

EBENSBURG AND CRESSON RAILROAD. On and after Monday, April 28, 1867, trains on this road will run as follows: LEAVE EBENSBURG—At 8:00 A. M., connecting with Day Exp. East and Phil. Exp. West. At 11:30 P. M., connecting with Phila. Exp. East and Mail Train West.

TECHINGS—Sunday was Candlemas day. By general consent, the groundhog is admitted to have seen his shadow, and so we are booked for six weeks more winter weather. The work of placing the wire on the telegraph poles between Tyrone and Bellefonte has been commenced, and will be completed in a few days.

ANOTHER OLD BOOK—We have been shown by Mr. V. S. Barker a very old book—probably the oldest in this section of country. It was printed in London in 1632—236 years ago—and bears the following title: CIVIL LECTURES UPON THE FORTY-FIFTH OF JOHN.

FROM THE SOUTH—The following letter from the "hot-bed of secession" demonstrates two things conclusively—first, that the destitution and misery prevailing there are fearful and widespread, and second, that the writer cannot spell very well.

RELIGIOUS—We are requested to give notice that Wm. H. Scheil will preach in the Baptist Church, Ebensburg, on Lord's day, the 9th instant, at 10 1/2 o'clock, a. m., and 6 o'clock, p. m. The public are invited to attend.

DEED—In Johnstown, on Saturday last, Mr. Richard T. Davis, aged about 70 years. The deceased formerly resided in Ebensburg, and was well and favorably known to our citizens. His remains were brought here for interment on Monday.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE. LETTER FROM JOHNSTOWN—ACCIDENT—A NEW WARD AND A PROPOSED NEW BOROUGH—THE BELL RINGING, &c. JOHNSTOWN, Feb. 3, 1868. To the Editor of The Alleghenian:

A man named Boylen, an employee of the Cambria Iron Company, met with a serious injury during the past week by the falling upon him of a large quantity of slate, from the roof of one of the C. I. Co.'s mines. His recovery is considered doubtful.

A bill creating a new ward in Johnstown (the sixth) has passed both branches of the Legislature and is now a law. The citizens of that part of Conemaugh station lying west of the Conemaugh river have petitioned the Court of this county to set them off as a borough, to be called Franklin.

RAILROAD ACCIDENTS.—The breaking of a rail on the Pennsylvania Railroad threw the Fast Line east off the track in the vicinity of Mill Creek station, Huntingdon county, on Friday morning last. Four cars ran over a bank and upset, killing one passenger, Mrs. Anne Duggin, of Pittsburgh, and slightly injuring several others.

A sleeping car attached to the Day Express east ran off the track at "Pack-saddle," near Blairsville Intersection, on Sunday morning last. The car was considerably smashed up, but no person was injured. The accident was caused by a broken rail.

EVERYTHING.—T. W. Williams, at the Ebensburg Stove and Tinware House, has as complete a stock of articles in his line as any like establishment in the county. In addition, he sells as cheap as any like establishment in the county.

SPECTACLES.—C. T. Roberts, at the Ebensburg Jewelry Store, has on hand probably the best stock of spectacles ever brought to Cambria county. Spectacles to suit all ages—spectacles to magnify much or magnify little—gold spectacles and steel spectacles—all kinds of spectacles, and at all prices.

CURES FOR HOLLIDAYBURG.—Dr. Valentine has been curing persons in neighboring towns that have seemed almost miraculous. Let the healed speak of facts: Henry Leimer, stiff arm and hand, perfectly restored; Nicholas Mercer, came with two staves, been lame for years, has no further use for them, entirely restored; Eliza Butler lame in arm and leg for fifteen years, restored entirely; Anna Scanson, severe disease of heart for fifteen months, suffering severely, entirely restored; Wm. Buck, nervousness, cured; Margaret Hannegan, falling of womb and heart disease, had to be helped up stairs, instantly restored; Margaret Kase, hand useless for seven years, restored; Andrew Snowberger, consumption, rapidly improving; Frank Bailey, in bed for three months and given up as incurable, improving rapidly and walking about, disease consumption. The above are a few of the cures performed in Hollidayburg.

GOOD NEWS TO OWNERS OF HORSES.—Having secured the aid of a good Shoer, and being well supplied with Nails and Shoes, I am determined to offer to cash customers the greatest inducement held out in this place since things were low. You can have your Horses shod all round for One Dollar and Fifty Cents. I will also iron Sleighs and Sleds, make Wagon Tires and all kinds of Carriage, and do everything in the Blacksmithing line at greatly reduced prices for the cash. Shop near the Foundry of E. Glass. R. H. SINGER. Ebensburg, Dec. 12, 1867.

DRS. GWINN & TROXEL.—Having associated in the practice of Medicine, offer their services to the citizens of Loreto and vicinity. Dr. Troxel may always be found at the house of Peter Christy when not professionally engaged, where night calls may be made; and Dr. Gwinn, at his residence in Loreto.

O. K. CURTAIN FIXTURE.—Has no superior in the world! Is pronounced faultless by all who have seen it. It is predicted it will supersede all other Curtain Fixtures now in use.

FOR SALE.—Will be offered at private sale, the house and lot now occupied by Mrs. Hutchinson. The property is situated on High street, Ebensburg, in the most desirable location, either for a place of business or a place of residence, in town.

IMPORTANT LOCAL LEGISLATION.—A bill has been introduced into the State Legislature, which, though a snappy law, ought to pass. It provides that all the people of Ebensburg and vicinity, without distinction as to age, sex, or color, be required to buy their winter goods at A. A. Barker's cheap store.

QUEER ENDORSEMENT.—The other day, a five dollar note with the following endorsement across its back came under our observation: "Whoso cometh into possession of this note, squander it not in folly or extravagance, but rather take it to V. S. Barker's Cheap Cash Store and invest it as becometh a man of sense."

DRESS UP!—It is a duty that man owes to society to clothe himself decently and comfortably, if not tastefully. This can better be done by buying one's attire at Leopold's & Bro's Oak Hall Clothing Store than in any other known way. The O. H. C. S. is in Johnstown, or Main st. Drop in there some day.

GREAT REDUCTION IN FURS.—James M. Thompson hereby gives notice that he will close out his stock of ladies' furs at greatly reduced prices. Ladies, take notice—if you want bargains in furs, call on Mr. T. at once.

SWORN and subscribed to before me the 3d day of August, A. D. 1867.—JOHN A. METZELL, Justice of the Peace, 1st Ward, York borough.

DRS. GWINN & TROXEL.—Having associated in the practice of Medicine, offer their services to the citizens of Loreto and vicinity. Dr. Troxel may always be found at the house of Peter Christy when not professionally engaged, where night calls may be made; and Dr. Gwinn, at his residence in Loreto.
