

PATRONS.—Volume 8 of The Alleganian is concluded with the present issue. The publication of the Paper will be temporarily suspended from this date...

CAMBRIA COUNTY.—A tabular statement of the receipts and expenditures of Cambria county for the year ending Jan. 1, 1868, has been published. From it we condense the following bird's-eye view of the condition of the county finances:

Among the items of expenditure are: Paid Commissioners, $1,976 00; paid jailor, $1,423 88; paid jurors, $1,494 48; paid Poor House, $8,750 00; paid schools, $2,325 82; paid Western Penitentiary, $829 36; Treasurer's commission, $1,156 62.

The annexed statement shows the assets and liabilities of the county: Assets—Accounts due, $1,008 71; Miscellaneous, 38 48; from Collectors, 13,798 72; in Treasurer's hands, 2,795 72.

The liabilities consist of outstanding orders to the amount of $9,758 12. Excess of assets over liabilities, $13,798 67. The settlement of the Auditors with the County Poor House resulted as follows:

An improvement in this settlement of the Poor House affairs over settlements of former years is the exhibit of the items of expense. Thus, we find that the sum of $1,555 35 was paid to various parties during the year for flour and grain for the institution; that $542 43 were paid for meat; that $210 00 were paid for provisions; that $1,703 26 were paid for fuel to out-door paupers; and that $167 25 were paid for medical attendance to out-door paupers.

THE ELECTIONS.—The borough and township elections come off to-morrow. Freemen, are you prepared to do your duty at the polls? Are you naturalized? Are you assessed? Have you due appreciation of the tremendous issues at stake? Awake! arise! shake off the dew-drops that glitter on your garments, and—vote for the side that treats the citizen!

WHO CAN BEAT IT?—We have been shown by our antiquarian friend Mr. V. S. Barker a collection of American copper and nickel coins which he has been years accumulating. The collection embraces specimens of the one-cent coinage for every year from 1800 down to 1868.

MEMORANDA.—Col. Robert A. McCoy, Chief Clerk in the Land Office at Harrisburg, was in town from Saturday till Monday. The Eb. & Cresson Railroad was snowed up for a few days, lately, but is now in full tide of successful operation along its entire length. Patrick Duggin, husband of the woman killed by the railroad accident at Mill Creek, has died from injuries received in that disaster. The town of Altoona has become a city. At a special election held on Saturday last, the qualified voters of that place annulled their borough charter and declared in favor of a city corporation. A vocal and instrumental concert in aid of the new Catholic church of this place will be given in the Court House, Ebensburg, on Monday evening, March 2d. Mr. Chapman has severed his connection with the Teachers' Advocate, and is succeeded by Mr. A. C. Johnson, principal of the Johnstown schools. The Freeman favors the nomination of Messrs. Davis and Linton as the Democratic candidates respectively for Auditor General and Surveyor General. These names may possibly be recalled as belonging to the unsuccessful candidates for the offices named two elections ago. The Freeman does not say so, but we infer that it is a believer in the theory that eels become used to being skinned.

MURDER TRIAL.—The trial of Samuel Hull for the murder of Charles H. Parker was commenced before the Westmoreland county Court on Thursday of last week, and was concluded on Tuesday of this week. It will be remembered that Parker was conductor of the Johnstown accommodation train on the Pennsylvania Railroad, and was stabbed to death by Hull, who was a passenger on the train, at Ninevah station. The jury, after an absence of about six hours, returned a verdict of "guilty of murder in the second degree." The murdered man, with his family, lived at Conemaugh. The murderer is said also to have resided in the southern part of this county.

IMPORTANT ARBITRATION.—The case of Mr. John W. Easley and others against the Building Committee of the new Catholic church of Ebensburg was arbitrated at Cresson on Saturday last, before Messrs. Reese Jno. Lloyd, J. Alex. Moore, and E. J. Mills, arbitrators. The suit was instituted by plaintiffs to recover wages claimed to be due them for carpenter work done on the new Catholic church edifice. Claim contested by defendants on the ground that the work done was imperfect and not up to contract. After a full hearing of the case, the arbitrators awarded plaintiffs judgment for $310.00.

"I WILL NOT BE UNDERSOLD!"—These words constitute the business motto of Mr. T. W. Williams, proprietor of the Ebensburg Stove and Tinware House. If anybody imagines that he does not live up to his motto, let him give him a call, when he will find that Tom means all he says, and more—that he will not only not be undersold himself, but that he will undertake to undersell all others in his line of business. Try him.

N. Y. TRIBUNE.—1868.—Those wishing to subscribe for the New York weekly Tribune will find it to their advantage to subscribe through Mr. C. T. Roberts, who is raising a club for the same. The subscription price is $1.20 per annum, including postage. As an evidence of its excellence and popularity, we may here say, that some seventy copies are received and distributed by Mr. R. every week.

