Now is the time to take advantage of our advance subscription rates! No postage is charged on THE ALLEGHANIAN in Cambria county. Blacklick Tp. JOHN HAWKESWORTH. Carrolltown E. V. BARKER. Chest Springs M. D. WAGNER, Esq. Gallitzin J. M. CHRISTY. Johnstown CAPT. WM. R. JONES. Susquehanna Tp. JOHN PORTER. Washington Tp. OTTO STYNER. White Tp. CAPT. F. M. FLANAGAN. Wilmore JOSEPH MILLER, Esq.

POLITICAL PROSCRIPTION.—The vote of Loretto borough, Cambria county, is 51 Democratic to 10 Republican. Some weeks ago, the Democrats of that borough raised a Seymour pole inside the corporate limits, without protest or hindrance from any Republican. Subsequently, the Republicans proposed to erect a Grant pole inside the same limits. But, though the Republicans proposed, it seems that the Loretto Town Council disposed. This August body met, decided that a Republican pole must of necessity be unsafe in a Democratic community, and forbade its erection within the limits of their jurisdiction under a heavy penalty. The Republicans were therefore perforce obliged to remove their pole to a point outside the borough, where it was raised. We might mention, in passing, that on the same night of its erection the flag-rope was cut down and carried away by some model Democrat. Inasmuch as a question has been raised as to the precise terms of the ordinance—there is no question as to its spirit,—we subjoin the lovely document entire: Loretto, September 20, 1868—Council met at the store of Francis O'Friel, Present, Patrick Mealy, Michael Maloy, and Francis O'Friel; absent, P. H. Shields and Z. Topper. On motion of F. O'Friel, and seconded by Patrick Mealy, the following ordinance was passed unanimously, viz: Be it enacted by the Burgess and Council, and it is hereby given by the authority of the same, that no person or persons shall be allowed to raise a pole in any part of or within the borough of Loretto any nearer to any dwelling-house, stable, barn, or shop than the length of the pole to be raised from any said buildings until sufficient guaranty shall first be given that any damage done to any building or injury to any person or persons residing or sojourning in the building shall be fully paid for, except the owner or owners or occupier shall first agree to let the pole be raised and run the risk at his own peril. Any violation of this ordinance shall subject the offender or offenders to a fine of ninety dollars and imprisonment for three months, that is, any damage or injury done from, by, or in consequence of raising such pole. F. O'FRIEL, Deputy Burgess. FRANCIS O'FRIEL, Sec'y.

This ordinance was passed after the Democratic pole was raised, and one day before the Republican pole was raised. Comment is unnecessary. MEMORANDA.—L. Marion Clark, who has figured somewhat as an author, poet, and actor, visited Tyrone a few days ago, for the purpose of giving a concert, but took suddenly ill before the concert came off, and died. Jacob Myers, of White township, Indiana county, this fall gathered from one stalk of buckwheat 870 grains. During the summer, several unused public wells in this borough were opened up by the authorities, with the intention of placing pump-stocks therein and making them a convenience to the citizens. But the stocks have not yet been put in position, and the wells are of no practical avail. What's the matter? Our friend Mr. Richard Owens, of Cambria township, proposes selling his farming implements, stock, &c., on the 25th instant. He designs removing to Iowa. Mr. Geo. J. Rodgers' new turning manufactory building has been put under roof, and will be completed in a few weeks. It is two stories high. One story will be occupied by the turning machinery, and the other by a planing machine. The building is in the neighborhood of the railroad depot. Work has been resumed on the new Catholic church edifice of Ebensburg. The Blair County Agricultural Fair, held in Hollidaysburg last week, was a decided success. A little daughter of Mrs. Clark, of Ebensburg, was severely burned one day last week by her clothing taking fire from a stove. Barring a couple of pugilistic encounters, the election in this borough and township passed off quietly.

ADVERTISING.—The country is full of men who have got rich by advertising. In fact no man expects now to keep his business running without informing the people what he is doing, and where he can be found. The people cannot afford to spend the time to hunt up places of business and trade. They have been so long accustomed to gaining that information from newspapers that they depend upon that source altogether, and govern their trade from what they learn and read at their homes and by their own firesides. A lively advertisement is a friendly talk between business men and their customers. It is a weekly invitation for people to come and trade. And every week the readers of a local paper expect to see and hear what the merchants, the manufacturers and the tradesmen have to say. A local newspaper is a traveling agent, taking his weekly round to the families of all their customers. No matter whether times are good or dull; no matter whether trade is brisk or otherwise, no business man can afford to take down his sign, nor withdraw the pleasing influence of a weekly chat with his customers through the newspaper. For a business man to stop advertising would be equivalent to his saying, I have stopped business, and ask no more favors of the people.

