

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT: GEN'L. ULYSSES S. GRANT. FOR VICE PRESIDENT: HON. SCHUYLER COLFAX. FOR AUDITOR GENERAL: GENERAL JOHN F. HARTRANFT. FOR SURVEYOR GENERAL: GENERAL JACOB M. CAMPBELL. FOR CONGRESS: HON. DANIEL J. MORRELL. FOR STATE SENATOR: HON. HARRY WHITE.

Our Candidates.

Both political parties having now their full tickets in the field, and the campaign being therefore upon us, with all its great and varied responsibilities, some mention of those chosen to be our standard-bearers will not be out of place. Of General Ulysses S. Grant and Hon. Schuyler Colfax, our candidates respectively for President and Vice President, it is unnecessary to speak at length. The former is the great Captain whose services in crushing the slaveholders' rebellion have only been equalled by the services he has since rendered in the councils of the nation. The latter is Speaker of the National House of Representatives, and one of the foremost statesmen of the times. Their fame is co-extensive with our country, and we deem it a work of supererogation to say aught in their behalf.

A brief biography of our candidate for re-election to the office of Auditor General, Gen. John F. Hartranft, will be found on our first page. Gen. Hartranft was one of the most gallant soldiers of the war, and directed telling blows against the enemy during the entire continuance of the rebellion. Returning home, he was elected by an overwhelming majority to the office for which he is again a candidate, and to which he will be re-elected by an increased vote.

Gen. Jacob M. Campbell, our candidate for Surveyor General, is a resident of our own county, and too well known to our readers to require special notice at our hands. He served his country well and faithfully throughout the war; was elected Surveyor General upon his return to the walks of peace, three years ago; and is now the unanimous choice of the Republicans of the State for re-election to that office.

Hon. Daniel J. Morrell, of this county, will to-day be re-nominated for Congress by the Conference of this district. His one term in that body has made for him a National reputation as a practical, far-sighted statesman. His speeches on the Currency and other questions, and his report on the Warehousing System, have been widely copied and commented on, and are looked upon by the well-informed as the productions of a mind fully conversant with all the intricacies of the abstruse science of political economy. He is worthy to represent this great and growing district in the popular branch of the law-making body of the Nation, and will be re-elected by an increased majority.

To Hon. Harry White has been tendered the compliment of re-nomination for State Senator in this district. He is a bold and fearless exponent of the principles of Republicanism, and has done good service for his party and constituents in the Senate, where he has already served a couple of terms. That he will be re-elected is as certain as that the sun rises in the East.

The nomination of James Morley for Assembly was peculiarly appropriate. He is an able politician, an eloquent speaker, and an honest man, and his name will be a tower of strength to our party at the polls.

Josiah M. Christy, our nominee for Prothonotary, is well and favorably known to nearly every voter in the county. He is every inch a gentleman and good fellow, and is eminently qualified for the office to which he is nominated.

Our candidate for Commissioner, Joseph Croyle, is a respected farmer living in Croyle township. George Settlemyer, for Poor House Director, and George L. Glasgow, for Auditor, are also farmers, the former living in Summerhill and the latter in White township. E. A. Vickroy, our candidate for Surveyor, is a resident of Johnstown, and a highly esteemed citizen.

Such is our ticket. It is worthy of the heartiest support.

With regard to the National, State, and District nominees, success is assured. We can elect them, and mean to do it. But cannot we also elect our County Ticket?

Our candidates are the right manner of men—able, energetic, honest, and popular. The Democratic county ticket, on the other hand, though composed partially of good material, is as a whole weak and unpopular. The masses of the people seem determined not to take stock in it. With the proper effort, we believe we can elect all our candidates.

Is it not worth while to make that effort?

Seymour's Friends.

As showing the temper of Seymour's Southern friends toward white unionists and the freedmen, and to convey to our readers some faint idea of the Ku-Klux way of electioneering for the Democratic ticket, we catch and fix in our columns some items which we find floating through our exchanges.

Wade Hampton is chairman of the Democratic Central Committee of South Carolina. At a Democratic meeting held at Frog Level, S. C., July 25th, under his auspices, the following resolution was presented and adopted:

Resolved, That no member of this club shall employ, rent lands to, or patronize any Radical, after the present contracts shall have expired. And that from this date, we will not give employment to any freedmen who are straggling over the country as day laborers, who cannot show a certificate that they are members of some Democratic association.

Kentucky gave a Democratic majority at her late election. This is not strange, seeing that the rebels were allowed to vote in that State, while the freedmen were kept away from the polls. The rebels celebrated the victory of their party in a characteristic manner. A day or two following, as we learn from a Lexington, Kentucky, paper, a number of these chivalric Seymour men living near Keene, Jessamine county, disguised themselves and "spent the time from 12 o'clock a. m. to 6 o'clock p. m. in whipping and killing negroes." Old men, young men, and even women, were beaten and kicked, and one man was shot and killed.

