At 7.15 P. M., connecting with Phila. Exp. East and Mail Train West. LEAVE CRESSON— At 9.20 A. M., or on departure of Phil. Express West. At 8.40 P. M., or on departure of Phila. Express East.

MEMORANDA.—Thomas McCarty, convicted of the murder of David Barry, in Venango county, was hanged at Franklin on the 28th ult. He acknowledged his guilt of the crime imputed to him. Mr. John Dougherty, an old citizen of Hollidaysburg, is dead. Last Saturday evening was Halloween. Owing to inclemency of the weather, the cabbage-stalk brigade did not appear on the street. Mr. George Aurentz, formerly proprietor of the "Mansion House" in Pittsburg, died last week. Altona is to have a skating rink. Mr. Henry McIntosh has been appointed postmaster at Newry, Blair county, vice Mr. F. P. McCoy, removed. George Fantlinger, an old miner, was recently killed in a coal-pit at Larimer's station, Westmoreland county, by a large piece of slate falling upon him and crushing him. A watch which was stolen from a railroad engineer of Altona about a year ago was last week recovered in a pawnbroker's shop in Pittsburg. A German woman named Stiver and one of her children were fatally burned, recently, by a carbon oil explosion at Covode, Westmoreland county. Mr. Wm. Hileman, of Frankstown, Blair county, was thrown from a spring wagon near Huntingdon, a few days ago, and had his collar-bone broken. A workman engaged in putting a slate roof upon a building in Greensburg lost his balance and fell backward. He slid off the roof, and was only saved from a horrible death by falling upon a scaffold on the fourth story. A vein of lead ore has been found near Hollidaysburg. A piece of the ore was smelted and found to contain about 60 per cent of lead.

ATTEMPTED ARSON.—Eleven months ago, Mr. Thomas B. Moore, of Ebensburg, visited St. Joseph's Orphan Asylum, in Philadelphia. While there, he consented to take one of the orphans, a girl aged about 15 years, and give her a permanent home. He brought the young girl here, and introduced her into his family as a maid of light work. Some time last summer, Mr. Moore's house was set on fire and a wardrobe containing a quantity of wearing apparel consumed. The origin of the fire was an unaccountable mystery. On Saturday night last, the house was again set on fire, but the flames were extinguished before any damage had been done. Suspicion was now directed toward the girl, and a watch was set upon her actions. On Sunday, the house was again fired in several places; and at last, the girl was caught in the act of applying the torch. She was forthwith arrested and committed to jail, to answer in a charge of attempted arson. When asked her motive for attempting to destroy the house, she could only answer that she "was incited by the devil." These last fires resulted in considerable damage to wearing apparel, bed clothes, &c., and at one time on Sunday the house was saved from destruction with the greatest difficulty.

ELECTION ABSURDITIES.—Two individuals of opposite politics residing in Wilmore, this county, made a bet on Tuesday's election. It was to this effect: In case of Seymour's election, the Republican was to enter his ice-house and be locked therein for the space of four hours. In case Grant was successful, the Democrat was to become a tenant of the same quarters for a like period of time. We are not advised when the terms of the compact are to be carried into effect.

A Democrat and a Republican made a wheel-barrow bet in Altona on the result of the State election. The Democrat lost, and on Wednesday evening last wheeled his Republican opponent in a wheelbarrow from the Logan House to his residence in the Sixth Ward.

THE CAMPAIGN.—The grand torchlight procession of the Ebensburg Tanners, in honor of the Republican victories and the Republican cause, did not come off on Saturday night last by reason of the inclemency of the weather. Rail fell at intervals throughout the day, and at night a regular storm set in, succeeded by a copious fall of snow on Sunday. Despite the rough weather, however, a goodly number of Republicans met in the Town Hall in the evening, and were ably addressed by Messrs. N. I. Roberts, D. O. Evans, and others. Look out for the last and grandest demonstration of the campaign next Saturday evening!

ON THE WRONG TRACK.—One day last week, a young clerk who holds forth in Pittsburg received a dispatch from another young clerk employed in the same establishment, but who was then traveling on business, to this effect—"Pack me up a change of clothing and come out here and stay over Sunday." The young man packed up the clothes, took the Phila. Express at Pittsburg at 4.30 p. m., Saturday evening, and at 10 o'clock at night was landed in Ebensburg. But the other young man—him of the rumbled linen—was not at the depot to meet him. Nor was he at any of the hotels. Nor could any trace of him be found throughout all the length and breadth of our corporation limits. Here was a mystery. But the dispatch itself soon unraveled it. It was dated at Ebensburg, (Crawford county,) instead of Ebensburg, (Cambria county,) and the young man had traveled the matter of one hundred miles in an exactly opposite direction from that which he would like to go!