THE CAMPAIGN.—One of the largest Republican meetings ever held in Carrolltown came off at that place on Friday last. Delegations were present from the surrounding districts, and a delegation of over one hundred, including the Tanners' club and a brass band and a martial band, went out from Ebensburg. In the afternoon, a long and graceful pole was successfully raised; after which, speeches were delivered by Cyrus Elder, Esq., of Johnstown, George M. Reade, Esq., of Ebensburg, Gen. Harry White, of Indiana, and Samuel Singleton, Esq., of Ebensburg. The meeting was closed, at 10 o'clock, by a grand torchlight procession by the Tanners.

The Ebensburg Grant Club met in the Town Hall on Saturday evening, and listened to able speeches from Mr. Frank Brown and Hon. A. A. Barker. Before and after the meeting, the Tanners paraded through the principal streets, with torches, banners, and music. These two clubs—the Grant and the Tanners—have done most efficient service during the campaign. Our party friends will be glad to hear that they have no intention of disbanding. They will continue their labors till after the triumphant election of Grant and Colfax in November.

BENCOMBE.—R. L. Johnston, Esq., of Ebensburg, last week announced by glaring posters that he would address Democratic meetings at Carrolltown and other points in the northern part of the county, and at the bottom of the posters attached the following flyer: "Mr. Johnston desires and expects to meet Republican speakers at the above points, and discuss the great questions before the people." All which is about equivalent to challenging a party, choosing the weapons, and naming the time when the fight shall come off, the place, and the general surroundings. We suppose that since the result of Tuesday's election has become known, Mr. J. will have no stomach for discussing the "great questions before the people;" but, should he still entertain a desire to fight it out on that line, we have no doubt he can be accommodated with a foman worthy of his steel upon application at the proper quarters.

THROWING STONES.—In its last issue before the election, the Freeman charged that The Alleghanian had printed bogus Democratic tickets, to catch unwary voters of that party. This was a fine accusation of virtue. But at that very time, the Freeman was engaged in printing and distributing spurious Republican tickets, with the name of Michael Dan Christy thereon as our candidate for District Attorney. This gentleman was no candidate, and his name was used without authority. Enough said.

RELIGIOUS NOTICE.—The Evangelical Lutheran Church in Jackson township, Cambria county, of which Rev. A. R. Height is pastor, having undergone repairs, it will be re-consecrated on Sabbath morning, October 18, 1868, on which occasion Rev. R. A. Fink, of Johnstown, will preach. Good music will also be furnished. Christians of other denominations and the public generally are cordially invited to attend.

ROW.—On Tuesday evening, after the election, a crowd of roughs, calling themselves the "Ku-Kluxers," got on the rampage in Johnstown and attacked a party of peaceable citizens. In the fight which followed, several persons were severely injured. The rioters were arrested and bound over.

LETTER FROM JOHNSTOWN.—THE FACE OF NATURE AND THE POLITICAL HORIZON.—FREE TRADERS ON THE STUMP.—REPUBLICAN MEETING.—LOCAL ITEMS, &c.

JOHNSTOWN, October 11, 1868. To the Editors of The Alleghanian: The time of the sere and yellow leaf is upon us again, and again we breathe the pure bracing air of an October day. How bright the sun shines, and how genial and pleasant his warmth after dispelling the frosty mist of morning! How gorgeous our grand old mountains, clothed in robes more beautiful to look upon than the Kingly Solomon seated on his Throne of Gold! If Church, the great artist, had copied the "Heart of the Alleghenians" on a bright October day like the present, the painting would justly have been more celebrated than the "Heart of the Andes." How this day is enjoyed by everybody! Old and young, in Sunday clothes, through our streets and roads leading from the city, and dot the grassy plots and knobs on the hills near, enjoying in every possible manner, out-of-doors, the loveliness of the day—the lingering of summer in the lap of autumn.

