MEMORANDA.—The Mountaineer base ball club of Ebensburg will visit Johnstown to-morrow, (Friday), to play the return game with the Kick base ball club of the latter place. Excursion tickets will be issued at the Ebensburg depot, good for the round trip over the Pennsylvania Railroad. We have received and will publish next week the official report of Mr. Chapman, Superintendent of Common Schools for Cambria county, for the year ending June 1, 1868. Ebensburg wants to engage four teachers to take charge of her schools for the winter session. See advertisement. Rev. Hackett, lately in charge of the Catholic congregation at Wilmore, has been stationed at Freeport, Armstrong county. The vacancy at Wilmore has been filled by Rev. Brown, late of Johnstown. A new post office has been established at Allman's, Clearfield county. A mask ball came off at Cresson on Friday evening last. It is said to have been a grand affair. We understand that a Grant and Colfax Glee Club will be organized here to-night. R. L. Johnston, Esq., of Ebensburg, pleased delighted, and entranced, and otherwise gratified and enraptured the Democracy of Hollidaysburg by an hour's speech a few evenings since. Mr. Isaac Crawford is having his hotel, the "Logan House," repaired and refurnished. The days are warm, and the nights are cold. Put on your woollens.

TRIAL LIST.—The trial list as published by us last week contained some inaccuracies. We herewith republish it, revised and corrected:

Table with trial list entries including names like Bell vs. Swires et al., Storm vs. Penna. R. R. Co., Cooper vs. Dunmyer, et al., White's Ex'r. vs. Woodcock, etc.

SCALP LEVEL.—This is the name of a straggling village in Richland township, this county, lying near the borders of Somerset county. It is not an euphonious name, and we have often wondered how it had its origin. The following explanation was given us the other evening: A man from Somerset county happened to invade the village one day, and got into a fistic difficulty with one who was to the manor born. The friends of the latter rallied to his aid, and simultaneously pitched into the Somerset man and gave him a tremendous walloping. They beat him and kicked him till his person was a community of scars and bruises, accompanying each blow and each kick—they were all Germans—with the exclamation: "Scalp de devil!" This was subsequently corrupted into Scalp Level, and the words adopted as a name for the village where the sanguinary conflict took place, by which name it is known even unto this day.

SOCIETIES.—As a matter of local interest, we give a list of the various secret societies in Ebensburg, with the times of their respective meetings: Summit Lodge No. 312 A. Y. M. meets in Masonic Hall on the fourth Tuesday evening of each month. Highland Lodge No. 428 I. O. F. meets in Odd Fellows' Hall every Wednesday evening. Highland Division No. 84 Sons of Temperance meets in Odd Fellows' Hall every Saturday evening. Highland Temple of Honor No. 11 meets in Odd Fellows' Hall every Monday evening. Evening Star Social Temple No. — meets in Odd Fellows' Hall every Friday evening.

BASE BALL.—A pleasant game of base ball was played here on Saturday, between the "Ionians" of Chest Springs and our "Mountaineers." The "Ionians" are a comparatively new club, but played a good game. We give the score: Mountaineers, R. O. Ionians, R. O. Jones, c. 3 Fogle, c. 3 2 Breese, 2b. 8 2 Perry, lb. 1 6 F. H. NEW CONGREGATIONALIST CHURCH.—The old Congregationalist church edifice of Ebensburg having proved totally inadequate for the wants of the congregation, it was determined last summer to fill its place with a new one. This new edifice is now in process of erection. Its site is on High street, in the East Ward, not far from the Presbyterian church. The dimensions are 80x50 feet, with a height of 45 feet. It will be of brick, and, when completed, will take rank among the finest church buildings in town. The laying of the brick was commenced on Monday.

GRANT CLUBS.—These organizations are springing up rapidly all over the county. One was organized in Jackson township last Saturday, and one in White township on Friday week. We hope to see them multiply till each election district will be provided with one or more. We will gladly publish all communications embodying the proceedings of the organization of these clubs.

