

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

EBENSBURG AND CRESSON RAILROAD. The new road will run as follows: EBENSBURG—

THE sad cause of the delay in the publication of this number of The Alleghenian is told by an announcement elsewhere.

EBENSBURG.—On Saturday last the term of James Myers, Esq., Sheriff of Cambria county, expired, and John A. Bist, Esq., assumed his duties.

THE CONCERT.—The Choir who will sing in the concert in aid of the Mountaineer B. B. Club are hard at work practicing.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—On Friday morning of last week, Samuel Coyne, Esq., was residing at Sommerhill, this county, was run over by a freight train on the Pennsylvania Railroad, and was seriously injured.

DEMOREST.—Elsewhere we print the prospectus of "Demorest's Monthly Magazine," and that of "Demorest's Young America."

MUSIC.—Our Ebensburg readers will be glad to learn that Prof. H. H. Hughes purposes opening a school of instruction in the rudiments of vocal music, here, shortly.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE. LETTER FROM JOHNSTOWN.—ALL THE NEWS FROM THE SOUTH OF THE COUNTY.

A fire occurred in the tailor shop of John Hughes on Saturday morning. A few buckets of water, judiciously applied, extinguished the flames before much damage could be done.

The Cambria Iron Company have notified their employees, by handbills posted around the works, of a reduction of wages of ten cents on the dollar.

The Catholics of this place will hold a fair in Park's new building, on Main street, adjoining the old Mansion House building, commencing on Christmas Eve and to last for two weeks.

A prize fight came off here on Friday evening, conducted according to the rules of the London Prize Ring. No person was killed or badly hurt.

The two engines of the Cambria Iron Company were off the track for a considerable time during the past week, on account of the deep snow.

Our worthy and talented young friend James Craver has resigned his position in the store of Wood, Morrell & Co., to accept a position in the wood and willow-ware house of Francis & Co., Philadelphia.

A CAMBRIA COUNTY PEDESTRIAN.— Weston's Portland-Chicago tramp has created considerable interest on the subject of fast walking in general, and some of the newspapers tell of Captain Barclay, an English pedestrian, who, in the last century, walked eight miles in an hour, and also got over 100 miles on foot in 18 hours.

A REFINER.—Our race has had but few benefactors, but those few it delights to honor. The reason V. S. Barker is honored with so many customers is because he is their benefactor by offering them so many bargains.

SHOOL.—Since the snow fell, strangers coming to town have wondered at the immense quantity of shool that are sledged to town. They are all of the first quality, as is everything else kept, dealt in, or sold by A. A. Barker at his mammoth store.

A GOOD MILL.—A singularly ingenious and wonderful mill may be seen at Mills & Davis' store. It will turn out to order anything you wish, from cheese to calico. It is called the E. J. Mill of Mills & Davis.

LOST.—A golden opportunity to those who have purchases to make and do not go to the well filled and handsome store-room of Jas. M. Thompson. "Quick sales and small profits" is his motto.

ASTONISHING.—The amount of slaves sold by T. W. Williams, at his new establishment, is astonishing. Not very, either, for he sells them and everything else on the cheap system.

SEE our first page for the prospectus for 1898 of the New York Tribune. It is admitted by all unprejudiced persons that the Tribune is the best paper published in America.