On the night of the 16th inst., a party of masked rebels rode into Nashville, Tennessee, and shot and killed a merchant named Bierfeld, and his clerk, named Bowman. The only crime imputed to the former was that of being a radical. The latter was a negro.

A letter from Texas says that "the mob of Ku-Kluxers go the rounds every night. They visited a shop last evening and killed one negro, and beat another almost to death. The charge against the negro was that they would not abandon the loyal league and join the Democratic club."

This is enough, yet half is not told—Stories of similar outrages reach us every day.

Must not that party be vile indeed which is supported by such men and such measures!

Wake Up.

On Saturday evening last, a large and enthusiastic assemblage of Republicans of Ebensburg and Cambria township met in the Court House and organized a Grant Club. The campaign has thus been fully opened here, and the intention is to fight it out on the Grant and Colfax line till victory perches on our eagles in October and November. We mention this fact to impel the Republicans of Cambria county to the discharge of their political duties. A Grant Club ought to be forthwith organized in every election district. It is only by systematic action, coupled with energy and vigilance, that we can hope to get out our vote. Last year we had no organization in this county, while the enemy worked secretly, silently, determinedly. The result is well known. We must not suffer ourselves to be again caught napping. Let Grant Clubs spring up in every nook and corner of the county.—Wake up!—organize!—work!—and victory cannot be doubtful.

Congressional.

The Republican Congressional Conference for this (the 17th) district will meet in Huntingdon to-day, at 2 o'clock, to nominate a candidate for Congress. Hon. Daniel J. Morrell, having already been declared the choice of each and every county within the district, will be unanimously re-nominated on the first ballot. The following are the conferees:

Cambria—Geo. Fritz, C. T. Roberts, James Conrad. Blair—Samuel McCannant, James Condon, Peter Van Deventer. Huntingdon—John Scott, S. Miles Green, Hayes Hamilton. Mifflin—Abram Rothrock, Adolphus F. Gibbons, Aug. Troxell.

We print on this page the platform adopted by the Republican National Convention at Chicago. Every plank of it is sound. Our readers should study it carefully, so as to arrive at a correct knowledge of the issues involved in the campaign.

The Republican Platform.

The National Republican Party of the United States, assembled in National Convention in the City of Chicago, on the 21st day of May, 1868, made the following Declaration of Principles:

I. We congratulate the country on the assured success of the Reconstruction policy of Congress, as evinced by the adoption, in the majority of the States lately in rebellion, of Constitutions securing Equal Civil and Political Rights to all, and it is the duty of the Government to sustain those institutions and to prevent the people of such States from being remitted to a state of anarchy.

II. The guaranty by Congress of Equal Suffrage to all loyal men at the South was demanded by every consideration of public safety, of gratitude, and of justice, and must be maintained; while the question of Suffrage in all the loyal States properly belongs to the people of those States.

III. We denounce all forms of Repudiation as a national crime; and the national honor requires the payment of the public indebtedness in the utmost good faith to all creditors at home and abroad, not only according to the letter but the spirit of the laws under which it was contracted.

IV. It is due to the Labor of the Nation that taxation should be equalized, and reduced as rapidly as the national faith will permit.

V. The National Debt, contracted, as it has been, for the preservation of the Union for all time to come, should be extended over a fair period for redemption; and it is the duty of Congress to reduce the rate of interest thereon, whenever it can be honestly done.

VI. That the best policy to diminish our burden of debt is to so improve our credit that capitalists will seek to loan us money at lower rates of interest than we now pay and must continue to pay so long as repudiation, partial or total, open or covert, is threatened or suspected.

VII. The Government of the United States should be administered with the strictest economy; and the corruptions which have been so shamefully nursed and fostered by Andrew Johnson call loudly for radical reform.

VIII. We profoundly deplore the untimely and tragic death of Abraham Lincoln, and regret the accession to the Presidency of Andrew Johnson, who has acted treacherously to the people who elected him and the cause he was pledged to support; who has usurped high legislative and judicial functions; who has refused to execute the laws; who has used his high office to induce other officers to ignore and violate the laws; who has employed his executive powers to render insecure the property, the peace, liberty and life of the citizen; who has abused the pardoning power; who has denounced the National Legislature as unconstitutional; who has persistently and corruptly resisted, by every means in his power, every proper attempt at the reconstruction of the States lately in rebellion; who has perverted the public patronage into an engine of wholesale corruption; and who has been justly impeached for high crimes and misdemeanors, and properly pronounced guilty thereof by the vote of thirty-five Senators.

