

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

EBENSBURG AND CRESSON RAILROAD.—On and after Monday, Aug. 3, 1898, trains on this road will run as follows:

LEAVE EBENSBURG.—At 5.15 A. M., connecting with Day Exp. East and Phil. Exp. West.

LEAVE CRESSON.—At 9.20 A. M., or on departure of Phil. Express West.

At 2.40 P. M., or on departure of Phila. Express East.

THE ALLEGHANIAN.—On Monday last, the following remark was made to us—“Well, the election is over, and I suppose that now THE ALLEGHANIAN will be discontinued.” This remark, we imagine, was based on the fact that THE ALLEGHANIAN, after a discontinuance of a few months, renewed publication about the commencement of the political campaign just closed.

For fear the idea contained in the remark quoted may generally prevail, we beg to say this: THE ALLEGHANIAN was not a campaign paper, and its publication will not now be suspended. When we renewed its publication, over three months ago, we invested a considerable sum of money in the purchase of new type, &c., with the intention of making the paper a permanent institution. This is yet our intention. We have received and are receiving from the public a good measure of support, and think we can see our way clearly in the future.

Our subscription list is now larger than ever since the foundation of the paper. Within the past three months, we have booked about two hundred and fifty new subscribers, and still the names come rolling in. If this sort of pressure continues, we shall shortly feel justified in laying claim to what we may have now for all that we know—“the largest circulation of any paper in the county.”

Since the resuscitation of THE ALLEGHANIAN, its space has necessarily been mainly devoted to politics and matters political. Hereafter, this will not be the case. Politics will of course continue to receive a fair share of attention; but, in addition, our columns will each week contain that variety of poetry, tales, sketches, biographies, &c., &c., so eagerly sought after by the reader of a country journal. The general and local news departments will continue to receive especial attention.

During the long winter evenings now rapidly approaching, every household in Cambria county ought to take a newspaper. It is the most agreeable, the most instructive, and by odds the best and cheapest fireside companion attainable. Try THE ALLEGHANIAN, and be convinced. We will send specimen numbers to any person desiring them.

THE ELECTIVE FRANCHISE.—The election laws of Pennsylvania contain the following:

“SECTION 1. In elections by the citizens, every white freeman of the age of twenty-one years, having resided in this State one year, and in the election district where he offers to vote immediately preceding such election, and within two years paid a State or county tax, which shall have been assessed at least ten days before the election, shall enjoy the rights of an elector.”

Summitville, Cambria county, though a pleasant little village, is Democratic by vote of over four to one. It is bounded in every direction by Washington township. At the late election, as we are informed, a man presented himself at the polls in that district and demanded to be allowed to vote. This man was then and is yet a resident of Washington township, though living considerably nearer Summitville than Lilly's, the place where the Washington township election is held. As a matter of course, his vote was challenged. But he produced a doctor's certificate setting forth that he was afflicted by divers ailments as to disqualify him from journeying to Lilly's. Thereupon, this board, in whose breasts the horrors tantamounts of compassion for human infirmity, particularly if the infirmity was found enveloped in the person of a Democratic voter, made haste to nullify a plain law, and received his ballot! A second person, also residing in Washington township, voted at the same polls under somewhat similar circumstances. He demanded his unwillingness to walk to Lilly's, and as no conveyance was at hand to carry him thither, the board decided to receive his ballot at Summitville rather than allow it to be irrevocably lost to Secession. Grand result: two more Democratic votes in Summitville in November than in October.

The extract from the election laws published above is commended to the careful consideration of the Summitville election board, and all other election boards like it.

