LEAVE CRESSON—At 9.25 A. M., or on departure of Phil. Express West. At 9.31 P. M., or on departure of Phila. Express East.

TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS.—Those of our subscribers who pay their subscriptions to The Alleghanian on or before the 1st of January, next, will be entitled to our advance rates, namely—$2.00 per annum.

MEMORANDA.—The house of Stewart Cowan, in Tyrone, was entered by burglars and robbed of $53.00, the other night...

THE SNOW BLOCKADE.—The storm last week was one of the most severe ever experienced in this section; and coming as it did so early in the winter, it took everybody by surprise and found them unprepared for its rigors.

BEECHER'S SERMONS IN THE "CHURCH UNION."—Many papers having announced that these sermons would not be printed in the Church Union, we take pleasure in stating that the sermons of this preacher do appear in every issue of this paper...

TRICKED.—We were made the victim of a practical joke on Saturday last. The joke was a good one, but very old—so old, in fact, that we thought it was forgotten in this locality.

GOOD CIGARS.—Mr. Martin L. Oatman insists that he has the very best cigars kept for sale in town. As a large proportion of our citizens indulge in tobacco in that shape, we advise them to drop in at Mr. O.'s and see if what he says be correct.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.—We give below an abstract of the business transacted last week by our Court, commencing where our last report left off:

Quarter Sessions. Comth. vs. Samuel Criste—selling liquor on Sunday. Not guilty.

Comth. vs. Lawrence Campbell—assault and battery. Defendant pleads guilty and submits. Sentenced to pay a fine of $1 and costs, and stand committed, &c.

Comth. vs. Same—selling liquor on Sunday. Defendant pleads guilty and submits. Sentenced to pay a fine of $10 and costs, to be appropriated according to law, and undergo imprisonment in the county jail for ten days.

Comth. vs. Andrew Slick—horse stealing. Defendant pleads guilty and submits. Not sentenced.

Comth. vs. Same—larceny. Defendant pleads guilty. Not sentenced.

Comth. vs. John Launy—larceny. Defendant pleads guilty. Not sentenced.

Comth. vs. Ella Hawthorne—arson, and attempt to commit arson. This defendant is the young girl who five or six weeks ago attempted to destroy by fire the dwelling house of our townsman, Mr. Thomas B. Moore. Jury acquit her on the ground of insanity.

Common Pleas. Leidy's adm'x. vs. Joel Simmons—ejectment. This case went to trial, and after proceeding a couple of hours, plaintiff became nonsuit on Thursday morning.

Bloodgood's exrs. vs. Morrison's exr.—Scire facias to revive judgment. Jury find for plaintiff in the sum of $230.05.

THE SNOW BLOCKADE.—The storm last week was one of the most severe ever experienced in this section; and coming as it did so early in the winter, it took everybody by surprise and found them unprepared for its rigors.

BEECHER'S SERMONS IN THE "CHURCH UNION."—Many papers having announced that these sermons would not be printed in the Church Union, we take pleasure in stating that the sermons of this preacher do appear in every issue of this paper...

THE B. B. CONCERT.—The troupe of minstrels who will sing at the base ball concert in this place, during the holidays, are hard at work rehearsing. They embrace some of the best musical talent in town, and will give a good account of themselves when the proper time arrives.

GOOD CIGARS.—Mr. Martin L. Oatman insists that he has the very best cigars kept for sale in town. As a large proportion of our citizens indulge in tobacco in that shape, we advise them to drop in at Mr. O.'s and see if what he says be correct.

PERSONAL.—Irvin Rutledge, Esq., Burgess of Johnstown, Hon. John Porter, our representative elect to the next Legislature, Messrs. J. A. and A. J. Christy, of Oil City, Capt. George F. Huff, of Greensburg, and many other distinguished personages, were in town this week.

SEE new advertisements of Holiday goods in to-day's paper. Our readers will find each and all of these establishments plentifully supplied with good things.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.

LETTER FROM JOHNSTOWN—ALL THE LOCAL NEWS OF THE WEEK.

JOHNSTOWN, Dec. 14, 1868.

To the Editors of The Alleghanian: A man named John Sullivan, residing in Millville borough, had one of his feet frightfully smashed, one day last week, by a cake of cinder falling upon it while he was engaged loading a cinder car at the blast furnaces of the C. I. Co.

The public schools of this borough will close for the winter on Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

The Cambria Iron Co. have opened a night school for their employees in Cambria borough, under the supervision of Mr. James Morley. Mr. Michael Sweeney is teacher. Some fifty scholars attend it.

A portion of the rolling mill was stopped last week, on account of a scarcity of iron caused by the blockading of the railroads by the snow.

The Red Men of this place held a ball in Fronheiser's hall on Wednesday evening last. It was a very nice affair, and was well attended.

Mr. Peter McDermott has disposed of his interest in the saloon of McDermott & Davis, in Parke's new building, Main st., to Mr. George W. Davis. George is a genial, clever fellow, and keeps the best of liquors and oysters in every style.

Prof. Howard Day, colored, preached in the M. E. church here on Sunday morning last.

The Assistance Fire Co. have had their large fire bell swung in the belfry of their engine house. The bell weighs 1,561 pounds, and its tone is sufficiently loud to convey an alarm to the remotest parts of this and the adjacent boroughs.

Yours, DIO.

ANOTHER LETTER FROM JOHNSTOWN—SOMETHING LOCAL AND SOMETHING POLITICAL.

JOHNSTOWN, Dec. 13, 1868.

