

EBENSBURG AND CRESSON RAILROAD. On and after Monday, Aug. 3, 1868, trains on this road will run as follows: GRAVE EBENSBURG.

THE ALLEGHANIAN.—The following persons are agents for THE ALLEGHANIAN in their respective neighborhoods. They will receive the names of subscribers for our paper, and orders for advertising and job work, and will forward in our names for all moneys handed to us. Now is the time to take advantage of our advance subscription rates!

MEMORANDA.—A new paper, called the Journal, has been established in Philipsburg, Center county. The barn of Mr. ... destroyed by fire on the night of the 13th inst. Supposed to have been the work of an incendiary.

A WOMAN COMMITS SUICIDE.—A correspondent sends us the following from Cresson: "A melancholy affair occurred at Summit last Sunday morning. A Mrs. Otterson, who had come to that place from California about four weeks ago, after getting up in the morning, deliberately fastened one end of a bedcord to the bedpost, and secured the other around her neck, and hanged herself till she was dead.

WHO KNOWS?—Twenty-eight or thirty years ago, there lived in Ebensburg a man named Gunning S. Bedford. His profession was that of school-teacher. Many of our local readers will probably remember the name and the man. He was married, and had a son, who was called Gunning S. Bedford, jr. Mr. Bedford, sr., after tarrying and teaching here a while, moved away, and was lost sight of in the great world. On the 22d inst., the convention of the Tammany organization (Democratic) of New York city nominated their ticket of local officers to be supported on the 3d inst. In the list of candidates nominated, we find the following name:

TO CORRESPONDENTS.—Last week we received a communication headed "Something to Ponder Over," and signed "Prudence." It was not published, for the reason that no bona-fide, responsible name accompanied it. We are always glad to receive communications on subjects of current interest from our friends; but it is a rule which we have often announced, and from which we will not depart, that we will publish no communication unless the name of the author is furnished us—not necessarily for publication, but as a guaranty of good faith.

MUSIC.—Prof. H. H. Hughes, during the summer just past, was a pupil of the Iowa State Musical University, at Iowa City, from which institution he graduated with high honors. He has returned to his home in this place, and on Monday evening last opened out a vocal music school in the Town Hall. The term will consist of eighteen lessons. The young folks, we are sure, will avail themselves of this elegant opportunity of acquiring a practical knowledge of the science of music.

BASE BALL.—A meeting of the Mountaineer Base Ball Club will be held at Barker & Son's store this (Thursday) evening, at 7 1/2 o'clock. Business of importance, including the election of officers to serve during the ensuing six months, will be transacted.

AFTER THE BATTLE.—The late canvass was prosecuted in a spirit of most bitter and unscrupulous partizanship by the Democratic press of this State. Not content with the legitimate weapons of political warfare, they had recourse to vituperation and billingsgate to further the cause of their candidates, and dealt largely in the staple of downright falsehood. They did not appeal to the reason of the people, but to their passions and prejudices; they did not endeavor to enlighten them, but to deceive them and lead them astray. A good illustration of their bushwacking style of fighting is contained in a statement published in the Altoona Vindicator on the eve of election, to the effect that Capt. Robert W. Hunt, as the agent of Hon. D. J. Morrell, had attempted to hire a man named Coleman to work for the Cambria Iron Co., on condition that Coleman (who is a Democrat) would vote for Mr. Morrell for Congress. Capt. H. brands the charge as utterly devoid of truth, and, in order to make matters straight, has entered prosecution against the Vindicator for libel. Pretty much the same tactics were practiced in Huntingdon county. The Huntingdon Monitor, for weeks before the election, abounded in articles derogatory to the public and private character of Capt. Neely, the Republican candidate for Sheriff. Capt. Neely was triumphantly elected, but he does not appear to be satisfied with this vindication of his character by the people, for we learn that he has instituted legal proceedings against the Monitor on the charge of libel. Those who dance must of course expect to pay the piper.

PRICES GOING DOWN!

AT THE EBENSBURG HARDWARE & HOUSE FURNISHING STORE. I once more return my sincere thanks to my old friends and customers for their liberal patronage extended towards me, and now, owing to the great fall in prices, by which many articles can be sold as cheap as before the war, and having a thorough knowledge of the business and the wants of the public, I take pleasure in announcing that I can and will sell goods at a less figure than any similar establishment in city or country.

My stock will consist in part as follows: DOOR AND CUPBOARD LOCKS, CATCHES, BOLTS, HINGES, SCREWS, WINDOW SPRINGS, SLUTTER HINGES, WINDOW GLASS, NAILS, PUTTY, BORING MACHINES, AUGERS, CHISELS, BRACES AND BITS, HATCHETS, SQUARES, COMPASSES, TRY SQUARES, BEVELS, POCKET RULES, JACK, SMOOTHING, AND FOR PLANES, PANEL PLOWS, LEVELS, SASH, RAISING, AND MATCH PLANES, SAW SETS, BENCH SCREWS, CROSS-CUT, PANEL, RIP, COMPASS, AND BACK SAWS, GAUGES, OIL STONES, SCREW DRIVERS, PLOWS, POINTS, SHOVELS, FORKS, SCYTHES AND SNATHES, RAKES, HOES, SPADES, SHEEP SHEARS, HORSEBRUSHES, CARDS, CURRY COMBS, BELLS, HAMMERS, WHIPS, BUT, TRACE, B REAST, HALTER, FITH, TONGEE, AND LOG CHAINS, RIFLES, SHOT GUNS, REVOLVERS, AND PISTOLS, CARTRIDGES, POWDER, SHOT, CAPS, LEAD, POUCHES, POWDER FLASKS, GAME BAGS, GUN LOCKS, MAIN SPRINGS, PIVOTS, &c. LAMPS AND OILS, COOKING, PARLOR, & HEATING STOVES, TIN AND SHEET IRON WARE, WASHING MACHINES, AND WRINGERS, &c., &c., &c., &c., &c.

Persons owing me debts of long standing will confer a favor by calling and paying up as soon as convenient, as it takes a great deal of money to keep my stock afloat. I am making on goods I cannot afford to long credit—the interest would soon eat up the profits. GEO. HUNTLEY. Ebensburg, Aug. 13, 1868.