GAMBLING.—Those who are addicted to investing in gift enterprises are respectfully referred to an article on the outside of this paper, wherein is graphically exposed the dishonesty of the system. Any scheme, no matter what its name or how specious soever its avowed object, which proposes to give an article worth $2.00 for $1.00, may unhesitatingly be set down as a swindle. We know that a considerable sum of money goes yearly from Cambria county into the maw of these enterprises, and for what? For pinchbeck jewelry and cheap promises. Even if the enterprises were conducted fairly and honestly, a man would stand only about as much chance of making a sudden fortune as he would of being struck by lightning. But not one of them is conducted on such principles. They are all swindles, and that man is a fool who puts his money into them with the expectation of deriving gain from the investment.

FOR WM. A. WALLACE'S EYE.—In his address to the Democracy of Pennsylvania after the October election, Wm. A. Wallace, Chairman of the Dem. State Committee, charged it upon the Republican party that one of the means through which they were enabled to carry the State consisted in "assessing paupers and voting them." We heard a Democrat remark, the other day, that the address was elegant, eloquent, and epigrammatic, and would have been all right if that unfortunate reference to paupers had been left out; "for," said he, "you see, here in Cambria county we always assess the paupers and have them vote the Democratic ticket." Which is a fact.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.—On Thursday last, Mr. Maurice McNamara, of Johnstown, the newly elected County Commissioner, was qualified as a member of the Board. He is an estimable young man, and will doubtless make an efficient officer. Mr. John Campbell, the retiring Commissioner, filled that office for two terms, or six years. Always at his post when wanted, and careful and exact, tho' courteous and accommodating, he gave full and entire satisfaction to the people. The new Board made the following appointments: Counsel.....Wm. H. Seebler. Clerk.....Thomas Glass. Mercantile Appraiser.....James Ross.

SAD ACCIDENT.—On Monday afternoon last, a serious accident occurred in Johnstown to a number of workmen engaged in the construction of the new Welsh church. It seems the scaffold upon which they were working suddenly gave way, precipitating the workmen from the roof to the floor, a distance of twenty feet. Mr. David Griffiths was so badly injured that he died a short time afterwards. A young man named Clossin had one arm and both thighs broken. Abraham Fresh and Mr. Shryock were also slightly injured.

ATTENTION.—Ebensburg Grant-Colfax and Tanners' clubs. The last meeting of these clubs will be held in this place next Saturday evening, for the purpose of celebrating the glorious victories of the 3rd inst. There will be a torchlight procession, fireworks, illuminations, &c. Eminent speakers will be present to address the meeting. Turn out everybody, and let us have a rousing time.

FIRE.—The steam tannery of Messrs. Jones & Evans, situated a short distance southeast of town, took fire from the smoke stack on Friday morning last. The flames were speedily extinguished, but not till about $25.00 worth of leather had been destroyed and a section of roof twenty feet square burned away.

We direct the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Hoofland in this paper, who, it will be seen, is offering to the public his German Bitters and Tonic, the best known remedy for disease ever discovered. See advertisement.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE. LETTER FROM JOHNSTOWN.—HORATIO, WHILE SWINGING AROUND THE CIRCLE, TOUCHES AT THAT POINT—HIS SPEECH—ASHLEY—PENNA. RAILROAD DOUBLE TRACK, &c., &c. JOHNSTOWN, Nov. 2, 1868.

To the Editors of The Alleghanian: Seymour, the "great decliner," smiled benignly upon a few hundred of our citizens on Thursday last. He discovered, at Pittsburg, that the "Old Keystone" possessed great natural resources and was an immense manufacturing State, and he told the people of Johnstown of his discovery. Only this, and nothing more.—Folks were disappointed. They expected that Horatio (like A. J.) would define his position in a few terse remarks. But, no. A smile of lamb-like innocence, some honeyed, flattering phrases, a puff of smoke from the engine, and Horatio was gone and forgotten.

Impeacher Ashley made a speech on Saturday evening at the Grant club room. A large audience was present, notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. The Penna. Railroad Company have in course of construction an iron bridge on the piers and abutments occupied by the old bridge across the Conemaugh. When completed, the Company will have a double track from Pittsburg to Philadelphia. The Methodist festival was an elegant affair, and was well patronized. The ladies of the congregation merit all praise for the energy and zeal they displayed in the good cause. DAMON.

