

The Alleghanian. THURSDAY, OCTOBER 8. LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

EBENSBURG AND CRESSON RAILROAD.—On and after Monday, Aug. 3, 1868, trains on this road will run as follows:

LEAVE EBENSBURG.—At 5.15 A. M., connecting with Day Exp. East and Phil. Exp. West. At 7.15 P. M., connecting with Phila. Exp. East and Mail Train West.

LEAVE CRESSON.—At 9.20 A. M., or on departure of Phil. Express West. At 8.40 P. M., or on departure of Phila. Express East.

THE CAMPAIGN.—A grand Republican mass meeting will be held in Carrolltown to-morrow, (Friday.) In the afternoon a pole will be raised; after which, speeches will be delivered by Gen. John F. Hartman, our candidate for Auditor General, General Jacob M. Campbell, our candidate for Surveyor General, General Harry White, our candidate for State Senator, Hon. A. A. Barker, George M. Reade, Esq., Cyrus Elder, Esq., and others.

A meeting of the Ebensburg Grant Club will be held in the Town Hall next Saturday evening. Several speakers will address those assembled. Prior to the meeting, the Tanners will parade through the town with torches, banners, &c.—Turn out!

The grandest demonstration of the campaign was held at Johnstown on Saturday last, afternoon and evening. Speeches were delivered by Hon. Lewis Barker, of Maine, and Hon. Mahlon Chance, of Ohio.

A large Republican pole was raised at Hermon school house, in Cambria township, on Friday afternoon last. Speeches were delivered by Hon. A. A. Barker and Mr. N. I. Roberts. The Ebensburg Tanners were present.

A Republican pole was also raised in Loretto on Thursday afternoon. Speeches were delivered by George M. Reade, Esq., Hon. A. A. Barker, and M. D. Christy, Esq.

Yet another Republican pole was raised at Lily's, Washington tp., on Monday evening. The meeting, which was a very enthusiastic one, was addressed by Capt. R. W. Hunt, of Johnstown, Samuel Singleton and George M. Reade, Esqs., of Ebensburg, and Hon. Harry White, of Indiana. The Johnstown Glee Club and Ebensburg Tanners were in attendance.

MEMORANDA.—A young man named Thomas Campbell jumped off the passenger train running between Hollidaysburg and Altoona on Tuesday evening of last week, and falling upon a stone, was killed. Mr. Wm. Elder, while engaged in repairing the hoisting machine of the Gaysport furnace, in Blair county, on the 16th ult., fell from a cross-beam to the ground, a distance of 58 feet. In his descent, he struck against a suspended hook, mangle him horribly. He died shortly after.

The streets of Altoona have been renamed. Those running parallel with the railroad are called avenues, and those running east and west numbered first, second, third, &c. The State Fair was held at Harrisburg last week, and was in every respect a success. Gen. Frank P. Blair was in Altoona on Tuesday morning of last week, and made a short speech. Charles H. Grafen, of the Philadelphia Sunday Mercury, died suddenly on Sunday week. He will be remembered by many of our readers as the reporter for that paper of the testimony in the Moore-Marbourg homicide case. It is said a wedding recently took place in the township of Plummer, Venango county, which is a little ahead of anything we have heard of lately. The bridegroom was nineteen years of age and the blushing bride eleven. The juvenile couple settled down and are now enjoying the sweets of conjugal bliss. Argument Court convened here Tuesday, and adjourned the same evening. Can sweet potatoes be successfully raised in Cambria county? Mr. A. G. Fry, of Ebensburg, has shown us some specimens of this excellent raised in his garden this summer, one of which weighed two pounds.

THE HAPPY FAMILY TRAVELING NORTH, AGAIN.—Our special and ubiquitous correspondent, "Rex," furnishes us the following:—

ON THE WING, Oct. 5, 1868. To the Editors of The Alleghanian: The Happy Family have at last succeeded in holding another Side Show at Carrolltown. After appointing the usual number of officers, the animals and snakes were let loose and the performance commenced.

The Poor House Treasurer delivered one of his powerful speeches on the financial condition of our country. He said that the people of this county had a painful duty to perform at the approaching election, namely, the election of his able companion-in-arms to the office of District Attorney. This office was of great importance to the peace and welfare of the country and it would never do to allow it to pass into the hands of a volunteer, and besides, if his friend and fellow soldier was not elected, he could not receive the appointment of counsel to the County Commissioners. Therefore, it was of very great importance to him, as well as to the very worthy candidate, that he should be elected.

