

The Farmers' Department.

KILLING TIMBER.—There is nothing connected with farming, in a new and wooded country, which makes so munificent a return for money expended, as decaying timber on land several years in advance of clearing it.

THE SAW.—The saw is an instrument of very ancient origin. We find it mentioned in the book of Isaiah at the period cotemporaneous with the building of Rome.

WATERING HORSES.—Horses should never be kept so long without water that they will drink largely when they get it.

Is the Western Penitentiary, during last year, the social relation of the prisoners were, single, two hundred and fifty; married, one hundred and sixty; widowers, twenty-seven.

ABRAHAM BLAINE, Barber.—Shaving, Shampooing, and Hair-dressing done in the most artistic style.