A FIGHT occurred on our streets on the evening of the October election. Mr. Geo. Gurley, one of the parties engaged, has since prosecuted his pugilistic opponent, Mr. Elias Edwards, on a charge of assault and battery and mayhem. Mr. Edwards, holding that he was the assaulted one, has instituted a counter prosecution against Gurley on the like charge.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—An accident occurred on the Penna. Railroad, near Wilkensburg, on Tuesday night. The entire train was thrown from the track by a broken rail, and nine cars demolished. No person was killed, and only a few were injured—none seriously.

DIED.—In Cambria township, Nov. 3d, Catharine, wife of Richard Edwards, in the 43d year of her age. In Ebensburg, on the 3d inst., Eliza, wife of Daniel J. Evans, aged 35 years.

ONE term at a good school is of more value than two terms at a poor school.—For good instruction, go to the State Normal School. Address J. A. Cooper, Edinboro, Erie county, Pa.

MARRIED.—On the 22d ult., in Indiana county, by John Martin, Esq., Mr. Jacob Keith to Miss Mary McDonnell, of Cambria county.

ATTEND the Republican demonstration next Saturday night.

THE "Big Barker" and the "Little Cur" will be out Saturday night.

ARGUMENT COURT meets here to-day. A good many lawyers in town.

JUST THE PLACE.—If there is anything an honest farmer likes it is plain dealing.—It is his own way of doing things, and he will never do business, if he knows it, with any one who is even disposed to take advantage of him. When he is dealing in corn and wheat, he isn't afraid of any man getting ahead of him, but when he goes to town to buy goods with which he is less familiar, then he wants first of all an honest man to deal with. One price and small profits is the motto at M. L. Oatman's cheap store.

CHASTE AND BEAUTIFUL.—These are the only words which will convey an adequate idea of the array of goods to be found at the variety store of A. A. Barker & Son. Their stock consists in part of Dry Goods of every description, Clothing, men and boys wear, Hosiery &c., in endless variety, Dress Trimmings of every style. In short you can buy almost anything at this store.

MAGNIFICENT.—The display of new goods recently received at C. T. Roberts' is without a doubt the finest selection ever brought to Ebensburg. Those who visit this store cannot fail to find something that will please themselves, their wives, children or sweet-hearts. Go and see for yourself.

WINTER.—The chilling winds, the falling leaves, all indicate that winter is here. Are you prepared for it? Have you purchased your winter clothing? If not, now is the time. An elegant stock may be found at J. Patton Thompson's cheap store. Also a large stock of Furs very cheap.

STOVES.—If you want a Niagara, Ironsides, National, Excelsior, Penn, Nimrod, Quaker City, Electric, in fact any Stove, call at the mammoth store of Geo. Huntley. His prices are as cheap, if not cheaper than can be found elsewhere in the county. Go see.

The election in this section passed off quietly, with the exception of a continued rush and jam at V. S. Barker's cheap store, where bargains were dealt out to every one who made purchases. He is selling everything astonishingly low. Patronize him.

MERCHANT TAILORING.—The want of such an establishment in Ebensburg has long been needed, and we are now happy to say to our readers this want has been supplied. D. J. Evans has just returned from the east with a superb stock of cloths, cassimeres and vestings, such as were never brought to this market before. Mr. E. is a skillful cutter and only asks a trial to convince any and all.

OAK HALL CLOTHING STORE.—Those of our readers who visit Johnstown, and who are in need of clothing, should avail themselves of the opportunity of buying from Leopold & Bro., of the Oak Hall Clothing Store. They sell entire suits of clothing from $15 and upwards. Having the largest stock in Johnstown, and receiving constant accessions of goods, they are prepared to sell cheaper than the cheapest.

DRY GOODS AND MILLINERY STORE.—The largest and most complete dry goods and millinery store in Johnstown, is located on Main Street, Leopold Mayer, proprietor. Mr. Mayer invites the public to give him a call before going elsewhere, assuring them that he will sell as good goods for as little money, as can be bought in the county. Give him a trial and be convinced.

ADVERTISEMENTS.—The man who does not read the advertisements in his paper can never be said to be well informed. And the man who has not yet visited R. R. Davis' cheap store and examined his goods and prices, is also not well informed. In a word, his prices defy competition.

WINDOW SHADES.—It is a fact not to be denied, that the Rustic Window Shade, sold by T. W. Williams, is by far the most tasteful and durable blind extant. They are sold very low. Before purchasing any other, go and examine the Rustic.

$100 REWARD.—Will be paid to any person informing me who sells intoxicating liquors to my wife, Mary. DAVID POWELL. Nov. 5, 1868.