MEMORANDA.—The dwelling-house of Mr. James Cline, in Westmoreland county, was destroyed by fire, together with its contents, one day last week...Mr. Elisha Shoemaker, a farmer, residing in Huntingdon county, signed his name in blank on the books of a Jeremy Diddler who represented himself as an agent of the National Agricultural Department. Mr. Diddler wrote a note for $95 above the name, presented it at the First National Bank of Huntingdon, and had it cashed. Mr. Shoemaker paid the note, and is now anxiously inquiring as to the whereabouts of Mr. Diddler...A successful Methodist revival was lately held in Blairsville. A large number were converted from the errors of their ways, and brought into the true light...A “dinky” locomotive ran off the track near Altoona, one day last week, and, after turning two complete somersaults, brought up in a creek below. The engineer and fireman made their escape by jumping...Mr. Philip Pheasant, of Cassville, Huntingdon county, was instantly killed at Mill Creek, Huntingdon county, on the 3d instant, by the upsetting of a wagon...Mr. Peter Riddle, of Georgeville, Indiana county, had his pocket picked of $1,100 in Philadelphia, week before last...A few days since, twelve fine specimens of the black or lake bass were transplanted from the Potomac into the waters of the “blue Juniata”...Mr. Press Kilgore, a brakeman on the Derry Accommodation of the Penna. Railroad, fell under the cars at Derry on the 6th instant, and was so badly injured by the train passing over him that he died the same night...A man named Henry Croutwaller, lately discharged from the Western Penitentiary, where he had been serving out a sentence of ten years for burning a barn, has been committed to the Indiana jail for threatening to kill a man in West Wheatfield township. He is 65 years old, and has already served three terms in the penitentiary...The trial of Thomas H. Fagan for the murder of William A. Lane came off in Holidaysburg two weeks ago. It will be remembered that the murder was the result of a fracas between the two parties, in Holidaysburg, on the 25th of July last. The jury, after thirty-six hours of deliberation, returned a verdict of not guilty...A child of Jacob Fawner, aged about eighteen months, fell into a mill-race at Williamsburg, on the 26th ult., and was drowned...Maj. W. W. Ivory, formerly of Ebensburg, made a Republican speech in St. Louis just before the late election. It was highly spoken of by the St. Louis Republican...A son of Mr. David Byers, of Huston township, Blair county, got entangled in the machinery of a threshing machine, a few days ago, and was killed. See new advertisements.

A MAN KILLED IN JOHNSTOWN.—On Saturday night last, a man named John O'Donnell fell from the platform in front of the Johnstown railroad depot to the tow path below—a distance of 20 feet—and was instantly killed. A man named Hays was in his company at the time of the accident. Both were intoxicated. Hays was arrested next day on suspicion of having caused the man's death, but no proof appearing against him, he was discharged. The verdict of the coroner's jury was to the effect that the deceased came to his death from concussion of the brain caused by the fall. He was an Irishman, and had not been long in this country.

THAT BANNER.—Before the late election, the Democratic ladies of Ebensburg promised to bestow a $50 banner upon the township in Cambria county giving the largest proportionately increased vote in November over that cast in October. We learn that it has been decided to award the banner to Alleghany township. The Democratic majority in Alleghany in October was 171; in November, 184—a Democratic gain of all the way 13 in one of the largest Democratic townships in the county! Perhaps the game is worth the powder, but if so, we must confess that we can't see it.

PHOTOGRAPH ALBUMS FOR NOTHING.—If you want to buy a beautiful photograph album without money and without price, go to Spence's Photograph Gallery and get two dozen photographs taken and get an album worth $3 free. Any person ordering two dozen photographs (and paying for the same) on any negative or number of negatives now on hand will also receive a good album holding 20 pictures. Any person not wishing an album can have a large picture frame. So come right along before 'tis past, for a chance like this won't always last.

T. T. SPENCE, Photographer.

SHOCKING ACCIDENT.—Engine No. 46 exploded on the Holidaysburg branch railroad, at Duncansville, on Monday last, instantly killing the engineer, Mr. Robt. Patterson, and the fireman, Mr. Philip Davis. The former is reported to have been blown entirely over a house, a distance of several hundred feet. Both were married, and leave families. The fireman was a native of Cambria county, and was a son of Mr. James Davis, of Beisano.

COUNTY INSTITUTE.—The second session of the Cambria County Teachers' Institute will be held the fourth week of December, in the Court House, Ebensburg. The exercises will be varied, interesting, and instructive. Able lecturers and instructors will be present. A perfect outline of the exercises will be published hereafter.

