In the world to-day no prouder name Is borne on any breeze, And with Grant to steer the ship of State, Our flag shall rule the seas ; No "Dominion" shall be North of us, And South of us no foe-Our stars and stripes in the Canadas,

And likewise Mexico! For with President Ulysses Will be few who care to fight-May he rule the country he has saved. And God defend the right!

So boys! a final bumper,

While we all in chorus chant-"For next President we nominate Our own Ulysses Grant!" And if asked what State he hails from, This our sole reply shall be, "From near Appomattox Court House,

With its famous apple tree!" For 'twas there to our Ulysses That Lee gave up the fight-Now, boys, "To Grant for President, And God defend the right !"

overtake, I will divide the spoil; my lust shall be satisfied upon them; I will draw my sword, my hand shall destroy them.

"Thou didst blow with thy wind, the sea covered them: they sank as lead in the mighty water," So sang Moses four thousand years ago yet never were words more apposite than they now are.

fight. More than 600,000 freemen of Pennsylvania gave their voice on questions for the present and for the future, and recorded their judgment in behalf of Truth, their lean majorities. and Right, and Justice.

Let us see over what agencies we have triumphed.

Appeals to the cupidity of men to avoid the burden of fulfilling their contracts when bearing heavily upon them by adhering to the letter rather than to the spirit of the bond and that good faith which is part of every covenant.

Appeals to the prejudices of men in favor of the high and against the lowly, to all the low instincts and base animosities of human nature, to the prejudices of race against race and class against class.

The efforts of bold, determined, and many unscrupulous men, who made resort to every possible means, fair or foul, to secure a majority of the votes cast, all these aided by ermined Judges, to their shame be it said, and backed by the Federal patronage, at least so far as it was at all thrown into the scale.

Vigorous and plausible arraignment for extravagant expenditure of the public Constitution in denying to the lately rebellious States the right of immediate and unqualified representation in Congress, and in extending to the freedmen the right of suffrage.

By this grand triumph we have secured:

The triumphant election of Grant and Colfax, whereby the same honor shall be given the foremost soldier of the late war for the Union as was bestowed upon Washington for his services in the Revolution, upon Jackson for his valor in the war of 1812, upon Harrison for his successful campaigns against the Indians, and upon Taylor for his victorious career in

The preservation of the National honor untarnished by even a tint or repudiation, and of the country from financial prostration by flooding it with an irredeemable that they did not warmly support Colonel paper currency.

plan of Reconstruction, by which the South is restored on the basis of loyalty, equality, and justice.

Peace as against revolution, and prosperity as against financial prostration.

It is enough that we have gained so great a victory. Such fields are seldom if ever won by overwhelming odds. All the strength of our opponents, and more than their legal strength, was brought to bear on us. Every device known in political warfare was made to avail something in their desperate cause. But still we triumphed.

Ohio, Indiana, and Nebraska join with us in the joyful chorus. Forget not that those were two of the States to be carried in overwhelming numbers under the plea of "One currency for all." The strength of that plea has been tried, and tried on the very ground where its success was deemed most certain, and having been tried, it has failed.

Our foe staggers and is dismayed at his defeat. Push on the column! We shall have a Waterloo in November.

The Result in the County.

Amid the general joyfulness among the Republicans of the State over the victory they have achieved, we ask special attention to the result in Cambria county .-Our county has long been looked upon as a stronghold, a sort of young Gibraltar, of Democracy. Yet if we continue to knock away the corners and take off chips for a few years to come, as we have for a few years past, there will be no rock left to be styled a Democratic Gibraltar. In other words, Cambria county will be Republican. It is but a short time since an average Democratic majority of 900 or 1,000 was considered almost as certain a thing as election day itself. But that day has past, and past forever. While the neighboring Democratic counties, Clearfield, Bedford, Westmoreland, Fayette, increase their vote and their majorities, the Democrats of Cambria find theirs reduced. We day by reason of not being assessed? If throw out of consideration the majorities of those against whom independent candiis assessed in time for the November elec- dates were running, that we may get fairly tion. The country expects every man to at the result between the two parties. The do his duty at the polls that day. The vote-6,436-was the largest by nearly election is held Tuesday, November 3d; 600 ever cast in the county. Yet what do we see? In one instance, local causes ran the majority up nearly to its old-fashioned figure. But take the ticket through and the majorities range from 465 to "The enemy said, I will pursue, I will 897. The vote between Hartranft and Boyle is the square party vote, and it shows bare 738 majority for Boyle .-Campbell, by reason of his popularity in this his own home, brings Ent's majority down to 694. The Democratic candidate for Commissioner gets only 465 votes over the Republican candidate. The average majority is 685, instead of 900 or 1,000 as of yore. Nor does this result spring Tuesday last witnessed a hard fought from the fact that our Democratic friends were not active. Perhaps the county was never more thoroughly canvassed than duof National importance, momentous both ring this campaign. Seldom are men more astonished than our opponents at > Friends! let these figures encourage us to further activity. Do not relax the work. Let us in November reduce even this already reduced majority. Keep the ball moving! We must do our share towards 25,000 majority for Grant and Colfax in this State.