CAMP MEETING.—A camp meeting will be held under the auspices of the Blairsville district of the M. E. Church, at the usual grounds, near Armagh, Indiana county, commencing on the 10th September. Ample preparations are making, and the occasion will doubtless attract a large concourse and be full of interest.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.

LETTER FROM JOHNSTOWN.—ORGANIZATION OF GRANT CLUBS—SEVERAL ACCIDENTS—ITEMS OF INTEREST.

JOHNSTOWN, August 24, 1868. To the Editors of The Alleghanian: Grant Clubs have been organized at Conemaugh and Scalp Level. While a party from this place who were in attendance at the latter meeting were returning home, on Saturday night, a wagon broke down, and Mr. Beam, of Conemaugh borough, an occupant, was severely injured by being run into by another team.

Patrick Dullenty, an employee of the Cambria Iron Co., was seriously injured on Thursday last by the blowing up of a puddling furnace at the rolling mill. Several others were slightly injured at the same time.

A little son of Mr. Dunford, of Prospect borough, had his arm seriously fractured in two places while wrestling with another boy, the other day.

An interesting perjury case was tried before Esq. Rutledge on Wednesday last. The parties concerned hail from Perkinsville. The defendant was bound over in the sum of $300 for his appearance at Court.

The new steel mill of the Cambria Iron Co. is being rapidly pushed forward toward completion.

We have been having rain in abundance during the past week, and it was badly needed. P.

EGOTISM.—Out of a mass of complimentary notices which have greeted The Alleghanian since its late introduction to the public, we select the following:

[From the Altoona Visiterator.] We have received the first number of The Alleghanian, which has been revised under the proprietorship of J. T. Hutchinson and Ed. James. A portion of the paper appears in new type, and taken altogether, it presents quite a neat appearance. The editors of this journal have the ability to make it a spicy and interesting sheet, and "barrin" their politics," we wish them much success.

[From the Pittsburg Gazette.] The Ebensburg Alleghanian, after a brief suspension, has resumed publication, and comes to us as bright and smiling as ever. J. T. Hutchinson, its former editor, and Ed. James, have assumed the editorial duties, and they will undoubtedly sustain the high reputation The Alleghanian has ever enjoyed. We wish the paper long life and prosperity.

[From the Hollidaysburg Standard.] The first number of the resuscitated Alleghanian came to hand last week, dressed in new type, and sparkling as of old, editorially and locally, and is to be a permanent institution henceforth. We wish it abundant success peculiarly—otherwise, not.

[From the Hollidaysburg Register.] The Ebensburg Alleghanian has been revived, under the control of J. T. Hutchinson and Ed. James, and presents a neat appearance—and we hope will receive, a liberal support from the Union men of Cambria county.

[From the Johnstown Democrat.] The Ebensburg Alleghanian has been received by Messrs. J. T. Hutchinson and Ed. James. It made its appearance last week, and is a welcome visitor to our sanctum.

[From the Johnstown Tribune.] The Ebensburg Alleghanian has been resuscitated by J. Todd Hutchinson and Ed. James, and this time to stay. The paper looks well and reads well.

[From the Pittsburg Commercial.] The first number of the Ebensburg Alleghanian was issued on Thursday last from new material, and is very neat in appearance.

[From the Huntingdon Globe.] The Ebensburg Alleghanian came to us last week. It is like the sight of an old friend long absent. Long may it wave.

CARL SCHURZ.—This distinguished patriot and able man spoke for Grant and Colfax to a monster mass meeting in Pittsburg on Monday night. He spoke again in Johnstown on Tuesday evening, to a large assemblage. The General intends visiting various parts of the State during the campaign, and will do good service. He will also visit New York, New Jersey, and other States.

ACCIDENT.—On Sunday night, a freight train going west was wrecked at the deep cut on the Penna. Railroad between Gallitzin and Cresson. A man named Bowers, an engineer on the road, who was riding on the train, was hurt so badly in the wreck that it is feared he will not recover.

