THE HAPPY FAMILY -At an adjournd meeting of the Happy Family, held a few days ago, they came to the conclusion that their labor during the last campaign was in vain. They said they had spent their time, their means (over the left), had filled up the entire north of the county with crippled horses and broken buggies and yet that neither one of them, not withstanding the suggestion of "Rex,' had received either the key, the ash pan or the broom of the Prothonotary's office They thought it too bad; and moreover thought it still worse that the very person who gave them all the trouble in the north was installed as Deputy Prothonotary .-The noise and confusion in the lodge excited the H-S-, who plainly told the Family, in few words, to remain quiet that he had the gift of power to give or refuse the respective offices in the county that the new Prothonotary needed an as sistant, and that he thought neither one of the H. F. competent to fill the post at the present time; and, further, that Z- must have nothing more to do there, as he had tried him in his Democratic balances and found him wanting-wherefore, they must be reconciled with his appointment of a Depy. > How's This?-In last week's Freeman was a descriptive sketch entitled "A Run Through Switzerland." It was printed under the general head of "Our Foreign Letter," and was overtopped by this line -"Correspondence of the Freeman." By a strange chance, a copy of a paper called the Record, published at East Liverpool, Ohio, has fallen into our hands. Thi Record bears date anterior to last week's Freeman, and contains, word for word, the sketch mentioned above. Queer!

> MARBLE WORKS .- We are glad to hear that the Loretto Marble Works, under the supervision of our friend Mr. James Wilkinson, are doing a good business. Mr. W keeps a complete stock of all kinds o marbles constantly on hand, is himself an accomplished marble-cutter, and can turn out a first-class job. We advise those of our readers wanting anything in his line to give him a call.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE. LETTER FROM JOHNSTOWN-A BATCH OF NEWS

JOHNSTOWN, Dec. 7, 1868. To the Editors of The Alleghanian:

Sanford's opera troupe played to good nouses in the new Union Hall nearly two weeks, and departed for Philipsburg on Thursday last.

A man named Clark, residing in this place, stole a pair of boots from the store of Mr. John Thomas the other day. He was arrested and taken before Justice Strayer, who sent him to the county jail. The new iron bridge connecting Cambria and Millville boroughs has been completed, and is now open for travel. Rev. E. A. Brindley delivered a discourse, entitled the "Healing of Capt Naaman," at the first Methodist church on Sunday evening.

The ladies connected with the fair of the new German Catholic church are actively engaged making preparations for that event. It promises to be one of the grandest ever held in this place. I advise those of your readers who want to put in a good time about the holidays to drop in

A young man, whose name I could not learn, had an arm badly bruised the other day by a lump of iron ore falling on it at one of the blast furnaces of the C. I Company.

The snow is some eighteen inches deep, and is still coming. The sleighing is exan abstract of the business done up to cellent, and the livery men are reaping a harvest.

> The burglars who entered the Company's store have not been apprehended. Yours, &c.,

LETTER FROM CARROLL TOWNSHIP-PLENTY OF SNOW-AN ELOPEMENT, &C. CARROLL Tp., Dec. 7, 1868.

To the Editors of The Alleghanian : The past week has been prolific of at least plenty of snow. Some two feet cover Many cases in the Quarter Sessions re- the ground, and of course there is plenty of sledding. In the matter of local items, it has not been quite so prolifie. However, we have had a real elopement, a return of the happy pair, and, best of all, a reconciliation all around. The pleasant result is certainly not unpleasant now, but I may say that it is not a frequent occurrence that an only parent, and a lone one at that, can so easily satisfy himself that stock to select from. Step in and see. 'all's for the best."

> You will please consider this No. 1 of a series of communications from the north of the county which I hope to make interesting to your readers. L. W. E.

> BEYOND THE MISSISSIPPI.-Mr. David James, of our town, was badly wounded in the shoulder during the late war. The wound healed over, and became apparently well, but lately it has broken open, and is now as painful and troubleome as at first. Unable to do manual labor, he has gone into the book agency business to obtain a livelihood. The book for which he is agent is Richardson's 'Beyond the Mississippi," a readable and instructive publication. We commend Mr. J. and his book to all those to whom he shall come.

THE VICISSITUDES OF FORTUNE

Cannot destroy mental culture. Education rises above panics and the fluctuations of trade. Knowledge and refinement are better than gold. Your daughters can enjoy superior advantages at the Hollidaysburg Seminary.

In Town.-Messrs. J. F. Campbell and C. W. Easly, editors of the Altoona Vindicator, are in town this week, attending Court. They are good fellows, and print good paper. Success to them.

TINWARE ESTABLISHMENT.—Among the numerous business establishments in town is that of Thos. W. Williams who we are pleased to see doing an extensive business. He keeps constantly on hand a large and varied stock of tinware manufactured from the best tin the market affords-and besides, he has in his employ the best workmen in this section of country, -in short, all work warranted or money refunded. Should you at any time need anything in his line, give him a call before going elsewhere. Prices as cheap as the cheapest. All manner of tinware repaired on short notice.

GOODS FOR THE HOLIDAYS .- Every year brings something entirely new in the line of useful, musical, ornamental or mirth-MARRIED-In Greenville, Indiana co., ful toys and the like for Christmas presents by far the most beautiful stock of holiday presents in town are now in store at C. T. Roberts'. He has any desirable article suitable for a present that you may wish. We advise everybody to go there and buy. Go > WESTON .- Weston the pedestrian has started on his five thousand mile trip, and thus far the greatest success has attended him. Pedestrianism has become quite the rage of late, and nowhere is so much of it practised as on the route to L. Mayer's emporium of fashion. He has received a superb and elegant stock of goods suitable for holiday presents which he will dispose of very low. Drop in at his store in Parke's new building, Johnstown, and see for yourself.