About this time, some knock-down arguments were indulged in by the faithful and by some of the candidates, as the marks on the ground indicated next morning. A very frank t—y at law is said to have felt the force of one bloody argument. After the slight difference of opinion had been settled, and order restored, the speaker was unceremoniously interrupted by loud cries of "Let us hear from the representative of the county Commissioners' office!" At this crisis the clerk of the Commissioners' office appeared on the stand and said: "Fellow citizens, I am here before you to-night to offer my assistance in the great work of reform. We (the Family) have been appointed to tell you how to vote this fall, and in doing so, I have only to say that your first and most important duty is to vote the full Democratic County Ticket, as by so doing you will enable us to retain power and influence among our friends, and by a proper and judicious distribution of the offices, we will be able to make nominations of such men as we can use for party and other purposes. This, fellow citizens, is clearly your duty under the Constitution. As to the election of the State ticket and candidate for Congress, it is, of course, a matter of some importance, but as there may be some doubts of our success with that portion of the ticket, I would suggest that you do not spend much of your time and means to further their chances. But let your undivided energies be given to the support of the candidates for Poor House Director and County Commissioner, and the election of my fellow soldier to the office of District Attorney. The candidate for the latter office is both able and honest, and will forget neither your nor his own interests. I will now close my speech, as I see the sheriff thinks that I have talked long enough and to the point."

The P. H. D., raising himself from his repose on a bench, moved three cheers for our orator. Motion seconded by our eloquent candidate for the Legislature—but no one wanted to 'rah just then. Candidate for the Legislature promised to speak at Platteville and St. Augustine at some future time, on the importance of just and salutary laws within the strict letter of the Constitution.

I will report the progress of these contemplated meetings in my next. We are doing good service. REX.

WELLINGTON H. ENT.—The subjoined letter is from a good Democrat, and is commended to the careful consideration of our readers—especially the Democratic portion of them:—

CHEST SPRINGS, Oct. 5, 1868. To the Editors of The Alleghanian: I notice in the Cambria Freeman, of date of the 17th of September last, a eulogy on the public services of Wellington H. Ent, the Democratic candidate for Surveyor General, and praising his bravery and good qualities as a soldier in the late rebellion. Now, Messrs. Editors, I was a soldier of the Reserve Corps and served for the term of four years, the same W. H. Ent spoken of being a Captain of the Sixth Reserve. I know something about him. As to his bravery, I have not a word to say. He may have been brave enough, but so far as his treatment of the men under his command is concerned, I think it was brutal in the extreme. As an evidence of his treatment of the men, I myself saw him, at the battle of Gettysburg, after the men had been in action and were ordered back to the rear—I have seen this same Captain Ent take his sword and prick the men up if they happened to fall out of the ranks from exhaustion, at the same time cursing and swearing at the poor tired soldier, only because he had done his duty in the front and needed rest after a severe action of several hours' duration. In fact he did not use his men as a good soldier should at any time. He was more of a tyrant than a good soldier of a free Republic. I am a Democrat—always have been, and always hope to be. But when I see such a man as the said W. H. Ent applauded and imposed on the Democratic party as a good man and worthy of their support, I do think it not more than my duty, and a duty I owe to my country and my fellow Democrats, to expose the faults of so unworthy a man. I think it a duty I owe to myself and my fellow Democrats to say what I have said, and any person that doubts the truth of what I have set forth, and wants to know more about the career and public services of the said Capt. Ent, while in the army, can get all the information of an old member of the Penna. Reserves in Chest Springs, Pa. More, if required, from a life-long Democrat, and one that won't support any such man as Wellington H. Ent for any office whatever. SOLDIER.

THE ELECTION OF 1867.—We append an accurate table of the vote cast in Cambria county last year for Supreme Judge. As matter of reference, it will be interesting to many of our readers next week:

COMMUNICATED. A NEW CANDIDATE FOR DISTRICT ATTORNEY.—NOT MUCH OF A SCHOLAR, BUT A POPULAR MAN AND A GOOD POLITICIAN.—WHAT WILL WE DO WITH HIM?—Mister Eddyders Allegation: "Seein' that the Republican party hez no candidate for Deestrick Attorney, I hev bin kalkerlatin' whether I mighten, with sun show for success, cut out for the office myself. Ine party poper with the masses, and as illerstratin' this, I mite say that I run for Konny Soperintendent of the Kommon Skools of this here konny sum five years ago, and hum within 91 votes of bein' elected in a poll of 111 votes. Pardon me for dwellin' on this here pleasurable episode in my career. Bein' a purty shrewd politichian, (if I do say it myself,) I would git up a new and improved plan of electibuckeneering. To the Kopperheids I would say, d—n the war and the taxes, and payment of the publick debt in greenback. To the Republikens I would say that I was a sojer in the late war, and hooray for eal rites for awl men. To the poore but sturdy yomeny I would say that I myself was a poor man, and appeal to their sympathies for support. To the rich man I would cringe, and toady, and allow myself to be patronized. In brief, I would be erything by turns, to suit the vevs and disposition and prejudices of the voters, while awl the while, way in the background, I would be a trow-blew Republikken—but that would be strictly sub rosey. I gess you will be able to gether sun ipen from this how I good and wood kondukt the lawvas. The only thing trubblin' me in konekkschun with kumen out as a kandidate is the fact that I don't kon very much law, if enny. However, if elected, I susses I could liver that up by talkin' loud and makein' unbounded pretensions. Then, agin, ine a poor speller.—(pieces korrek mistakes if you print this.) For instans, when in a hurry I sundimes spell konny with a g, and as a general rule, unless I stop and think—make three syllables out of Patrick Henry's first name. But mebbe I could rite an inditement and git along party well in spite of all these here little drawbax.

