EBENSBURG.—The Tyrone Herald is out in favor of the erection of a new county, to be composed of parts of Huntingdon, Clearfield, Blair and Cambria counties, with the county-seat at Tyrone. The general impression up this way is that Cambria county is small enough already. A man died in the Blair county jail one day last week. The dwelling house of Mr. Samuel Christy, in Duncaesville, was burned to the ground, with its contents, on last Sunday evening week. Hon. D. C. Morrell, Congressman from this district, is chairman of the Committee on Manufactures and a member of the committee on Freedmen's Affairs. The engineers are at work surveying the route for a proposed railroad from Hollidaysburg to Portersville, Bedford county. The Grand Jury of Huntingdon county have condemned the jail in that county. A large bear was shot on the mountains back of Altoona the other day. Two young men, named Broth and Kitcher, residing in Clearfield county, went to the woods to hunt one day recently, and while the latter, who was ahead, was crawling through some logs and brush, his gun went off and hit the former through the head. He is expected to recover. The merchants of Adams town lately undertook to undress one another in the article of calico. The result was that about 12,000 yards of the article were sold in three days, at a great reduction on former ruling prices. Married, in Harrisburg, on the 26th instant, Hon. Louis W. Hall, of Altoona, to Miss Eliza Cameron Ward, of the former place. A colored baby was found on the pavement in Hollidaysburg on Monday night last. It had been deserted by its wretched protectors, and was taken in charge by a kind-hearted citizen. The base ball season was brought to a close here on Thanksgiving day by a game between two picked nines. Though the ground was in rather bad condition, the game was well played, and was a most exciting one. Two young men, named Wherry and Rodgers, were committed to our jail on Thursday, charged with setting fire to the buildings burned in the west end of town three or four weeks ago. We are not acquainted with the nature of the evidence against them. Two small boys were placed in limbo on Thursday for malicious mischief. They were released next morning. Mr. Philip Hugg, of Clear township, met with a serious accident near Wilmore on Saturday last. It was at work in a saw-mill, when a piece of the machinery flew off and struck him in the breast. Medical attendance was summoned, and he is now recovering. Mr. John Burnard, the old man who lost himself in the trackless forests of Susquehanna township a couple of months since, and was only found after several days' patient search, died in the Poor House on Saturday last. One of the best fellows living presented us with a turkey just in the nick of time for Thanksgiving. As he is very modest, and would not like to see his name in print, we will not call our friend out in meeting, but will only assure him that we are our unbounded thanks for his well-aimed liberality. The Rev. Mr. Brown severed his connection with the Presbyterian church of this place, as its pastor, and has gone home. A car of oil was destroyed by fire in Altoona on Friday last. Thanksgiving was well observed in this place. Business was pretty generally suspended, and public service was held in all, or nearly all, the churches. Court commences next Monday.

TRIPPING ACCIDENT.—A MAN named Malzie, a terrible accident occurred at Wilmore on Tuesday morning. Mr. Valentine Malzie, the landlord of the Railroad House in that place, pointed what he thought to be an empty gun at a young man named Harry Martin, and pulled the trigger. The gun proved to be loaded, and an explosion followed. The ball entered immediately above Martin's eye, and he fell dead instantly. A coroner's jury was empaneled, who returned a verdict of accidental shooting. Mr. Malzie was held in $1,000 bail for a hearing. The deceased was a single man, about 28 or 30 years of age, and resided in Summerhill township. Malzie is represented as being in a state bordering on distraction since the accident.

THE POOR HOUSE.—A communication appeared in last week's Freeman, from Mr. A. D. Criste, relating to matters and things connected with our Poor House. We publish the communication on the outside of to-day's paper. For several years past, a bitter light has existed between our Democratic brethren on the subject of the Poor House. One portion took the ground that the management of the institution was so corrupt and inefficient that it would be a saving of money to the county to board the paupers at a first-class hotel, and shut up the House. This faction advocated a change of the officers of the concern. The other and opposing faction, prominent among whom were the holding-on officers, held that the affairs of the institution were administered fairly and faithfully, and opposed any change. The Directors of the Poor have been nominated and elected on this issue for at least two years past, and the result of the fight is that the advocates of a change of administration now find themselves a majority of the Board.

Mr. Criste, the writer of the communication, was and is an adherent of the faction which ruled the House for so many years. He was appointed Steward by the old Board on the 29th of September; but as soon as the new or "reform" Board was organized, to wit, on or about the 28th of October, the appointment was rescinded and Mr. C. was reduced to the rank of private citizen. This is what the ex-Steward is troubled about. He may, and again he may not, have just cause and provocation for his complaint. We will just now express no opinion on that point. But it is self-evident that he was mad as a March hare when he wrote, and while under the influence of the phrensy of passion, he made a startling and unlooked-for exposure of the inner workings of the Poor House. His charges are broad, bold, and defiant, and, if true, exhibit a condition of affairs which will astonish the people of the county not a little. Mr. Byrne, one of the Directors assailed by Mr. Criste, has this week written a reply to the latter. We print the communication elsewhere. It will be noticed that Mr. B. denies in toto the charges preferred against him, and courts investigation. The reader may read and compare the two letters, and await further developments.