PHOTOGRAPHIC.—Ho! every one that wants Pictures, come ye to Ebensburg and get them! Having located in Ebensburg, I would very respectfully inform the people that I am now fully prepared to take PHOTOGRAPHS in every style of the art, from the smallest Card Picture up to Life Size. Pictures taken in any weather. Every attention given to the taking of CHILDREN'S PICTURES. Photographs painted in Oil, India Ink, or Water Colors.

Your attention is called to my FRAMES FOR LARGE PICTURES, and PHOTOGRAPH ALBUMS, which I will sell as cheap as the cheapest. I ask comparison, and defy competition. Thankful for past favors, I solicit a continuance of the same.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS AND HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC, The Great Remedies for all Diseases of the Liver, Stomach or Digestive Organs.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS Is composed of the pure juices (or, as they are medicinally termed, Extracts) of Roots, Herbs, and Bark, &c., making a preparation, highly concentrated, and entirely free from alcoholic admixture of any kind.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with the purest quality of Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, &c., making one of the most pleasant, agreeable remedies ever offered to the public.

Those preferring a Medicine free from Alcoholic admixture, will use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS. Those who have no objection to the combination of the Bitters, as stated, will use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC. They are both equally good, and contain the same medicinal virtues, the choice between the two being a matter of taste, the Tonic being the most palatable.

The stomach, from a variety of causes, such as Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, &c., is very apt to have its functions deranged. The Liver, sympathizing as closely as it does with the Stomach, then becomes affected, the result of which is that the patient suffers from several or more of the following diseases:

- Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fulness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fullness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sick Headaches, &c. The pit of the Stomach, the Throat, the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of vision, Dots or webs before the sight, dull pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Feet, Constant Imaginations of Evil, and great depression of Spirits.

The sufferer from these diseases should exercise the greatest caution in the selection of a remedy for his case, purchasing only that which he is assured from his investigations and inquiries, possesses true merit, skillfully compounded, is free from injurious ingredients, and established for itself a reputation for the cure of these diseases. In this connection we would submit those well-known remedies—Hoofland's German Bitters, and Hoofland's German Tonic, prepared by DR. C. M. JACKSON, PHILADELPHIA, PA. Thirty-five years since they were first introduced into this country from Germany, during which time they have undoubtedly performed more cures, and benefited suffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies known to the public.

These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Chronic Diarrhoea, Disease of the Kidneys, and all diseases arising from a disordered Liver, Stomach or Intestines. DEBILITY RESULTING FROM ANY CAUSE whatever; Prostration of the System, induced by Severe Labor, Hardships, Exposure, Fever, &c.

There is no medicine extant equal to these remedies in such cases. A tone and vigor is imparted to the whole system, the appetite is strengthened, food is enjoyed, the stomach digests properly, the blood is purified, the complexion becomes sound and healthy, the yellow tinge is eradicated from the eyes, a bloom is given to the cheeks, and the weak and nervous invalid becomes a strong and healthy being.

PERSONS ADVANCED IN LIFE, And feeling the hand of time weighing heavily upon them, with all its attendant ills, will find in the use of this Bitters, or the Tonic, an elixir that will instil new life into their veins, restore in a measure the energy and ardor of more youthful days, build up their shrunken forms, and give health and happiness to their remaining years.

NOTICE! It is a well established fact that fully one-half of the female portion of our population are seldom in the enjoyment of good health, or to use their own expression, "never feel well." They are languid, devoid of all energy, extremely nervous, and have no appetite.

To this class of persons the Bitters, or the Tonic, is especially recommended. WEAK AND DELICATE CHILDREN Are made strong by the use of either of these remedies. They will cure every case of NARASUM, without fail.

Thousands of certificates have accumulated in the hands of the proprietor, but space will allow of the publication of but a few.—Those, it will be observed, are from men of note, and of such standing that they must be believed.

TESTIMONIALS: Hon. Geo. W. Woodward, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pa., writes:—"Philadelphia, March 19, 1867.—I find Hoofland's German Bitters is a good tonic, useful in disease of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility, and want of nervous action in the system."

"Yours, truly, Geo. W. Woodward." Hon. James Thompson, Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, April 28, 1866. "I consider Hoofland's German Bitters a valuable medicine in cases of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it. Yours, &c."

"JAMES THOMPSON." From Rev. Joseph Kennard, D. D., Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia. Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my own family of the use of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that, for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes. Yours, very respectfully, "J. H. KENNARD."

CAUTION. Hoofland's German Remedies are counterfeited. See that the signature of C. M. JACKSON is on the wrapper of each bottle. All others are counterfeits.