What dye say, Mister Eddyders? Will I stand any show if I come out? Yours, expectantly, TERENCE McCARTNEY.

Bulah, Oct. 5, 1868.

Address: JOHN W. PITCOCK, Dealer in Campaign Goods, opposite Post Office, Pittsburg, Pa.

PATRONIZE HIM.—Among our enterprising business men, none deserves to rank higher than our young Grocer friend, M. L. Oatman. He has carefully studied the wants of his customers and the public generally, and go to his establishment when you may you will always find on his shelves just the articles you want, and of qualities that are never excelled. And at prices that defy competition. Give him a call, and be convinced that such is the case.

READER, it is said, "leaves have their time to fall," and C. T. Roberts has said, "goods have their time to fall," and will readily convince all who may favor him with a call. It should be borne in mind that his stock of goods is the largest in this section of country, thus affording the purchaser an opportunity to select from a stock rarely to be found outside our large cities. Make a note of this.

DOWN WITH THE LEAVES.—The leaves are loosening from the trees, and gently down are tumbling. We hear the chilly Autumn breeze Among the forest rumbling. The shivery equinoctial storm Like distant thunders mumbled, Remind us that we should buy our Winter Clothing at A. A. Barker & Son's.

NEW ARRIVAL.—V. S. Barker has just returned from the eastern cities, where he purchased and is now opening the largest and cheapest stock of fall and winter goods ever brought to Ebensburg. Have you seen his beautiful and elegant styles of Hats and Caps? If not, go and see them. They are just what you want, and are very cheap.

CIGARS AND TOBACCO.—Do you use the weed, reader, in any way? Do you want to buy the best cigar in town for the least money? Do you want a good article of fine-cut chewing tobacco? Go to Thos. W. Williams, where will be found an endless variety of the weed.

EDITORIAL ETCHINGS.

Election next Tuesday. Go to the polls early next Tuesday, Republicans, and stay all day. Get in the vote of every doubtful voter as soon as the polls are opened. One vote may decide the election next Tuesday. Go to the polls! Vote the whole Republican County Ticket. Every man on it is worthy of your support. The Army of the Union wants no stragglers on the 13th. Let every voter be at the front. Are you a mechanic? Then you are in favor of Protection to a American Industry. Vote for Daniel J. Morrell. The Reconstruction measures of Congress, if perfected, will bring peace to our country. Vote for D. J. Morrell. Do you want a Republican U. S. Senator to succeed Buckalew? Then vote for James Morley for Assembly. Do you believe that the War for the Union was right? Then vote for the Republican candidates, who all supported that war throughout. Look out for frauds next Tuesday.—The fortunes of the Democracy are desperate, and they will stop at nothing in order to carry the day. Remember that a Democratic rebellion has loaded the country with debt and taxes. If you want the debt enlarged and the taxes increased, vote the Democratic ticket. General Burnside gives the following reason why every truly loyal man should vote against Seymour: "I shall vote against Mr. Seymour because I think he was an enemy to his country when it was in trouble." Allow no Democratic colonized carpet-bagger to vote next Tuesday. Challenge every suspicious-looking character, and require him to establish a bona fide residence in the district where he seeks to vote. Gen. Harry White has most efficiently represented this district in the State Senate during a couple of terms. His constituents will record their verdict of "Well done, good and faithful servant!" next Tuesday. Hartranft in the Auditor General's office, and Campbell in the Surveyor General's office, by their capacity and economy have saved thousands of dollars to the taxpayers of the State. The taxpayers will remember this next Tuesday. Read Hon. John Scott's speech, on the outside of this paper. Mr. Scott was a Democrat up to the time of the breaking out of the Democratic rebellion, when he left the party of treason and allied himself to the Union party. Soldiers, the Democrats of Cambria county, in 1864, cast 2,143 votes against enfranchising you while you were in the field. The Republicans, to the last man, voted in favor of enfranchising you. Remember this next Tuesday. Gen. McClellan arrived home last week. He is in delicate health, and it is reported that, under the advice of his physician, he will not go on the stump at present. If he were well and strong, he would likely be able to determine what course to pursue by the letter part of November. When the war broke out, Gen. Dix electrified the nation by issuing the following order from the War Department: "If any man attempts to pull down the American Flag, shoot him on the spot!" As a fitting sequence to this order, Gen. Dix now holds this language: "I see but one source of safety for the country under existing circumstances, and that is the election of General Grant." The Mobile Tribune, in a recent article, informs its readers of what the Ku-Kluxers will do when they elect Seymour and Blair. It says: "One of the very first things we will ask will be the assumption of the Confederate debt. This is precluded by the amendment known as the XIVth article.—But the Democracy deny that this amendment has been legally adopted. This, it may be said, is the result of the promise to Wade Hampton, and is made as a guaranty of their good faith."

