MEMORANDA.—The coal-miners' strike at Lilly's has ended, and the miners have returned to work. William Albert, a soldier of the war of 1812, was frozen to death in Greenfield township, Blair county, recently. A hog was buried in a stack of straw near Waterside, Bedford county, for seventy days. It was resurrected the other day, alive, but was so thin that it could hardly cast a shadow. A Huntingdon county man, married and the father of several children, eloped recently with a buxom widow residing in the same county. The parties were followed and arrested. Our branch railroad was snowed up two days last week. It was opened out on Saturday, and trains have since been running per schedule. Our election for borough officers will be held on Friday of next week. John W. Humes has been appointed Coroner of Blair county, in place of T. J. Williams, resigned. Isaac Morrison, who killed John Higgins, in July last, at Osceola, has been convicted of manslaughter by the Clearfield county Court, and sentenced to imprisonment for seven years and six months in the Western Penitentiary. The Penna. Railroad Co. offer a reward of $1,000 for the apprehension of the incendiary who set fire to the repair shops at Altoona on the 21st ult. The city council of Altoona offer an additional reward of $500. Clearfield has a railroad and a telegraph. A young man named Martin V. B. Flegal, of Goshen township, Clearfield county, was killed by the accidental discharge of a gun a few days ago. The dead body of an unknown girl was found in a snow-bank near Tarentum on Saturday. At first it was supposed she had frozen to death, but afterwards the conviction was forced that she had been foully murdered. A daughter of Dr. D. A. Arter, of Greensburg, had an eye destroyed, a few days ago, by a stick of wood which she was splitting flying up and striking her on the eye-ball. The 22d of this month will be Washington's birthday and a legal holiday. A coal oil lamp exploded in Lewistown on Friday night, severely burning a Mrs. Brown and her babe, and doing some damage to bed clothing, carpets, &c. The winter session of our public schools closes on Friday week.

DIED.—At his residence, in Carroll township, on Tuesday, January 26, 1869, of palsy, Emericus Bender, aged 84 years 2 months and 13 days.
The deceased was one of the first settlers in Northern Cambria, he having resided at the place where he died, since 1807. He was a well-to-do farmer and was beloved and respected by a very large circle of relatives, friends and neighbors. In this connection we reproduce a short biography of his life, written by himself and published in this paper on the 23d January, 1868, which gives perhaps a better account of his eventful life than anything we could now write:

"I came to this country with my parents, from Germany, in the year 1798. We took passage at Hamburg, and arrived in Philadelphia in November. I was bound out to Col. Caleb Davis, No. 4 South Third Street, who sent me to school. The following year, 1799, just before Christmas, the school master said there would be no school next day, for General George Washington would be buried that day. I was at George Washington's funeral—and I suppose there is no other man in this country who can say as much. I was bound out when I was 14 years old, to serve six years. After my term of service had expired, I came to Loretto, Cambria co., on the 14th day of April, 1805. My father had gone there three years before. In 1807, Rev. Demetrius A. Gallitzin got authority from Henry Drinker and Jacob Downing, who owned eight tracts of land near Carrolltown, for three settlers to make choice of one hundred acres each of that land, at one dollar per acre. Thomas Byrne got the first choice; I got the second; and Conrad Luther got the third. My two neighbors have been dead from forty to fifty years, so I am the only living one who settled here when the country was a wilderness. I am 63 years old. I was a jurymen at the first Court in this county. I have been County Auditor, and in 1827 was elected County Commissioner. In 1828, I was elected, David Todd, and myself, Commissioners, contracted with Conrad Downing to build the present Court House."

THE REMOVAL OF THE COUNTY SEAT.—Our Johnstown correspondent "Pythias" last week informed the readers of The Alleghenian that an effort was being made by divers and sundry property holders and other interested individuals in that place to have the county-seat of Cambria county removed from Ebensburg to Johnstown. Seeing that Ebensburg is nearly the geographical center of the county, and not forgetting that Johnstown is located on the extreme southwestern boundary of the same, the bare mention of the proposition seems to us sufficient to excite a horse-laugh. But we are assured that the aforementioned sundry property holders and other interested individuals are really so much in earnest that they mean to press the question before the present Legislature. A bill praying for the proposed change will be introduced into that body during the present week.

MORE HOUSES WANTED.—The demand for tenement houses the coming spring by those who desire to make their homes in Ebensburg seems to be much larger than during previous years. In view of this fact, and in order that our town may continue to improve as heretofore, we suggest that our capitalists consider the propriety of forming a "building association" to erect the number of tenement houses actually required by the wants of the people. Such a step would not only increase the population and improve the value of our town, but would also prove a profitable investment to the capitalists engaged.