PERSONAL.—Col. R. A. McCoy, chief clerk in the Surveyor General's office at Harrisburg, was in town from Saturday till Monday.

Dr. John H. Clarke, of Pittsburg, and family, are spending the dog-days here. Hosts of friends are always glad to see them.

IT IS SO.—Money can be saved by buying your groceries at Oatman's. Money can be saved by buying your flour at Oatman's. Money can be saved by buying your carbon oil at Oatman's. Go to Oatman's, High street.

MEETING.—A Republican mass meeting will be held in Jackson township on next Saturday evening. It will be addressed by able speakers.

GO AND HEAR.—The Ebensburg Grant Club will meet in the Town Hall on next Saturday evening, and will be addressed by George M. Reade, Esq.

PACKARD'S MONTHLY.—This is the title of a monthly publication for young men lately started in New York city. Though only four months old, it has already achieved a great reputation, and bids fair to turn up an immense circulation. It numbers among its contributors such men as Horace Greeley, James Parton, Ellihu Burritt, Oliver Dyer, and G. W. Bangay, while other contributors of equal eminence will hereafter be added to the list. The far-famed "Wickedest Man in New York" was originally written for Packard's Monthly, by Oliver Dyer. It is a good publication, and so cheap that anybody can subscribe for it. Only $1 a year. Address S. S. Packard, 937 Broadway, New York city.

AN EPISODE IN LACONICS.—A young man—married—patriotism—enlisted—no furlough—three years—plenty letters—great battle—Grant victorious—come home—not a dollar—claim agent got his pay—$500—tried agencies—books, patents, everything—no good—dead loss—received letter—extra bounty and pension—$196—saw "Bentley's Metropolitan Non-explosive Oil" advertised—invested money in township rights—sold well—bought more—got rich—a chance for you, reader. These rights are for sale by M. L. Oatman, Ebensburg.

LORETO MARBLE WORKS.—Perhaps the reader has noticed the card in this paper of the Loreto Marble Works. Mr. Jas. Wilkinson, the proprietor of the Works, is one of the best marble-cutters in the State, is reliable, responsible, and a good fellow withal. He has built up a splendid business in this county, and we are glad of it, for he deserves it all. We take pleasure in recommending him to those who may need his services, promising that he will give full and entire satisfaction in every case.

PRICES REDUCED.—American watches for twenty dollars. Now is the time to buy a watch of the best manufacture. All know the superiority of these watches. Give him a call, and call early.

HARDWARE, TINWARE, &c.—Frank W. Hay, of Johnstown, is one who believes in a free use of Printer's ink. He advertises liberally and judiciously, and by that means has built up a most extensive trade. He keeps a first-class establishment, and sells as cheap as the cheapest—as cheap, in point of fact, as the same goods are sold in Pittsburg.

COAL.—Cold weather draws on apace, and he is wise who makes provision for its coming by laying in a timely supply of fuel. If you want to buy a car load of coal, send an order to William Tiley, Hemlock, Cambria county. He is extensively engaged in the mining business at that place, and can sell a good article at as low a price as anybody else. Give him a trial.

BEAR IN MIND THAT A. A. Barker & Son, two doors east of the bank, are selling the very best quality of dry goods, clothing, hats, caps, boots, shoes, groceries &c., &c., at exceedingly low prices. They take great pleasure in showing goods, and invite the public to give them a trial. Go and secure a bargain, as they are determined not to be undersold by any other house in the county.

Lloyd, Esq., dealer in drugs, medicines, paints, oils, dyes, perfumery, fancy articles, pure wines and liquors for medicinal purposes, stationery, &c., &c. He keeps a tip-top drug and fancy store, and sells at the right kind of figures. Store at the P. O., High-st., Ebensburg.

MAMMOTH STORE.—Have you yet visited Geo. Huntley's mammoth Hardware establishment? If not, go now and buy a bill of his cheap goods.