GO.—September has passed and gone, and trees are beginning to put on their crimson vestments—as they do nowhere else in such perfection as they do in the United States—and the forest a green and reddish color, a lovely transition from blooming life to decay. The chilly winds of October give us a timely hint that cold weather is near, and those who have not yet purchased their stock of winter clothing are invited to drop in at Leopold & Bro.'s establishment in Johnstown.

JUST RETURNED.—R. R. Davis has arrived from the east with the greatest variety of dry goods, clothing &c., ever brought to town. Ladies, have you seen his beautiful and fashionable shawls? If not, go and see them. In short, his goods were selected with great care and are calculated to please the most fastidious. Prices low.

COMING!—J. Patton Thompson is now purchasing his stock of fall and winter goods, which will arrive and be opened the latter part of this week. Joe, residing in Philadelphia, has an opportunity of seeing the latest and most fashionable goods worn. Look out for the finest and cheapest lot of goods ever brought to this market.

PRICES GOING DOWN!

AT THE EBENSBURG HARDWARE & HOUSE FURNISHING STORE.

I once more return my sincere thanks to my old friends and customers for their liberal patronage extended towards me, and now, owing to the great fall in prices, by which many articles can be sold as cheap as before the war, and having a thorough knowledge of the business and the wants of the public, I take pleasure in announcing that I can and will sell goods at a less figure than any similar establishment in city or country.

My stock will consist in part as follows: DOOR AND CUPBOARD LOCKS, CATCHES, BOLTS, HINGES, SCREWS, WINDOW SPRINGS, SHUTTER HINGES, WINDOW GLASS, NAILS, PUTTY, BORING MACHINES, AUGERS, CHISELS, BRACES AND BITS, HATCHETS, SQUARES, COMPASSES, TRY SQUARES, BEVELS, POCKET RULES, JACK, SMOOTHING, AND FOR PLANES, PANEL PLOWS, LEVELS, SASH, RAISING, AND MATCH PLANES, SAW SETS, BENCH SCREWS, CROSS-CUT, PANEL, RIP, COMPASS, AND BACK SAWS, GAUGES, OIL STONES, SCREW DRIVERS, PLOWS, POINTS, SHOVELS, FORKS, SCYTHES AND SNATHES, RAKES, HOES, SPADES, SHEEP SHEARS, HORSEBRUSHES, CARDS, CURRY COMBS, BELLS, HAMES, WHIPS, BUT, TRACE, BREAST, HALTER, EFTH, TONGUE, AND LOG CHAINS, RIFLES, SHOT GUNS, REVOLVERS, AND PISTOLS, CARTRIDGES, POWDER, SHOT, CAPS, LEAD, POUCHES, POWDER FLASKS, GAME BAGS, GUN LOCKS, MAIN SPRINGS, PIVOTS, &c. LAMPS AND OILS, COOKING, PARLOR, & HEATING STOVES, TIN AND SHEET IRON WARE, WASHING MACHINES, AND WRINGERS, &c., &c., &c., &c., &c., &c. Also—FLOUR, TEA, COFFEE, SUGAR, &c. TOBACCO AND CIGARS.

Old Stone Plates, Grates, and Fire Brick always on hand to suit Stoves sold by me. Well and Cast-iron Pumps and Tubing at manufacturers' prices. Spouting made, painted, and put up, at low rates.

Persons owing me debts of long standing will confer a favor by calling and paying up as soon as convenient, as it takes a great deal of money to keep my stock and pay expenses, and owing to the small profits that I am making on goods I cannot afford to give long credit—the interest would soon eat up the profits. GEO. HUNTLEY, Ebensburg, Aug. 13, 1868.
