RESOLUTIONS OF CONDOLENCE.

At a meeting of Evening Star Social Temple, the following resolutions of condolence were adopted:

Resolved, that while it is our desire to bow submissively and say to that kind Father, "Thy will be done," we can but express our regret that an ardent friend of our order has ceased to labor with us here; that the church of her choice has lost a gem, and society an ornament; but most of all, a fond mother a Christian daughter.

Resolved, that our warmest sympathies are extended to the bereaved mother and family of deceased, believing that their loss is her eternal gain.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE. LETTER FROM WILMORE.—THE BOROUGH ELECTION.—A FIERCE ENGAGEMENT.—STRATEGY, SLAUGHTER, SCIENTIFIC PRINCIPLES, AND SMASHED EGGS.—REPORTED CASUALTIES.—A HITCH.—WHAT'S THE MIDDLE?—"LARRY'S" VIEWS ON THE SUBJECT, &c.

There has been great excitement here lately, occasioned by the suspension of the habeas corpus and the declaration of martial law in our borough for a short space of time—all caused by the intense excitement engendered by our spring election.

Johnstown.—At the borough election held on Friday last, Wm. H. Rose, Esq., independent candidate, was elected Burgess of Johnstown by a majority of 78 votes over Col. R. Ryckman, the Republican candidate.

with his colors flying. Such has been the fate of many a hero before. He was followed to his last resting-place by a large concourse of admiring friends. Peace to his ashes. The victorious candidate is doing as well as could be expected under the circumstances.

The result of the contest may be summed up as follows: Justice of Peace.....E. D. Evans. Judge of Election.....E. Crum. Inspector.....D. Farber. Constable.....T. W. Allison. Burgess.....T. W. Allison. Council.....Republican, one tie.

I am advised that there is some hitch somewhere with regard to our new Justice. Where it is exactly, has not been made clear. Larry says "by the heavens, there is no vacancy!" If Larry's assertion is true, I beg leave to correct my previous letter on this subject.

In connection with the subject of our election, I beg leave to say that it was conducted on regular scientific principles. After the organization of the board, a regular professor appeared and mesmerized them in a body. They were held in this sweet embrace until the close, which rendered them entirely oblivious to all around them.

Larry says martial law should be continued a while yet, but I think a majority are against it. I am happy to say the county seat is here. It stopped while on its way to Johnstown, last week.

LETTER FROM LORETO.—THE BOROUGH ELECTION.—LIBRARY SOCIETY.—FIRE, &c. LORETO, Feb. 21, 1869. To the Editors of The Alleghenian:

AN excellent brand of flour at Oatman's. NONE but the best flour at Oatman's.

Persons owing me debts of long standing will confer a favor by calling and paying up as soon as convenient, as it takes a great deal of money to keep my stock and pay expenses, and owing to the small profits that I am making on goods I cannot afford to give long credit—the interest would soon eat up the profits.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS AND HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC. The Great Remedies for all Diseases of the Liver, Stomach or Digestive Organs.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS. Is composed of the pure juices (or, as they are medicinally termed, Extracts) of Roots, Herbs, and Bark, making a preparation of highly concentrated, and entirely free from alcoholic admixture of any kind.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC. Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with the purest quality of Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, &c., making one of the most pleasant, agreeable remedies ever offered to the public.

Those preferring a Medicine free from Alcoholic admixture, will use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS. Those who have no objection to the combination of the Bitters, as stated, will use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

They are both equally good, and contain the same medicinal virtues, the choice between the two being a mere matter of taste, the Tonic being the more palatable.

The stomach, from a variety of causes, such as indigestion, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, etc., is very apt to have its functions deranged. The Liver, sympathizing as closely as it does with the Stomach, then becomes affected, the result of which is that the patient suffers from several or more of the following diseases:

Constipation, Flatulency, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fullness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or fluttering at the pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Harried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering Sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of vision, Dots or webs before the sight, dull pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and great depression of Spirits.

The sufferer from these diseases should exercise the greatest caution in the selection of a remedy for his case, purchasing only that which he is assured from his investigations and inquiries, possesses true merit, skillfully compounded, is free from injurious ingredients, and established for itself a reputation for the cure of these diseases. In this connection we would submit those well-known remedies—Hoofland's German Bitters, and Hoofland's German Tonic, prepared by DR. C. M. JACKSON, PHILADELPHIA, PA.

Thirty-five years since they were first introduced into this country from Germany, during which time they have undoubtedly performed more cures, and benefitted suffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies known to the public.

These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Chronic Diarrhoea, Disease of the Kidneys, and all diseases arising from a disordered Liver, Stomach or Intestines.

DEBILITY RESULTING FROM ANY CAUSE whatever; Prostration of the System, induced by Severe Labor, Hardships, Exposure, Fever, &c.

There is no medicine extant equal to these remedies in such cases. A lone and vigor is imparted to the whole system, the appetite is strengthened, food is enjoyed, the stomach digests properly, the blood is purified, the complexion improves, and the eyes, a bloom is given to the cheeks, and the weak and nervous invalid becomes a strong and healthy being.

PERSONS ADVANCED IN LIFE. And feeling the hand of time weighing heavily upon them, with all its attendant ills, will find in the use of this Bitters, or the Tonic, an elixir that will instil new life into their veins, restore in a measure the energy and ardor of more youthful days, build up their shrunken forms, and give health and happiness to their remaining years.

NOTICE. It is a well established fact that fully one-half of the female portion of our population are seldom in the enjoyment of good health, or, to use their own expression, "never feel well." They are languid, devoid of all energy, extremely nervous, and have no appetite.

To this class of persons the Bitters, or the Tonic, is especially recommended. WEAK AND DELICATE CHILDREN. Are made strong by the use of either of these remedies. They will cure every case of MARASMS, without fail.

Thousands of certificates have accumulated in the hands of the proprietor, but space will allow of the publication of but a few. These, it will be observed, are from men of note, and of such standing that they must be believed.
