THE REPUBLICAN MASS MEETING.

The Republican meeting of Wednesday last was by odds the largest, the most enthusiastic, and the most respectable ever held in Ebensburg. The attendance in the afternoon was probably 1,000, and in the evening fully 2,500. Though rain fell at intervals throughout the day, at an early hour delegations began arriving from the different sections of the county. First came the delegation from staunch old Blacklick, in wagons beautifully decorated with the National colors; then the delegation from Susquehanna township, in a four horse wagon, with music and banners; then delegations from Alleghany, Jackson, Cambria, Summerhill, and the other districts, till town was crowded to its utmost capacity. It is worthy of remark that every election district in the county was represented at the meeting by one or more electors.

At 2 1/2 o'clock in the afternoon, the meeting was called to order, in front of Mr. Henry Foster's "Cambria House," where a suitable stand had been erected for the speakers. On motion of Lieut. J. O. Brookbank, John Williams, Esq., of Ebensburg, was called to the chair. Mr. Williams made a few pertinent remarks touching the object of the meeting; after which the following additional officers were elected:

Vice Presidents—John Elder, Chest; John Glass, Alleghany; John W. Roberts, Susquehanna; Christian Fulmer, Carroll; Samuel Reed, Blacklick; Thomas Griffiths, Cambria; Francis Eberly, Munster; Samuel S. Paul, Summerhill; James D. Hamilton, Wilmore; James Conrad, Washington; Lieut. Thomas S. Davis, Jackson; Cyrus Elder, Johnstown; Col. James Cooper, Taylor; Capt. George B. Stitzman, Richmond. Secretaries—J. T. Hutchinson, Ebensburg; James M. Swank, Johnstown; Wm. H. Adams, Belsano.

After the organization had been perfected, Gen. Harry White, our candidate for State Senator, was introduced to the assemblage. He spoke for two hours, and fully and fairly discussed the great issues involved in the campaign. Appealing, not to the passions or prejudices of his hearers, but to their reason, he proved to them conclusively that the salvation of the country depends upon the success at the polls, next November, of the Republican party. He was rapturously applauded at various parts of his speech.

Samuel Singleton, Esq., of Ebensburg, was next called on. He spoke in his usual forcible and eloquent style, and let daylight through the mischievous "financial policy" of the Democracy. His remarks were eagerly listened to and heartily applauded.

Before the conclusion of Mr. Singleton's speech, the Johnstown delegation of 400 Republicans arrived in town, per special train. The delegation consisted of a Tanners' Club, nearly 100 strong, with caps, caps, and lanterns, a Grant Club, a Glee Club, and a large number of Republicans not connected with these organizations. They formed in line at the depot, and escorted by the Johnstown Cornet Band, marched in procession to the place of meeting, where they were received with vociferous cheering. If town before was crowded, now it was crammed with Grant and Colfax men.

Quiet being secured, Mr. Singleton concluded his speech; when the assemblage dispersed, with cheers, for rest and refreshment.

At 7 o'clock, the Tanners' Club, with lighted torches, transparencies, banners, and fireworks, and preceded by the Cornet Band, paraded through the principal streets. They made a grand display, which was keenly relished by the immense multitude who witnessed it.

At 7 1/2 o'clock, the meeting was again called to order, and H. Bueher Swope, Esq., of Clearfield, was introduced. He made a most telling speech—able, eloquent, logical, convincing. He was followed by A. B. Westbrook, Esq., of New York, who delivered some most effective shots at Democracy.

The proceedings were occasionally enlivened by songs by the Glee Club, and at the conclusion of Mr. Westbrook's speech, several additional songs were sung by these really excellent singers; when at 11 o'clock the meeting adjourned, and the vast crowd, without noise or disturbance, dispersed to their respective homes.

As we said before, this was decidedly the largest political meeting ever held in Ebensburg. The contrast between it and the Democratic gathering of the evening before was ludicrous in the extreme. Their numbers were estimated by tens; ours by hundreds. This, too, it should be remembered, is—or least was last election—a Democratic county. The lesson which seems to be taught is that the enemy is completely demoralized by our successes wherever we have shown forth our strength, and that if we get out our full vote next October and November, we will be able to "wipe him out" even here in Cambria county. Let us try it!

COURT PROCEEDINGS.—Following is a summary of the business transacted in our Courts last week:

Comth. vs. David McDade—obtaining goods under false pretense. Not guilty, but pay the costs.

