

The Alleghanian. THURSDAY OCTOBER 1. LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

EBENSBURG AND CRESSON RAILROAD. On and after Monday, Aug. 3, 1868, trains on this road will run as follows:

LEAVE EBENSBURG—At 7.15 A. M., connecting with Day Exp. East and Phil. Exp. West. At 7.15 P. M., connecting with Phila. Exp. East and Mail Train West.

THE POLITICAL CAMPAIGN.—The Ebensburg Grant Club met in the Town Hall on Saturday evening, and was ably addressed by Mr. Lewis J. Jones, of Cambria township. Gen. Harry White, our candidate for State Senator, dropped in upon the meeting at a late hour, and made an effective speech. The greatest enthusiasm was manifested. Prior to the meeting, the Tanners paraded through the principal streets, making a fine appearance. The next meeting of the Club will be held in the Town Hall Saturday evening, 10th instant.

A Grant and Colfax pole will be raised at the school house near Lettner's hotel, in Cambria township, to-morrow (Friday) afternoon. The Ebensburg Grant Club and Tanners' Club, with music, and other delegations, will be present. Addresses will be delivered by Hon. A. A. Barker, Samuel Singleton, Esq., and others.

A White township correspondent sends us the following: "I am glad to be able to announce that the Republicans of White township are thoroughly aroused to the importance of the great issues before the American people, and have organized a Grant Club numbering nearly as many voters as there have ever been Republican votes cast at an election in the township." Last year, White gave our candidate for Supreme Judge only 2 majority; the year before, she gave Curtin 72 majority. We are assured that she will give the latter majority in October.

A Grant and Colfax pole will be raised at Henlock, in front of Mr. John Wilkins' hotel, next Monday afternoon. In the evening, able speakers will discuss the issues of the day. Delegations from the neighboring districts, and from Ebensburg and Johnstown, will be present. It will be a big affair.

A rousing Republican meeting was held at Belsano on Wednesday evening last. Speeches were delivered by Gen. Jacob M. Campbell, Hon. A. A. Barker, and N. I. Roberts. The Ebensburg Tanners were present.

Republican meetings were held at Garman's Mills, Loretto, and in White township, last week. A Republican meeting at Chest Springs on Saturday evening last was addressed by Col. Campbell and Hon. A. A. Barker. Some Democratic rowdies created a disturbance and attempted to "rid out" the meeting, but, though they made much noise and confusion, they were unsuccessful in their efforts. The original programme was carried out.

On Saturday afternoon and evening next, a Republican mass meeting, to be addressed by Hon. Lewis Barker, of Me., Hon. Mahlon Chance, of Ohio, and others, will be held at Johnstown. It will be the largest demonstration of the campaign in Cambria county. Arrangements are being made to run a special train from Ebensburg down, to stop at intermediate points.

A large and enthusiastic meeting was held at Wilmore on Saturday evening last. Delegations were present from Johnstown, Washington and Summerhill townships, and other districts. Speeches were delivered by Geo. M. Reade, Esq., of Ebensburg, and Capt. Hunt and H. A. Boggs, Esq., of Johnstown. The Johnstown Tanners were out in force, and treated the Wilmoreans to a grand torchlight procession. During the evening, some miscreant threw a stone into a crowd, striking a young man from Johnstown and hurting him badly.

A Republican meeting and pole-raising will be held at Loretto this (Thursday) evening. Addresses will be delivered by Hon. A. A. Barker, Geo. M. Reade, Esq., and Samuel Singleton, Esq. Delegations from the neighboring districts and from Ebensburg will be present. In the evening, a grand torchlight procession will be held.

The camp fires are brightly burning!

TO CORRESPONDENTS.—Our correspondents are hereby informed that their favors must be mailed so as to reach us not later than Monday evening of each week. If they reach us later, we are obliged to hold them over till the next week—and thus holding them over frequently destroys their entire value as matter of news. We received two communications last week which we did not publish, simply because they came to hand too late.