The political sky is as clear and unclouded as the sky of to-day for the friends of Grant and Colfax. During the past week, the Free Trade League of New York sent two men, claiming to be members of the Labor Reform League, to talk Labor Reform (!) to the workmen of this place—here, where the employer looks to the comfort and guards the interests of the employees, and where the employees respect and have honored, and will honor again the employer on next Tuesday, by sending him to Congress for two years more. These two gentlemen mentioned Labor Reform an infinite number of times, but they meant Free Trade all the while. They would not counsel the men to "strike"—strikes were bad things—but men must have their rights if they should lay idle all winter, and be reduced to starvation by it. However, the workmen of this city have too much sense to be turned from the path of right by such precious Labor Reformers.

The Republicans held a meeting on the Public Square on Friday evening. Speeches were made by Paul Strobach, Esq., of Alabama, in German, and by Hon. Mr. Wyndham, of Minnesota, in English. Mr. Wyndham's speech was one of the happiest we have listened to during the campaign. It was clear, forcible and patriotic. His words were impressed upon the minds of every one present, by the earnestness and courtesy of the speaker. Murphy, the young man stabbed by Taylor, some weeks since, is, contrary to first opinion, still living, and hopes are entertained of his final recovery. Taylor was arrested and bound over in the sum of three thousand dollars.

An old German, named Hocker, was killed on Thursday last by the Baltimore train west, near the Freight Depot at this place. He was severely injured by the same train, and at about the same spot, last fall. He resided at Woodvale. Our old friend, C. W. Easley, formerly "Skubal" of the Freeman, was in town to-day. He looks well, said he was well, and would be well enough if he didn't call Grant and the Tanners such hard names. You will hear from us on Tuesday. Yours, truly, DAMON.

CHEAP CLOTHING.—A. A. Barker & Son pride themselves in the assertion that their stock of clothing is the largest, cheapest and best in town. Their goods are marked extremely low, for instance, an overcoat of fine quality, well made and fashionable, which last winter sold for $30, they are selling for $20. For variety, style, beauty, quality, cheapness, &c., their goods in this line are beyond competition.

LATEST ARRIVAL.—Last week we made mention that J. Patton Thompson was buying and shipping his fall goods. They have in part arrived and are now being opened and shelved. A mere glance at the styles, qualities and prices of the goods, evidently shows that Joe has carefully studied the wants of his customers and the public generally. Go and secure a bargain, as he is determined to sell very cheap.

ATTENTION, EVERYBODY.—V. S. Barker, has received a full line of goods marked very low and ready for inspection. He has the largest and decidedly the best assortment of ready-made clothing ever brought to this market. He has also received a very superior and large variety of winter shawls, furs, and the like. All of which will be disposed of at bargains. You who have an eye to your outward adornment, give him a call.

THE ELECTION.—The State election being over, and politics having subsided to some extent, people are now looking to their own interests and in so doing they purchase their Hardware, &c., at the mammoth establishment of Geo. Huntley. If you want to buy a good stove for little money, go to Huntley's. If you want groceries of any kind, go to Huntley's. Everything in great variety.

GONE.—September has passed and gone, and trees are beginning to put on their crimson vestments—as they do nowhere else in such perfection as they do in the United States—and the forest a green and reddish color, a lovely transition from blooming life to decay. The chilly winds of October give us a timely hint that cold weather is near, and those who have not yet purchased their stock of winter clothing are invited to drop in at Leopold & Bro.'s establishment in Johnstown. 2t.

GRAND OPENING.—Leopold Mayer desires to call the attention of the public to the fact that his first grand opening of Hats and Bonnets will take place to-day, at his fashionable emporium, Main-st., Johnstown. Those of our readers visiting Johnstown should by all means go to this establishment to trade. His goods are all of the best quality and are sold at astonishingly low prices. If you want to save 20 per cent. in buying goods, patronize this establishment.

THE FASHION.—The following stanza is lively, satirical and good poetry: There was a young lady who said, "I seldom wear locks on my head; I carry my locks about in my box, For such is the fashion," she said. She might have added that it is also the fashion to go to R. R. Davis' Fancy Dry Goods Store to buy all manner of goods. Goods sold very low.

CROCKERIES! GROCERIES!—M. L. Oatman, on High-st., has received another large installment of goods, embracing groceries of every description, provisions, confectionery, cigars and tobacco, &c.
