, then pay a visit to Leopold & Bro.'s Oak Hall Clothing Store, the largest establishment of Try it. the kind in that place. If you should perchance want to buy a suit of readymade clothing, Messrs. L. & Bro. can accommodate you, cheaper than the cheapest. Store on Main street.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE. LETTER FROM JOHNSTOWN-A BOLD ROBBERY AND AN UNGRATEFUL THIEF-A WOULD-BE GHOST-A RECKLESS CRIMINAL-ACCIDENTS. JOHNSTOWN, Nov. 25, 1867. To the Editor of The Alleghanian :

A bold and daring robbery was committed here on Monday evening last. A man named Flick had gone to the house an who lost himself in the trackless for- of Mr. Jas. B. McCreight, and represents of Susquehanna township a couple of ed that he had no money and had eaten nths since, and was only found after only one meal at a table for eleven days. veral days' patient search, died in the Mr. McC., with his accustomed generosor House on Saturday last.... One of ity, took the fellow into his house and best fellows living presented us with kept him several days, and even gave turkey just in the nick of time for him some money. On the evening stated, Thanksgiving. As he is very modest, Mrs. McCreight missed a gold watch and would not like to see his name in chain, and had the premises searched .print, we will not call our friend out in The man Flick had gone to bed, from neeting, but will only assure him that he which he got to assist in the search. The watch was found, secreted in the room in which he slept. The rest of the jewelry could not be found. In about thirty minutes after, Mr. McC. missed his best suit of clothes, and repairing to Flick's room, found the bed empty and the bird lay last ... Thanksgiving was well observed flown. He was arrested at Florence on Tuesday evening, and in default of $2,000 bail was sent up for trial.

erally suspended, and public service was Considerable excitement has existed in town during the past ten days, owing to the performances of a would-be ghost, who nightly perambulated the streets, frightening the women and not unfrequently the men. The masquerader was arrested the other night, and after being reprimanded, was released upon promising to sin no more in the future.

Thompson, the murderer of young Mc-Donald, spent all of last Monday in Latrobe. He was heavily armed, and it seems the people there were afraid to arrest him. Mrs. John Brady met with a painful accident on last Wednesday eve. While going up stairs, her foot slipped and she fell, dislocating her ankle and fracturing | The failure of parties insured to pay at the her leg between the ankle and knee.

A man whose name I have not learned was severely injured on the railroad here, the other day, by being struck by a passing train.

GOING AWAY FROM HOME TO GET THE NEWS .- We clip the following item from last week's Hollidaysburg Register :

"Ebensburg Burned !- Such was the startling report circulated in town on Sunday, but on Monday the welcome news was received through men from that vicinity that there had been no destruction of property by the de-vouring element, in that place, on Saturday night, when it was said the fire occurred."

Ebensburg has not yet been burned, but that will very likely be the ultimate fate of the town if she does not provide herself with a more efficient fire department than she at present possesses.

NEW Goods .- J. M. Thompson has just received his stock of new goods for fall and winter. His shelves fairly groan under the new supplies, which have been selected with an eye single to the wants of the people of Ebensburg and vicinity. Those wanting to secure bargains should give him a call; and those wanting to get the pick of the bargains should call early.

No Use .- The other day, a fellow stole a coat from a gentleman in this place.-The result will be that he will probably expiate his crime by going to the penitentiary for a season. The fellow might have saved himself this mortification by going to Mills & Davis' store, where he could have bought a good, bran-new coat for a mere song.

THE OLDEST .- The oldest newspaper in the world is said to be published in Pekin, China. It is printed on silk, and has appeared every week for at least a thousand years. The oldest, cheapest, and best store in Ebensburg is A. A. Barker's, wherefrom are dispensed one thousand bargains each week.

TINWARE, &c .- Thos. W. Williams is increasing his stock of tinware, sheet-iron ware, &c., day by day. His stock is now large, and comprises nearly everything in that line needed by the public. All he asks is a trial-he feels confident that both his work and his prices will give satisfaction.

JEWELRY .- Do you want to buy any jewelry-a ring, pin, bracelet, a pair of ear-rings, or sleeve buttons, a watch or line-go to Cham. Roberts'. He will sell you a good article, warranted, at a fair price. His stock of jewelry is undeniably the largest and best in the county.

How to Do It .- To avoid corpulence, quit eating. To gain time, steal a watch. To keep from stuttering, don't talk. To keep your doors from being broken open by burglars, don't close them. To keep out of debt, pay each for what you buy, and buy what you need at V. S. Barker's.

FIRE.—The dwelling house of Jacob Pringle, Esq., at Summerhill, in this county, was destroyed by fire on Wednesday afternoon last. The building and most of the contents were consumed. Mr. Pringle estimates his loss at about one thousand dollars, for which he has no insurance.

COURT .- Court commences next Monday. Considerable business of importance will be transacted, and the attendance promises to be large. A good many of our subscribers will doubtless come to town during the week. All these are cordially invited to "come and see us."

IT IS NOT TRUE that R. H. Singer intends leaving town, as some would have it. But on the contrary, he intends to carry on the Blacksmithing in all its branches stronger than ever. To do so, it is absolutely necessary to have tools, hands, and iron, all which cost money. Therefore, persons indebted to Mr. Singer for work done in '65, '66, and the early part of '67 will please call round and settle the same. I feel satisfied that my customers will not let me stick.