Comth. vs. David McDevitt—cruelty to animals. Not guilty, but pay costs. In addition to the foregoing criminal business, a large number of cases were ignored by the Grand Jury, many were settled upon payment of costs, and several defendants were "not taken."

Common Pleas.

Wm. Smith vs. James Glasgow—appeal. Jury find for plaintiff $66.64.

Richard Hughes and Alice Hughes vs. Ephraim Crum—replevin. Jury find for plaintiff $41.60.

Court adjourned Saturday afternoon. The attendance throughout the entire week was very large.

GRANT CLUB—TANNERS' CLUB.—The Ebensburg Grant Club met in the Town Hall on Saturday evening, and was ably and eloquently addressed by Mr. Danl. O. Evans. The names of several new members were entered on the rolls. The next meeting of the Club will be held to-morrow (Friday) evening, in the Town Hall, and will be addressed by Hon. A. A. Barker. Let there be a full attendance.

Immediately after the adjournment of the Grant Club, an informal meeting was called to organize a Tanners' Club. The following officers were elected: President, J. T. Hutchinson; Vice Presidents, Wm. D. Davis, R. E. Smith, N. I. Roberts; Secretaries, A. Y. Jones, Alvin Evans; Treasurer, Samuel Henry. A committee of five was appointed, to receive applications for membership, procure the necessary uniforms, &c. It is thought the Club will number 100 members in one week from date, or at about which time its first public parade will be held. A meeting of the Club will be held in the Town Hall this (Thursday) evening, to perfect organization, &c.

WASHINGTON TOWNSHIP.—A correspondent writes us that a Grant and Colfax club was organized at Hemlock on Saturday evening last. Wm. Hale, Esq., was elected President, G. W. Miller Vice President, and John Williams Secretary. A goodly number enrolled themselves as members. The club will meet every Saturday evening during the campaign.

MEMORANDA.—An unknown man was killed near Tyrone on Tuesday of last week by being run over by a train of cars. His remains were taken to Altoona for interment. Burgess Rutledge, of Johnstown, was in town on Monday, looking none the worse of his official cares and responsibilities. A locomotive ran over the hand of a young man named Lloyd Smith, in Altoona, the other night, and cut it off. An Irish miner was killed in a coal shaft at Penn Station, Westmoreland county, one day last week, by a mass of stone and slate falling upon him. A public discussion of the political questions of the day between Hon. L. W. Hall, Republican, and Gen. W. H. Irwin, Democrat, was proposed by the Republicans of Altoona the other day, but was declined by the Democrats. R. McDevitt, Esq., one of the editors of the Huntingdon Journal, paid us a short visit on Saturday. He reports old "mother Huntingdon" all right for Grant and Colfax and Republicanism. A Republican campaign paper, to be called the True Light, will shortly be issued in Altoona.

SUNSHINE AND SHADOW IN NEW YORK.—The publishing firm of J. B. Burr & Co., Hartford, Conn., design issuing shortly a new work entitled "Sunshine and Shadow in New York," written by Matthew Hale Smith, ("Burleigh" of the New York and Boston press.) The well known character of the book will be a valuable acquisition to the literature of the day. The book will contain over 700 octavo pages, and will be illustrated with twelve full page engravings. Sold only by subscription. Agents wanted in every county and town. For particulars and terms, address J. B. Burr & Co., 78 Asylum St., Hartford, Conn.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—On Monday evening, a freight train going west on the Penna. Railroad ran off the track at Cresson, completely blocking up both tracks. A freight train going east came along at this instant, and before its speed could be checked, ran into the wreck. A general smash-up ensued, no less than eighteen cars being demolished. Strange to say, no person was injured in the wreck.

HORSE THIEF ARRESTED.—On Monday night, or rather at an early hour Tuesday morning, Officer Ryckman and Capt. Row, of Johnstown, arrested at the "Mountain House" in this place a young man named Clark, alias Maxwell, on the charge of stealing a horse at Pleasant Unity, Westmoreland county. The prisoner was removed to Greensburg.

WEIGHSCALES.—The borough authorities have at length decided to procure new weighscalls for the use of the public, and workmen are now engaged excavating the foundation. The scales will be planted on High street, immediately in front of H. A. Shoemaker & Co.'s store.

METROPOLITAN OIL.—Have you tried the new Metropolitan Oil? It is the best and cheapest burning fluid before the public. Go to M. L. Oatman's and get a lamp filled gratis. If you use it once, you will use it always.