JUST LOOK AT IT!—The Washington township, Cambria county, election board has been prosecuted by a Republican named Hanson for refusing to receive his vote, he holding that he is a legally qualified elector.

OAK HALL CLOTHING STORE.—Those of our readers who visit Johnstown, and who are in need of clothing, should avail themselves of the opportunity of buying from Leopold & Bro., of the Oak Hall Clothing Store. They sell entire suits of clothing from $15 and upwards. Having the largest stock in Johnstown, and receiving constant accessions of goods, they are prepared to sell cheaper than the cheapest.

SEVERE WINTER.—The weather prophets predict a long and severe winter.—There are certain signs by which they are governed in their calculations, which may or may not mean something. But, be this as it may, we suggest that you prepare for the emergency by laying in a supply of winter goods which are offered for sale cheap at R. R. Davis' fancy store.

FACTS.—The largest store, the cheapest goods, the greatest variety, the finest selection of dry goods hats, bonnets, &c., to be found in Johnstown—at the cheap store of Leopold Mayer. Mr. Mayer is a clever and an accommodating gentleman, with whom it is a pleasure to deal. Try him and you will go nowhere else to deal.

SIGNS.—Some people are governed almost entirely by signs. They have signs for everything. They are, however, frequently deceived in signs. There is one sign which will not deceive, and that is the one which hangs at the front of Geo. Huntley's mammoth store. This sign may be relied upon as the place to buy cheap hardware.

BIG TREE.—Lancaster county boasts a chestnut tree twenty-seven feet in circumference, with a cherry tree growing from one of its branches. On the west side of the tree are carved in most beautiful letters, the words—“Buy your goods at Thompson's cheap cash store, Ebensburg, Pa.”

RUSTIC WINDOW SHADES.—Churches, Hotels, and public buildings furnished with the Rustic Shade, by T. W. Williams, at very low rates. They are by far the most serviceable as well as ornamental blind extant.—Go and see them.

THE STATE NORMAL SCHOOL, at Edinboro, is the best place for the young people of Western Pennsylvania to obtain an education. Its advantages are surpassed by no similar institution known to us.

ENTIGMA.—I am composed of fourteen letters: My first is in much, but not in little; My second is in hot, but not in little; My third is in linen, but not in bird; My fourth is in listen, but never in heard; My fifth is in winter, and also in spring; My sixth is in singer, but never in sing; My seventh is in given, but never in brass; My eighth is in iron, but never in took; My ninth is in given, but never in brass; My tenth is in lady, and also in lass; My eleventh is in Monday, but never in week; My twelfth is in modest, but never in meek; My thirteenth is in rainbow, but never in sky; My fourteenth is in query, but never in why. My whole is the name of the authorless.

SEWING MACHINES.—If you think of purchasing a Sewing Machine, you will find it your interest to give C. T. Roberts a call. He is agent for the Howe, Singer, and Grover & Baker machines, either of which may be relied upon as giving entire satisfaction in every instance. Drop in and see them.

CHEAP STORE.—We hear the ladies say—and what they say must be true—that V. S. Barker keeps the greatest variety and finest selection of goods in town. His prices are amazingly low and goods to suit all. Pop in and take a look at his goods.

SWEET POTATOES.—M. L. Oatman has a choice lot of sweet potatoes on hand which he offers to the public at the lowest market price. His stock of groceries is the largest and cheapest in town. Go and buy.

READER, if you want a bargain in buying a bill of goods, you should buy from A. A. Barker & Son. Their goods are all new and prices as cheap as the cheapest. Patronize them.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC. The Great Remedies for all Diseases of the Liver, Stomach or Digestive Organs.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS is composed of the pure juices (or, as they are medicinally termed, Extracts) of Roots, Herbs, and Barks, making a preparation, highly concentrated, and entirely free from alcoholic admixture of any kind.

It is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with the purest quality of Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, &c., making one of the most pleasant, agreeable remedies ever offered to the public.