TURN DOWN THE LEAF.—When you visit Johnstown, reader, first go and see the Cambria Iron Works, the largest rolling mill on the continent. After gratifying your curiosity there, then pay a visit to Leopold & Bro's Oak Hall Clothing Store, the largest establishment of the kind in that place. If you should perchance want to buy a suit of ready-made clothing, Messrs. L. & Bro. can accommodate you, cheaper than the cheapest. Store on Main street.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE. LETTER FROM JOHNSTOWN.—A MILD ROBERT AND AN UNGRATEFUL THIEF.—A WOULD-BE GHOST.—A SKEWER CRIMINAL.—ACCIDENTS. JOHNSTOWN, Nov. 25, 1867.

To the Editor of The Alleghenian: A bold and daring robbery was committed here on Monday evening last. A man named Flick had gone to the house of Mr. Jas. B. McCreight, and represented that he had no money and had eaten only one meal at a table for eleven days. Mr. McC., with his accustomed generosity, took the fellow into his house and kept him several days, and even gave him some money. On the evening stated, Mrs. McCreight missed a gold watch and chain, and had the premises searched. The man Flick had gone to bed, from which he got to assist in the search. The watch was found, secreted in the room in which he slept. The rest of the jewelry could not be found. In about thirty minutes after, Mr. McC. missed his best suit of clothes, and repairing to Flick's room, found the bed empty and the bird flown. He was arrested at Florence on Tuesday evening, and in default of $2,000 bail was sent up for trial. Considerable excitement has existed in town during the past ten days, owing to the performances of a would-be ghost, who nightly perambulated the streets, frightening the women and not unfrequently the men. The masquerader was arrested the other night, and after being reprimanded, was released upon promising to slip no more in the future. Thompson, the murderer of young McDonald, spent all of last Monday in Lattro. He was heavily armed, and it seems the people there were afraid to arrest him. Mrs. John Brady met with a painful accident on last Wednesday eve. While going up stairs, her foot slipped and she fell, dislocating her ankle and fracturing her leg between the ankle and knee. A man whose name I have not learned was severely injured on the railroad here, the other day, by being struck by a passing train.

NOTICE.—Notice is hereby given that an assessment of four per cent. has been laid upon the premium notes of the Protection Mutual Fire Insurance Company of Cambria County, to pay losses recently sustained, and that said assessment will be due and payable on or before the 10th day of December, next, to John E. Roberts, Receiver, at Ebensburg. The failure of parties insured to pay at the time required will vitiate their policies, and the Company may enforce collection of the amounts assessed by suits upon their premium notes. By order of the Board. A. G. MULLIN, Secretary. Ebensburg, Nov. 8, 1867.

GOING AWAY FROM HOME TO GET THE NEWS.—We clip the following item from last week's Hollidaysburg Register: "Ebensburg Journal"—Such was the startling report circulated in town on Sunday, but on Monday the welcome news was received through men from their vicinity that there had been no destruction of property by the devastating element, in that place, on Saturday night, when it was said the fire occurred."

Ebensburg has not yet been burned, but that will very likely be the ultimate fate of the town if she does not provide herself with a more efficient fire department than she at present possesses.

NEW GOODS.—J. M. Thompson has just received his stock of new goods for fall and winter. His shelves fairly groan under the new supplies, which have been selected with an eye single to the wants of the people of Ebensburg and vicinity. Those wanting to secure bargains should give him a call; and those wanting to get the pick of the bargains should call early.

NO USE.—The other day, a fellow stole a coat from a gentleman in this place.—The result will be that he will probably expiate his crime by going to the penitentiary for a season. The fellow might have saved himself this mortification by going to Mills & Davis' store, where he could have bought a good, brand-new coat for a mere song.

THE OLDEST.—The oldest newspaper in the world is said to be published in Peking, China. It is printed on silk, and has appeared every week for at least a thousand years. The oldest, cheapest, and best store in Ebensburg is A. A. Barker's, wherefrom are dispensed one thousand bargains each week.

TINWARE, &c.—Thos. W. Williams is increasing his stock of tinware, sheet-iron ware, &c., day by day. His stock is now large, and comprises nearly everything in that line needed by the public. All he asks is a trial—he feels confident that both his work and his prices will give satisfaction.

JEWELRY.—Do you want to buy any jewelry—a ring, pin, bracelet, a pair of ear-rings, or sleeve buttons, a watch or job chain, anything in the ornamental line—go to Chan. Roberts'. He will sell you a good article, warranted, at a fair price. His stock of jewelry is undeniably the largest and best in the county.

HOW TO DO IT.—To avoid compulsion, quit eating. To quit time, steal a watch. To keep from stuttering, don't talk. To keep your doors from being broken open by burglars, don't close them. To keep out of debt, pay cash for what you buy, and buy what you need at V. S. Barker's. Try it.

FIRE.—The dwelling house of Jacob Pringle, Esq., at Summerhill, in this county, was destroyed by fire on Wednesday afternoon last. The building and most of the contents were consumed. Mr. Pringle estimates his loss at about one thousand dollars, for which he has no insurance.

COURT.—Court commences next Monday. Considerable business of importance will be transacted, and the attendance promises to be large. A good many of our subscribers will doubtless come to town during the week. All these are cordially invited to "come and see us."

It is not true that E. E. Singer intends leaving town, as some would have it. But on the contrary, he intends to carry on the Blacksmithing in all its branches stronger than ever. To do so, it is absolutely necessary to have tools, hammers, and iron, all which cost money. Therefore, persons indebted to Mr. Singer for work done in '66, '66, and the early part of '67 will please call round and settle the same. I feel satisfied that my customers will not let me stick.