MEMORANDA.—McCrum & Dern, of the Altoona Tribune, offer to publish a daily paper in that city provided nineteen others persons invest each $100 in the enterprise.... On the 20th ult., Neal McMullen, living near Tipton, Blair county, committed suicide by hanging himself to a limb of a tree a few rods from his house. Henry Kinter, fifth sheriff of Indiana county, died at his residence, in Indiana, on the 22d ultimo, aged 79 years and 7 months.... Messrs. Row & Co. have sold the Scott House, Johnstown, to Sheriff Houston, of Latrobe, who will take possession this week.... The young man Lyon, of Conemaugh tp., Indiana county, who had one of his legs crushed by a threshing machine a couple of weeks ago, resorted to amputation of the limb; but mortification set in, producing lockjaw, from which he died.... A goodly number of our Republican citizens have gone to Philadelphia, to attend the great Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention to-day and to-morrow.... The fall and winter session of the Ebensburg Union Schools commenced on Monday, with the following attendance: Room No. 1, 20; No. 2, 65; No. 3, 46; No. 4, 65; No. 5, 50.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY.—SHOOTING AFFRAY AND ARREST.—Two young men residing in the northern portion of this county had some difficulty which resulted in a quarrel. A warrant was issued for the arrest of one of the parties for assault and battery, and officer Nagle on Thursday last was dispatched to make the arrest. The young man was at work in a barn, and upon seeing the officer attempted to make good his escape. The officer commanded him to stop, but was not heeded, when a shot was fired, but with no effect, and a second shot was fired, the ball entering in the neighborhood of the ear and coming out somewhere about the nose, causing a serious if not fatal wound. Our informant says he is lying in a very critical condition, and his recovery is considered doubtful.

THE RURAL AMERICAN.—EARLY ROSE POTATO FREE!—We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of the RURAL AMERICAN in this week's issue, one of the best farmers' and fruit-growers' papers in this country. The offer there made to send packages of the Early Rose Potato FREE to club subscribers, will, we think, produce an immense patronage, as that variety is creating a great sensation among the horticultural world. The advertisement will be found in our agricultural department on fourth page.

ATTENTION TANNERS!—The members of the Ebensburg Tanners' Club are hereby notified to meet at Barker & Son's store to-day (Thursday) at 3 o'clock p. m., to make arrangements to attend the Republican mass meeting at Loretto in the evening. A special train will convey the delegation to Kaylor's station. Come one and all. The capes and caps have been received and will be furnished to members of Club upon application at Barker's.

It pays to obtain an education. The best school is the cheapest. The State Normal School at Edinboro is one of the best and cheapest.

THE HAPPY FAMILY TRAVELING NORTH.—The late meeting of the Democracy at St. Nicholas was a great outpouring of the people to hear the suffering condition of the country described by the great statesman of Little Cambria. This meeting was addressed by Messrs. O—u, T—y, S—r, and L—n.

The first named speaker lectured on finance, and demonstrated to a mathematical certainty that every inch of ground in Cambria county is now taxed three inches deep with greenbacks, that the youngest male child in the county would not live to see the National Debt paid off, and that if the liberty-loving people desire peace and prosperity, they must necessarily vote the whole Democratic County Ticket. (Great clapping of hands by the Happy Family.)

The next orator stated that he was familiar with the workings of all classes of mankind and office-seekers, and that he believed if he was elected District Attorney he could show them what taxation was. (The hearers agreed with the speaker as to taxation, and will consequently forget to vote for his election. No cheers.)

The third orator addressed the assemblage in an elaborate speech. He said that from his experience in the County Commissioners' office, (a place where a man could arrive at a correct knowledge of political diseases,) he was forced to believe that reform was demanded, and reform could only be attained thro' the election of the Democratic candidate for County Commissioner. This, he averred, was of more importance to some of them than the election of President. (Great applause from the Happy Family.)

The last speaker was able and forcible. He said that he expected to be elected to Congress by the generous support of all the people in the district, and then, in mellifluous strains, proceeded to comment on the merits and demerits of the fearful struggles now existing between certain foreign nations, and especially between poor Ireland and laughty England. He pledged himself that when he went to Congress, he would maintain with all his power and ability the rights, privileges, and immunities of suffering humanity everywhere. (The audience did not understand what he meant, and of course there was no cheering.)