JOHNSTOWN.—Parke's new and elegant opera house was formally dedicated last week by Messrs. Henderson & Cauping's theatrical troupe, from Pittsburgh. They played every night during the week. The Forrest Dramatic Association held forth in Union Hall to crowded houses three nights lately. Mrs. Louise E. Vickroy Boyd, formerly of Johnstown, has just issued a volume of poems, entitled "Twilight Stories for Little People."

PUBLIC HALL.—We are assured that Ebensburg will soon have a public hall. The old Congregational church edifice, located in the East Ward, was sold at public sale by the Trustees last Friday to Mr. Isaac Evans for $1,000. The purchaser designs erecting an addition of forty feet to the building during the coming summer, and will remodel and refit it throughout, after which it will be thrown open to the public as a hall for lectures, concerts, and the like.

COURT.—Argument Court met here on Monday, and continued in session two days. The business transacted was unimportant to the general public.
An adjourned Court will be held, commencing on Monday next. The following causes are down for trial:
Hoffman vs. Colclasser et al.
Garman vs. Jamers et al.

"SECRETS OF THE GREAT CITY."—Attention is directed to the advertisement of the above work, published by Jones Bros. & Co., 26 South Seventh street, Philadelphia. The book will be found especially valuable to those who would learn, and thereby be enabled to shun, the pitfalls and horrid mysteries of New York. Price $2.50 per copy.

THE Bedford Inquirer says, a Miss Barbara Hartsock fell in a trance at a religious revival in Rainsburg while shouting, and remained unconscious for 157 hours, nearly a week, during which time she took no nourishment whatever. On reviving she began shouting again, but soon became quiet and collected, as usual.

MAN KILLED.—A sportsman while out hunting in the woods near Kyertown, Centre county, was attacked by a panther which he had shot at and missed, and was literally torn to pieces. His body was found two or three days after in a terribly mutilated condition, his legs being actually torn from his body.

JOB WORK.—Those desiring sale bills, circulars, bill heads, letter heads, blanks, business cards, or in fact anything in the line of printing, will find our facilities equal to the best and our prices cheap as the cheapest. Give us a call.

LECTURE.—A temperance lecture, under the auspices of the Ebensburg Temple of Honor, will be delivered in the Presbyterian church next Monday evening. The name of the lecturer has not yet been announced.

THE people of Ligonier Valley, Westmoreland county, have taken the initiatory steps towards building a railroad from Ligonier to Lestrobe.

NEXT Sunday will be Valentine day. Then the lover, sighing like a furnace, will indite a woeful ballad to his mistress' eyebrows.

LENT commenced yesterday.

LETTER FROM LORETO—A WEDDING SPOILED BY THE NON-APPEARANCE OF THE BRIDE-GROOM—"HE WASN'T MUCH ANY HOW"—DEATH—SOME PRACTICAL SUGGESTIONS RESPECTING THE POOR HOUSE, &c., &c.
LORETO, Feb. 8, 1869.

To the Editors of The Alleghenian:
Again we have been enjoying elegant sleighing, and the young folks took advantage of it. To-day is quite soft and the streets are sloppy; but the weather-wise tell us that we are going to have another snow-storm very soon.

A very amusing circumstance (though perhaps one that was not very amusing to some of the parties concerned,) occurred in this neighborhood on Tuesday last. There was to have been a wedding. "Publishing," and all the necessary preliminaries, had been complied with and arranged, and the bride expectant had dowered her bridal robes, which were the gayest that fashion and fancy could invent, and sat waiting in "maiden meditation," thinking only of the festivities of the occasion, and the happy future before her. But the appointed hour arrived, and the groom came not. Still she waited, and still he did not come. Suspicion arose in the minds of some, but were not countenanced by her. After many hours of suspense and doubtful waiting, it was finally ascertained that the "head and front" of the party had fled. Then there was much "wailing and gnashing of teeth," but the would-be bride finally came to the conclusion that he was "not much," any how, and she wouldn't have him! He had not been heard from since.

I am sorry to inform you of the death of Mrs. Margaret McKenna, of this place. She died on Friday evening last, after a very brief illness. She was about 63 years of age, and was very much esteemed by all who knew her. Her remains were taken to Youngstown, Westmoreland county, for interment, to-day.

Your correspondent was much amused upon looking over the Auditors' Report for Cambria county, particularly that part which relates to the county Poor House. It seems a little unreasonable to us to believe that it requires about $22 00 to keep a pauper there a month. But we suppose it is all right—of course public matters are always conducted with economy. But don't say anything more about "padding and folding" at Harrisburg. Some of the tax payers here suggest that the poor be taken to some respectable hotel, and the Poor House be converted into a summer resort for guests from the cities. Would it not be a very economical idea?