To the Editors of The Alleghanian: No horrible accidents, murders, stabbing affrays, or saloon fights to chronicle for the past week. Its seven days glided by as smoothly and gayly as winter's chariot and accompanying bells.

As matter of interest to the skaters of your less favored locality, I mention the fact that our rivers are partly frozen, affording margin sufficient for the young ladies and gents who are "on the steel" to spread themselves, cut pigeon wings, duck limbs, &c.

The rumor that Mr. J. Edgar Thomson was being brought out as a candidate for U. S. Senator, to succeed Mr. Buckalew, caused quite a thrill of indignation among Republicans here. All denounce the movement as unmanly, and ungenerous to the life-long Republicans of the State...

LETTER FROM CARROLL TOWNSHIP—THE SNOW BLOCKADE—A DEARTH OF NEWS.

CARROLL TP., Dec. 4, 1868.

To the Editors of The Alleghanian: An unusually early winter blockade of our roads has taken place in this section since my last letter.

WINTER.—December has already signalized its advent by two old-fashioned snow storms, giving us a depth of nearly two feet, and good sleighing. Such cold wintry days remind us of the fact that we should be warmly clad, and nowhere is such an immense assortment of men's and boys' clothing offered for sale as at Thompson's.

COME.—Winter with its chilling blasts, its ice and snow, has come—stern old winter, who never smiles and never melts to pity. How welcome now the home-hearth, and the bright, warm fire; when the storm howls without, and the cold winds go sweeping by!

FURS! FURS!—The most magnificent selection of furs of every style, quality and price, to be found in town, is at V. S. Barker's cheap cash store, High-st. The comfort afforded from wearing a set of furs cannot be appreciated until once tested.

NOTWITHSTANDING the late snow storm, the vast salesrooms of Oak Hall, in Johnstown, were crowded all the time with eager buyers of good substantial clothing.

HOLIDAY APPLIANCES.—A large assortment of fancy groceries, comprising all the delicacies known in the trade, purchased expressly for the holidays, is now being opened and offered for sale at M. L. Oatman's, three doors east of Crawford's Hotel.

NEW GOODS.—Every day brings something new to the New York Dry Goods and Millinery Store of L. Mayer, Johnstown, Pa. His stock of goods is the largest in Johnstown, the most fashionable, the cheapest.

NOW.—Now that winter is upon us, all who are insufficiently clothed will feel the want of warm and suitable raiment. It is but doing our readers a simple act of kindness by informing them that the stock of A. A. Barker & Son is the largest and by far the cheapest in town.

FOR THE HOLIDAYS.—If you purpose making a present to your wife, daughter, son or sweet-heart, we advise you to go to C. T. Roberts' to make the selection. We would not attempt to mention the numerous articles he has on exhibition and for sale, but advise one and all to go and see for themselves.

FANCY DRY GOODS STORE.—The extensive array of beautiful goods on the shelves at R. R. Davis' store surpasses anything we have ever seen. And not this alone, but the cheapness of his goods is the main object, in which all are interested.

STOVES.—Probably the largest variety of stoves in Western Pa. has just been received at Thos. W. Williams'. They are of the best manufacture in the country, and not only this, they are the cheapest manufactured.

PRICES GOING DOWN! AT THE EBENSBURG HARDWARE & HOUSE FURNISHING STORE.

I once more return my sincere thanks to my old friends and customers for their liberal patronage extended towards me, and now, owing to the great fall in prices, by which many articles can be sold as cheap as before the war, and having a thorough knowledge of the business and the wants of the public, I take pleasure in announcing that I can and will sell goods at a less figure than any similar establishment in city or country.

My stock will consist in part as follows: DOOR AND CUPBOARD LOCKS, CATCHES, BOLTS, HINGES, SCREWS, WINDOW SPRINGS, SHUTTER HINGES, WINDOW GLASS, NAILS, PUTTY, BORING MACHINES, AUGERS, CHISELS, BRACES AND BITS, HATCHETS, SQUARES, COMPASSES, TRY SQUARES, BEVELS, POCKET RULES, JACK, SMOOTHING, AND FOR PLANES, PANEL PLOWS, LEVELS, SASH, RAISING, AND MATCH PLANES, SAW SETS, BENCH SCREWS, CROSS-CUT, PANEL, RIP, COMPASS, AND BACK SAWS, GAUGES, OIL STONES, SCREW DRIVERS, PLOWS, POINTS, SHOVELS, FORKS, SCYTHES AND SNATHES, RAKES, HOES, SPADES, SHEEP SHEARS, HORSEBRUSHES, CARDS, CURRY COMBS, BELLS, HAMES, WHIPS, BUT, TRACE, BREAST, HALTER, FITH, TONGUE, AND LOG CHAINS, RIFLES, SHOT GUNS, REVOLVERS, AND PISTOLS, CARTRIDGES, POWDER, SHOT, CAPS, LEAD, POUCHES, POWDER FLASKS, GAME BAGS, GUN LOCKS, MAIN SPRINGS, PIVOTS, &c.

Odd Stove Plates, Grates, and Fire Brick always on hand to suit Stoves sold by me. Well and Cast-iron Pumps and Tubing at manufacturers' prices.

Spotting made, painted, and put up, at low rates. Persons owing me debts of long standing will confer a favor by calling and paying up as soon as convenient, as it takes a great deal of money to keep up my stock and pay expenses, and owing to the small profits that I am making on goods I cannot afford to give long credit—the interest would soon eat up the profits.