After which, the Happy Family went to Carrolltown, to address a meeting there. Owing to the inclemency of the weather, however, nobody came out to hear them. What took place during the balance of their stay at C— will be given to the public in another report.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE. LETTER FROM JOHNSTOWN—PAY DAY AND ITS CONSEQUENCES—RUM, ROWDINESS, & ROUGH-AND-TUMBLE FIGHTING—TWO CUTTING AFFAIRS, ONE FATAL—POLITICS, &c., &c.

JOHNSTOWN, September 27, 1868. To the Editors of The Alleghanian: The "pay day" of the Cambria Iron Co. is in this city something more than an ordinary day, and the last pay day (Saturday) was more than an ordinary pay day. Circumstances, probably, increased its consequence. In the midst of an important Presidential campaign, with all the excitement pertaining to such, it is not strange, perhaps, that more than the usual quantity of the ardent was consumed on that day of all days in the month, in this fast city. In fact, the day was anticipated by a number of young buffers indulging on Friday night in a big drunk and fight on Washington-st., in front of the Kelley House. Feeny Kearney "cut" a young man named Kelly in several places, but slightly, the fight terminating when the police appeared and lodged both parties in the Municipal Mansion. Kearney was released on bail next day. On Saturday afternoon and evening, our streets were thronged with people, many with "heavy loads" on. The police took charge of the pugilistic "heavies," but generally allowed the jolly "heavies" to go their way rejoicing. About nine o'clock Saturday night, Chas. Taylor, a machinist, and James Murphy, a laborer, met by accident at the old "First Lock" in Millville, both a little "full," we understand. One jostled the other, an old grudge was renewed, when, to settle the matter, Taylor drew a knife and gave Murphy a frightful cut across the stomach, several inches in length, almost disemboweling him. Up to last accounts, Taylor had not been arrested. Murphy will not recover.

A large delegation of our Republicans went by special train to Wilmore Saturday, where a rousing meeting was held, and ably addressed by Geo. M. Reade, Esq., of your town, Messrs. R. W. Hunt and H. A. Boggs, of Johnstown. The new Iron Bridge to connect Kernville and Johnstown, at Franklin-st., is progressing slowly towards completion.—The high water during the past week retarded work considerably. When finished, another event will have occurred in the history of Johnstown, and another monument will be reared to commemorate the enterprise of its citizens.

Fig posters announce a Democratic mass convention to be held at this place on next Wednesday, to be addressed by Hon. Chas. A. Eldridge, of Wisconsin. On Tuesday evening, Capt. F. Schluembach will speak in German to his Republican fellow citizens, followed by Gen. J. B. Sweitzer, of Alleghany county. The General is well known here, both personally and by reputation, and will have a large and attentive audience. The Republican mass convention on Saturday, the third of October, will be addressed by Hon. Lewis Barker, of Maine, and Hon. Mahlon Chance, of Ohio. Come down, with a delegation of four or five hundred.

DAMON. [For the Alleghanian.] My Mountain Home. 'Tis a chill, autumnal evening, And against my window pane May be heard the constant patter Of the falling of the rain; And the sighing of the night winds, Which in mournful accents come, Fills my heart with gentle memories, And makes drear my mountain home. And the past steals gently o'er me, Like a bright and happy dream. May it ne'er be washed from memory By a wave of Lethé's stream, But he cherished fondly ever, Though by fate I chance to roam Far 'mid stranger lands and strangers, Or within my mountain home. My mountain home, what beauty lingers In my home so new to me! And when summer spreads her mantle Over hillside, vale, and tree, Then I gaze enrapt with pleasure On thy beauties as I roam 'Mid the cooling shades and breezes Which surround my mountain home. But although I love thy beauties, And thy summer breezes bland, Yet to me they're not as sacred As thine own, my native land. Dearest land, I'll hope to claim thee Once again to be mine own; I would not forsake thee ever For my quiet mountain home. For alas! when dreary winter Clothes the earth in robes of white, When the day-god shines less brightly, Shedding forth a paler light, Then, ah, then, I fain would hasten Where the blasts less rudely come— Gladly would I seek the climate Of my own dear Buckeye home. EBENSBURG, PA., Sept., 1868.