Truly Yours, ACORN.
A STORY WITH A MORAL.—When trade grew slack, and notes fell due, the merchant's face grew long and blue; his dreams were troubled through the night with sheriff's bailiffs all in sight. At last his wife unto him said, "Rise up at once, get out of bed, and get your paper, ink and pen, and say these words unto all men: 'My goods I wish to sell to you, and to your wife and daughters too, my prices are so very low, that each will buy before they go.' " He did as his good wife advised, and straightway went and advertised. Crowds came and bought off all he had, his notes were paid, his dreams were glad, and he will tell you to this day how well did printer's ink repay. L. Meyer, in Johnstown, who is doing the most extensive business in that place in the dry goods line, attributes his success in a great measure to liberal advertising.

A WORD.—Reader, do you want to save money in buying all manner of hardware, tinware, and the like? Of course you do, and nowhere in western Penna. can be found such an endless variety, and such extremely low prices, as at the mammoth store of Geo. Huntley. Mr. H. is a clever and an accommodating gentleman, and can be relied on as doing business on the "square" with all who give him a call.

BARGAINS.—A rare chance to secure bargains in dry goods, clothing, boots and shoes, hats and caps, is now offered at V. S. Barker's cheap cash store. In order to make room for spring goods, he is now offering his entire stock at greatly reduced prices for cash. Drop in and secure a bargain.

THE place to buy your flour is at M. L. Outman's cheap grocery. It is the best in the market. Those who have tried it use no other. Drop in and examine it. It is sold at unusually low figures. Everybody says it is the best, and what everybody says must be true.

JEWELRY of every description, and of No. 1 quality, is being disposed of at very low prices by C. T. Roberts. Always buy from a practical watchmaker, and you will receive articles which will give satisfaction. All kinds of fancy goods kept and for sale cheap. Give him a call.

LEOPOLD & BRO., at the Oak Hall Clothing Store, Johnstown, are now offering their large and superior stock of overcoats at 20 per cent. cheaper than the same can be bought elsewhere in Johnstown. Remember, you may lose a bargain by not visiting this establishment first.

THE elegant display of beautiful dress goods at R. B. Davis' is unequaled by any like establishment in town. And not this alone makes it an object to buy from him, but the cheapness attending his sales is well worthy the consideration of those who are in pursuit of bargains. Patronize him.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.
YOUNG MAN, as spring is already approaching, it behooves you, in view of the wet season, to prepare for it by purchasing a good serviceable pair of boots. Don't hesitate, but go at once to A. A. Barker & Son's store and make a purchase.

JUST RECEIVED.—Another large installment of hardware at the store of T. W. Williams. An immense stock of hardware for building purposes at easy prices constantly on hand. Everything in his line will be disposed of at great bargains. Go see.

TAKE NOTICE.—All persons indebted to the firm of E. & H. NUTTER, by either note or book account, are requested to call on the firm and settle their respective accounts on or before the first of April next, as after that time the firm will be unable and costs by complying, as all old bills will and must be collected after that date by due process of law.

L. LANGSTROTH'S PATENT MOVABLE COMB BEE HIVE! Pronounced the best ever introduced in this country or State. Any person buying a family right can have their bees transferred from an old box to a new one. In every instance in which this has been done the result has been entirely satisfactory, and the first take of honey has invariably paid all expenses, and frequently exceeded them. Proof of the superior merits of this invention will be found in the testimony of every man who has given it a trial, and among the number are the gentlemen named below, and their experience should induce every one interested in bees to do so.

BUY A FAMILY RIGHT!
Henry C. Kirkpatrick, of Carroll township, took 100 pounds of surplus honey from two hives, which he sold at 35 cents per pound.
Adam Dietrich, of Carroll township, took from two hives 100 pounds of surplus honey.
James Kirkpatrick, of Chest township, took 80 pounds of surplus honey from one hive.
Jacob Kirkpatrick, of Chest township, obtained 72 pounds of surplus honey from one hive, worth not less than $21, and the right cost him only $5.
Peter Campbell from one hive obtained 36 pounds of surplus honey at one time.
Quite a number of similar statements, authenticated by some of the best citizens of Cambria county, could be obtained in proof of the superior merits of Langstroth's Patent Movable Comb Bee Hive.
Persons wishing to purchase family rights should call on or address

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS
AND HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.
The Great Remedies for all Diseases of the Liver, Stomach or Digestive Organs.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS is composed of the purest juices (or, as they are medically termed, Extracts) of Roots, Herbs, and Barks, making a preparation, highly concentrated, and entirely free from alcoholic admixture of any kind.
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with the purest quality of Santa Cruz Run, Orange, &c., making one of the most pleasant, agreeable remedies ever offered to the public.