BLAIR COUNTY CRIMINALS.—The Sheriff of Blair county took the following delegation of criminals to the Western Penitentiary last week: Wash. Isett, sentenced to eight years imprisonment for rape; Edward Simms, sentenced to four years imprisonment for larceny and assault; and John Williams, sentenced to one year and three months imprisonment for larceny.

DIED.—In Ebensburg, on Friday last, Mrs. Elizabeth Thomas, wife of Mr. Richard Thomas, of Ebensburg, aged about 65 years. In Tidouste, Pa., on the 27th ultimo, John Arthur, infant son of James J. and Julia A. Will, aged 6 months 24 days. FIRE.—The dwelling house of James Klappinger, in Jackson township, with its contents, was destroyed by fire on Monday last. The flames originated from a defective stovepipe.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.

LETTER FROM JOHNSTOWN.—STABBING AFFRAY.—NOT QUITE A TERRIBLE AFFAIR, BUT A BIG SCARE.—A THIEF AND INGRATE.—VARIOUS ITEMS.

JOHNSTOWN, Feb. 17, 1868.

To the Editor of The Alleganian: A young man named Thomas Moore was severely cut in the abdomen, at Conemaugh station, on Thursday night last, by a man named Roberts. The cutting occurred at a ball, and was the result of a trivial misunderstanding between the parties. Roberts has made information against Moore, the injured man, charging him with assault and battery with intent to kill.

The pupils in attendance at the Cambria Iron Co.'s night schools here were presented with several hundred dollars' worth of books by Hon. D. J. Morrell, a few evenings since. The presentation took place at the school house in Cambria boro. During the exercises, quite a panic was occasioned by the falling of the top plate of the stove. The persons in attendance thought that the floor had given away, and a scene of indescribable confusion ensued. Benches were upset and windows broken in frantic efforts to flee from the supposed imminent danger, and several ladies threw themselves headlong from the second story to the ground. Fortunately, no one was badly injured, though a multitude were badly scared.

A young man named McGowan was arrested here on Friday last, by detectives from Pittsburg, on a charge of stealing. McGowan was a resident of this place for several years, but has been staying in Pittsburg for some months past. It appears that in that city he met an acquaintance, who procured him a boarding-house and went security for his board. McG., in order to show his gratitude, rigged himself up in his friend's best suit of clothes and appropriated his friend's watch, and then decamped. He was traced to this point and arrested. The stolen clothes were found on his person, but the watch was gone.

The Turners' masquerade ball comes off at Fronheiser's hall this evening. It promises to be an entire success, over three hundred tickets having been disposed of.

The house of Mr. C. Suppes, on Clinton street, was entered by burglars on Friday night last and a pocket-book containing about five dollars abstracted therefrom.

The arbitration in the case of Trainor vs. McCabe, for damages sustained by the former from being accidentally shot by the latter, came off at the Foster House on Saturday, and resulted in favor of the defendant.

Married, at the residence of the bride's father, Henry Vale, Esq., at Scalp Level, by Rev. R. A. Fink, Mr. Peter H. Levergood to Miss Annie M. Vale.

Died, at his residence, in this place, on the 4th instant, after a brief illness, Mr. Thomas Test, aged 67 years.

The proposed firemen's ball has been postponed till Easter Monday evening.

VALUABLE PROPERTY FOR SALE.—Will be sold at private sale, the House and Lot occupied by Mrs. Hutchinson. The property is situated on High street, near the "Diamond," Ebensburg, in the heart of the business part of town. In addition to the House, there are two Offices and the usual Outbuildings on the lot. Young and bearing apple, peach, pear, plum, and quince trees, several fine grapevines, and a variety of small fruits, on the premises. The most desirable location in town for either a family residence or a place of business, or for the two combined.

Also, a lot on Center street, one square north of High street—a most desirable location for a private residence. For particulars, inquire at THIS OFFICE.

THOMPSON.—J. M. Thompson's store, High street, Ebensburg, is favored with a large share of the ladies' patronage. This is owing to the fact that Jim keeps a larger, more varied, and more fashionable stock of ladies' goods than any other merchant in town, and sells the same at astonishingly low prices—lower than the lowest. No wonder the ladies go there!

GOOD NEWS TO OWNERS OF HORSES.—Having secured the aid of a good Shoeer, and being well supplied with Nails and Shoes, I am determined to offer to cash customers the greatest inducement held out in this place since things were low. You can have your Horses shod all round for One Dollar and Fifty Cents. I will also iron Sleighs and Sleds, make Wagon Tire and all kinds of Chains, and do every thing in the Blacksmithing line at greatly reduced prices for the cash. Shop near the Foundry of E. Glass. R. H. SINGER. Ebensburg, Dec. 12, 1867.

K. CURTAIN FIXTURE.—Has no superior in the world! Is pronounced faultless by all who have seen it. It is predicted it will supersede all other Curtain Fixtures now in use. For sale by G. HUNTLEY, Ebensburg, Pa. mar21]