Those preferring a Medicine free from Alcoholic admixture, will use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS. Those who have no objection to the combination of the Bitters, as stated, will use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

They are both equally good, and contain the same medicinal virtues, the choice between the two being a mere matter of taste, the Tonic being the most palatable.

The stomach, from a variety of causes, such as Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, &c., is very apt to have its functions deranged. The Liver sympathizing as closely as it does with the Stomach then becomes affected, the result of which is that the patient suffers from several or more of the following diseases:

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fulness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fullness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or fluttering at the pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of vision, Dots or webs before the sight, dull pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushings of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginations of Evil, and great depression of Spirits.

The sufferer from these diseases should exercise the greatest caution in the selection of a remedy for his case, purchasing only that which he is assured from his investigations and inquiries, possesses true merit, skillfully compounded, is free from injurious ingredients, and established for itself a reputation for the cure of these diseases. In this connection we would submit those well-known remedies—Hooiland's German Bitters, and Hooiland's German Tonic, prepared by DR. C. M. JACKSON, PHILADELPHIA, PA.

Thirty-five years since they were first introduced into this country from Germany, during which time they have undoubtedly performed more cures, and benefited suffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies known to the public.

These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, &c., Chronic Rheumatism, Disease of the Kidneys, and all diseases arising from a disordered Liver, Stomach or Intestines.

DEBILITY RESULTING FROM ANY CAUSE whatever; Prostration of the System, induced by Severe Labor, Hardships, Exposure, Fever, &c. There is no medicine extant equal to these remedies in such cases. A tone and vigor is imparted to the whole system, the appetite is strengthened, food is enjoyed, the stomach digests properly, the blood is purified, the complexion becomes sound and healthy, the yellow tinge is eradicated from the eyes, a bloom is given to the cheeks, and the weak and nervous invalid becomes a strong and healthy being.

PERSONS ADVANCED IN LIFE. And feeling the hand of time weighing heavily upon them, with all its attendant ills, find relief in the use of this Bitters, or the Tonic, an elixir that will instill new life into their veins, restore in a measure the energy and ardor of more youthful days, build up their shrunken forms, and give health and happiness to their remaining years.

NOTICE! It is a well established fact that fully one-half of the female portion of our population are seldom in the enjoyment of good health, or, to use their own expression, “never feel well.” They are languid, devoid of all energy, extremely nervous, and have no appetite.

To this class of persons the Bitters, or the Tonic, is especially recommended. WEAK AND DELICATE CHILDREN Are made strong by the use of either of these remedies. They will cure every case of MARASMOUS, without fail.

Thousands of certificates have accumulated in the hands of the proprietor, but space will allow of the publication of but a few. Those, it will be observed, are from men of note, and of such standing that they must be believed.

TESTIMONIALS: Hon. Geo. W. Woodward, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pa., writes:—Philadelphia, March 16, 1867.—“I find Hooiland's German Bitters is a good tonic, useful in diseases of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility, and want of nervous action in the system.”

“Yours, truly, GEO. W. WOODWARD.” Hon. James Thompson, Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania. PHILADELPHIA, April 28, 1866.—“I consider Hooiland's German Bitters a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify that from my experience of it.”

Yours, &c. “JAMES THOMPSON.” From Rev. Joseph Kennard, D. D., Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia. Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a peculiarly in my own family of the use of Dr. Hooiland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that, for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes. Yours, very respectfully, “J. H. KENNARD.”

CAUTION. Hooiland's German Remedies are counterfeited. See that the signature of C. M. JACKSON is on the wrapper of each bottle. All others are counterfeit. Principal Office, and Manufactory at the German Medicine Store, No. 531 ARCH-ST., Philadelphia, Pa. CHARLES M. EVANS, Proprietor, Formerly C. M. JACKSON & Co. PRICES: Hooiland's German Bitters, per bottle, $1 00 “ “ half dozen, 5 00 Hooiland's German Tonic, put up in quart bottles, $1 50 per bottle, or “ half dozen for $7 50. Do not forget to examine well the article you buy, in order to get the genuine. For sale by all Druggists and Storekeepers, everywhere. [18-6m.]