IX. The doctrine of Great Britain and other European powers that, because a man is once a subject he is always so, must be resisted at every hazard by the United States, as a relic of feudal times, not authorized by the laws of nations, and at war with our national honor and independence. Naturalized citizens are entitled to protection in all their rights of citizenship, as though they were native-born; and no citizen of the United States, native or naturalized, must be liable to arrest and imprisonment by any foreign power for acts done or words spoken in this country; and, if so arrested and imprisoned, it is the duty of the Government to interfere in his behalf.

X. Of all who were faithful in the trials of the late war, there were none entitled to more especial honor than the brave soldiers and seamen who endured the hardships of campaign and cruise, and imperiled their lives in the service of the country; the bonnies and pensions provided by the laws for these brave defenders of the nation, are obligations never to be forgotten; the widows and orphans of the gallant dead are the wards of the people—a sacred legacy bequeathed to the nation's protecting care.

XI. Foreign immigration, which in the past has added so much to the wealth, development and resources and increase of power of this republic, the asylum of the oppressed of all nations, should be fostered and encouraged by a liberal and just policy.

XII. This Convention declares its sympathy with all oppressed peoples struggling for their rights.

Additional Resolutions.

Resolved, That we highly commend the spirit of magnanimity and forbearance with which the men who have served in the Rebellion, but now frankly and honestly co-operate with us in restoring the peace of the country and reconstructing the Southern State Governments upon the basis of impartial justice and equal rights, are received back into the communion of the loyal people; and we favor the removal of the disqualifications and restrictions imposed upon the late Rebels in the same measure as their spirit of loyalty will direct, and as may be consistent with the safety of the loyal people.

Resolved, That we recognize the great principles laid down in the immortal Declaration of Independence as the true foundation of democratic government, and we hail with gladness every effort toward making these principles a living reality on every inch of American soil.

Honor to a Great Man.

Governor Geary on Friday last issued the following proclamation, embodying a well-conceived tribute to the memory of Thaddeus Stevens: EXECUTIVE CHAMBER, HARRISBURG, August 14, 1868. To the People of Pennsylvania:

The death of the oldest member of the Pennsylvania delegation in Congress, Thaddeus Stevens, is an event which today shrouds the Commonwealth in gloom. Though not a native of the State, Thaddeus Stevens' most earnest efforts were always devoted to its interests and glory, and his name will ever be associated with all that is great in the progress of the last quarter of a century, as well as in all that pertains to statesmanship in the struggle to preserve and perpetuate the American Union. The people of Pennsylvania owe to the enlarged statesmanship of Thaddeus Stevens the initiation of a system of public improvements, which has since developed the vast resources of the State, and rendered its prosperity a subject of wonder and admiration. To his wisdom and liberality we are indebted for our present magnificent system of free school education, by which the children of the poor are enabled to reach a degree of cultivation beyond which the wealthiest and most favored of other lands cannot go. As a member of the convention which revised and amended the State constitution, as a representative to the lower branch of the Legislature, and as a Canal Commissioner, the late Thaddeus Stevens displayed the same great abilities which distinguished him as a jurist in the highest courts, and as a leader in the councils of the nation. The memory of the services of the illustrious dead, of his many grand traits of character, of his great and cultivated intellect, of his irrepressible abilities as a jurist and as a legislator, and of his generous and munificent character, will never die. It will survive the recollection of man, and forever live in the records of our courts, our State and national Legislatures, in the history of our country, to which he was so ardently attached, and in the hearts of his countrymen, whom he so immortally honored and so faithfully served. It is directed that all the departments of the State Government be closed after 12 o'clock on Monday next, and that the national flag be displayed at half-mast at the same time on all the public buildings of the State.

JOHN W. GEARY.

THE REGATTA SEASON.—Almost simultaneously with the opening of fashionable navigation, by the New York Yacht Club, and the inauguration of the New Club House on Staten Island, Lorillard has introduced his Yacht Club Smoking Tobacco and Yacht Club Pipe. Both are specialties—the tobacco being composed of the finest Virginia leaf, deprived of its nicotine, and the pipe being of the finest quality of meerschaum, with a unique and tasteful design, representing a yacht "going large" before the wind. Mr. Lorillard, who is a man of original ideas, and never does things by halves, has linked the new brand and its elegant receptacles together in a very pretty way. Orders for the pipes are placed in different packages of the brand daily, which, upon being presented, entitle the lucky holders to a pipe each. The demand for this tobacco is immense, and it is an article of extraordinary merit. It bids fair to rival in popularity all other tobaccos.—N. Y. Telegraph.