Those preferring a Medicine free from Alcoholic admixture, will use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS. Those who have no objection to the combination of the Bitters, as stated, will use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC. They are both equally good, and contain the same medicinal virtues, the choice between the two being a mere matter of taste, the Tonic being the most palatable.

The stomach, from a variety of causes, such as indigestion, dyspepsia, nervous debility, etc., is very apt to have its functions deranged. The Liver, sympathizing as closely as it does with the Stomach, then becomes affected, the result of which is that the patient suffers from several or more of the following diseases:
Constipation, Flatulency, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Achillty of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disregard for Food, Fullness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or fluttering at the pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Harried or Difficult Breathing, Flustering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when lying down, Night sweats, vision, Dots or webs before the sight, pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginations of Evil, and great depression of Spirits.

The sufferer from these diseases should exercise the greatest caution in the selection of a remedy for his case, purchasing only that which he is assured from his investigations and inquiries, possesses true merit, skillfully compounded, is free from injurious ingredients, and established for itself a reputation for the cure of these diseases. In this connection we would submit those well-known remedies—Hoofland's German Bitters, and Hoofland's German Tonic, prepared by DR. C. M. JACKSON, PHILADELPHIA, PA. Thirty-five years since they were first introduced into this country from Germany, during which time they have undoubtedly performed more cures, and benefited suffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies known to the public.

These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Chronic Diarrhea, Disease of the Kidneys, and all diseases arising from a disordered Liver, Stomach or Intestines.
DEBILITY RESULTING FROM ANY CAUSE whatever; Prostration of the System, induced by Severe Labor, Hardships, Exposure, Fever, &c.

There is no medicine extant equal to these remedies in such cases. A tone and vigor is imparted to the whole system, the appetite is strengthened, food is enjoyed, the stomach digests properly, the blood is purified, the complexion becomes sound and healthy, the yellow tinge is eradicated from the eyes, a bloom is given to the cheeks, and the weak and nervous invalid becomes a strong and healthy being.

PERSONS ADVANCED IN LIFE, And feeling the hand of time weighing heavily upon them, with all its attendant ills, will find in the use of this Bitters, or the Tonic, an elixir that will instill new life into their veins, restore in a measure the energy and ardor of more youthful days, buoy up their shrunken forms, and give health and happiness to their remaining years.

NOTICE! It is a well established fact that fully one-half of the female portion of our population are seldom in the enjoyment of good health, or, to use their own expression, "never feel well." They are languid, devoid of all energy, extremely nervous, and have no appetite.

To this class of persons the Bitters, or the Tonic, is especially recommended. WEAK AND DELICATE CHILDREN Are made strong by the use of either of these remedies. They will cure every case of MARASMOUS, without fail.

Thousands of certificates have accumulated in the hands of the proprietor, but space will allow of the publication of but a few. These, it will be observed, are from men of note, and of such standing that they must be believed.

TESTIMONIALS: Hon. Geo. W. Woodward, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pa., writes:—Philadelphia, March 16, 1867.—"I find Hoofland's German Bitters is a good tonic, useful in disorders of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility, and want of nervous action in the system."
"Yours, truly, Geo. W. Woodward."

Hon. James Thompson, Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania. PHILADELPHIA, April 28, 1866.

"I consider 'Hoofland's German Bitters' a valuable medicine in case of attacks of indigestion or dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it."
"Yours, &c."
"JAMES THOMPSON."

From Rev. Joseph Kennard, D. D., Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia. Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my own family of the use of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that, for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes.
Yours, very respectfully,
"J. H. KENNARD."

CAUTION. Hoofland's German Remedies are counterfeited. See that the signature of C. M. JACKSON is on the wrapper of each bottle. All others are counterfeit. Principal Office, and Manufactory at the German Medicine Store, No. 63, ARCH-ST., Philadelphia, Pa.

CHARLES M. EVANS, Proprietor. Formerly C. M. JACKSON & Co. PRICES: Hoofland's German Bitters, per bottle, $1 00 " " half dozen, 5 00 Hoofland's German Tonic, put up in quart bottles, $1 50 per bottle, or a half dozen for $7 50.

Do not forget to examine well the article you buy, in order to get the genuine. For sale by all Druggists and Storekeepers, everywhere.

From Rev. Joseph Kennard, D. D., Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia. Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my own family of the use of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that, for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes.
Yours, very respectfully,
"J. H. KENNARD."
