PROTH.—The Temperance Vindicator this week has a characteristic attack of The Alleghanian. BOOTS AND SHOES.—Mr. John D. Thomas, at his boot and shoe manufactory, High street, has just received a large assortment of fine French calfskin and other leathers, and is prepared to "take the measure" of any number of customers.

CIGARS.—Do you smoke? Do you like a good cigar—a cigar enjoyable, a cigar ostentatious, a cigar as a cigar? Then go to M. L. Oatman's.

COUNCIL ROOMS.—Our new Burgess and Town Council, with commendable public-spiritedness, have rented and fitted up a suite of rooms, on High-st., for borough purposes.

IMPROVEMENTS.—Improvement seems to be the order of the day, and we notice a number of our citizens have already commenced to repair and improve their residences and surroundings.

TEMPERANCE.—Elsewhere in this paper will be found a communication from our friend Hon. A. A. Barker, on the subject of temperance.

TEMPERANCE AND TEMPERANCE ORGANIZATIONS.—In this particular, it is a marked improvement over any possible series of resolutions in favor of temperance.

HOOPLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS AND HOOPLAND'S GERMAN TONIC. The Great Remedies for all Diseases of the Liver, Stomach or Digestive Organs.

HOOPLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS is composed of the pure juices (or, as they are medicinally termed, Extracts) of Roots, Herbs, and Barks, making a preparation, highly concentrated, and entirely free from alcoholic admixture of any kind.

HOOPLAND'S GERMAN TONIC is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with the purest quality of Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, &c., making one of the most pleasant, agreeable remedies ever offered to the public.

Those preferring a Medicine free from Alcoholic admixture, will use HOOPLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS. Those who have no objection to the combination of the Bitters, as stated, will use HOOPLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

They are both equally good, and contain the same medicinal virtues, the choice between the two being a mere matter of taste, the Tonic being the most palatable.

The stomach, from a variety of causes such as Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, etc., is very apt to have its functions deranged. The Liver, sympathizing as closely as it does with the Stomach, then becomes affected, the result of which is that the patient suffers from several or more of the following diseases:

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fulness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or fluttering at the pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of vision, Dots or webs before the sight, dull pain in the Head, Debility of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginations of Evil, and great depression of Spirits.

The sufferer from these diseases should exercise the greatest caution in the selection of a remedy for his case, purchasing only that which he is assured from his investigations and inquiries, possesses true merit, is skillfully compounded, is free from injurious ingredients, and established for itself a reputation for the cure of these diseases.

In this connection we would submit those well-known remedies—Hoopland's German Bitters, and Hoopland's German Tonic, prepared by DR. C. M. JACKSON, PHILADELPHIA, PA. Thirty-five years since they were first introduced into this country from Germany, during which time they have undoubtedly performed more cures, and benefited suffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies known to the public.

These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Chronic Diarrhoea, Disease of the Kidneys, and all diseases arising from a disordered Liver, Stomach or Intestines. DEBILITY RESULTING FROM ANY CAUSE whatever; Prostration of the System, induced by Severe Labor, Hardships, Exposure, Fever, &c.

There is no medicine extant equal to these remedies in such cases. A tone and vigor is imparted to the whole system, the appetite is strengthened, food is enjoyed, the stomach digests properly, the blood is purified, the complexion becomes sound and healthy, the yellowinge is eradicated from the eyes, a bloom is given to the cheeks, and the weak and nervous invalid becomes a strong and healthy being.

PERSONS ADVANCED IN LIFE, And feeling the hand of time weighing heavily upon them, with all its attendant ills, will find in the use of this Bitters, or the Tonic, an elixir that will instil life into their veins, restore in a measure the energy and ardor of more youthful days, build up their shrunken forms, and give health and happiness to their remaining years.