ECONOMY. - In all the pursuits of life, there is no consideration more important to the people than that of domestic economyeconomy in living, but more particularly economy in buying. It is in the latter that we are enabled to place a guard around that which we have acquired by "the sweat of the brow," or honest industry, We know of no place in town where goods of every description are sold so cheap as at the mammoth store of Geo. Huntley. A word to the wise, Court.-People in attendance at court this week should avail themselves of the opportunity of visiting the Variety Hall of A A. Barker & Son. Their dry goods department is large and embraces every article of goods that could be desired. Their stock of ready made clothing and gents' furnishing goods comprises all the late and fashionable goods worn. Hats, caps, boots and shoes in great variety and everything sold cheap.

WHO CAN BEAT IT ?- A down cast editor, who has kept a record of big beats, announces at last that "the beet that beat the JACK, SMOOTHING, and FOR PLANES beet that beat the other beet, is now beaten by a beet that beats all the beets." Talking about beets, we know that M. L. Oatman beats all creation in selling cheap groceries. An excellent stock constantly on hand. He will also during the winter keep a fresh and large supply of canned oysters. Go and buy.

A FACT.—People are now beginning to see the advantage of buying ready-made clothing, since J. Patton Thompson has opened out his extensive stock. At Thompson's you have pick and choice from all sorts of goods, and seeing them made up, you will know how they look, without guess work .-But the cheapness of his clothing, after all is the main advantage. Buy at Thompson's and save money-money saved is money made.

WINTER CLOTHING.—Many persons defer ordering their winter garments until the last moment, and then want them almost instantly. We advise all such to visit the popular Oak Hall Clothing Store of Leopold & Bro., Main-st., Johnstown, where they will find a magnificent stock of ready-made garments to select from, got up in choicest style from handsome material. Fits to please all, and prices to suit the times.

BARGAINS .- If you desire a bargain, which most do at this inclement season of the year, in boots and shoes, arctic or rubber shoes, call at the store or V. S. Barker on High-st., whose extensive stock must guarantee full satisfaction in quality, fit and price. Ladies will find their wants in this line amply provided for-a large and fashionable

THE PLACE TO GO.—Those of our readers desiring anything in the line of overshoes will find no better selection nor cheaper lot in town than those kept by R. R. Davis at his fancy try goods store. The ladies will be glad to learn that he has just received a new and fashionable skirt, which is calculated and especially adapted to the wants of the ladies. They are very cheap.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC, The Great Remedies for all Diseases of the Liver, Stomach or Digestive Organs. MOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS Is composed of the pure juices (or, as they are medicinally termed, Extracts) of Roots, Herbs, and Barks, Tax making a preparation, highly concentrated, and entirely free from alcoholic admixture of any kind.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with the purest quality of Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, &c., making one of the most pleasant, agreeable remedies ever offered to the public.

Those preferring a Medicine free from Alcoholic admixture, will use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

Those who have no objection to the combination of the Bitters, as stated, will use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC. They are both equally good, and contain the same medicinal virtues, the choice between the two being a mere matter of taste, the Tonic being the most palatable. The stomach, from a variety of causes, such as Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, etc., is very apt to have its functions deranged. The Liver, sympathizing as closely as it does with the O Stomach then becomes affected, the result of which is that the patient suffers from several or more of the following diseases: . Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fulness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the CROSS-CUT, PANEL, RIP, COMPASS, AND Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fullness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or fluttering at the pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of vision, Dots or webs before the sight, dull pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant BUT, TRACE, BREAST, HALTER, FITH, Imaginings of Evil, and great depression of

The sufferer from these diseases should exercise the greatest caution in the selection of a remedy for his case, purchasing only that which he is assured from his investigations and inquiries, O possesses true merit, skilfully compounded, is free from injurious ingredients, and established for itself a reputation for the cure of these diseases. In this connection we would submit those wellknown remedies-Hoofland's German Bitters, and Hoofland's German Tonic, prepared by

DR. C. M. JACKSON, PHILADELPHIA, PA. Thirty-five years since they were first introduced into this country from Germane, during which time they have undoubtedly performed more cures, and benefitted suffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies known to the public These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, To Chronic Diarrhoea, Disease of the Kidneys, and all diseases arising from a disordered Liver, Stomach or In-

DEBILITY RESULTING FROM ANY CAUSE whatever; Prostration of the System, induced by Severe Labor, Hardships,

Exposure, Fever, &c. There is no medicine extant equal to these remedies in such cases. A tone and vigor is imparted to the whole system, the appeexpenses, and owing to the small profits that tite is strengthened, food is enjoyed, the stomach digests properly, the blood is purlong credit-the interest would soon eat up fied, the complexion becomes sound and healthy, the yellow tinge is eradicated from the eyes, a bloom is given to the cheeks, and the weak and nervous invalid becomes a strong and healthy being.

PERSONS ADVANCED IN LIFE, And feeling the hand of time weighing heavily upon them, with all its attendant Ills, will find in the use of this Bitters, or the Tonic, an elixir that will instil new life into their veins, restore in a measure the energy and ardor of more youthful days, build up their shrunken forms, and give health and happiness to their remaining years.

NOTICE! It is a well established fact that fully onehalf of the female portion of our population are seldom in the enjoyment of good health, or, to use their own T. expression, "never teel well." They are languid, devoid of all energy, extremely nervous, and have no ap-
