LETTERS FROM OUR FRIENDS. EBENSBURG, March 15, 1869.

To the Editors of The Alleghanian: Andrew Johnson has retired to private life. I have no disposition to review his Presidential career. It is sufficient to say that he has disappointed every reasonable expectation of his political supporters. He was brought into prominence, and made vice-President, because he exhibited such energy in battling the rebels in his own, a southern State. He was credited with sincerity in his course, and it was supposed he was fighting for the Union on principle, but his subsequent course shows that he dealt the rebellion blows, "not because he loved Caesar less, but Rome more." The aristocrats of the South who inaugurated the reign of blood had no plebeian affinities with A. Johnson, the tailor, hence he opposed them. As soon as they were defeated, however, he returns, like a dog to his vomit, to his first love, and the companionship of old ideas. He never had any affinities with the representative men of the Union. Moreover, like self-willed men of limited culture, he was dogged and obstinate, and refused to be advised.

His induction into office was not of a very flattering or promising character, still, the utmost stretch of charity was exercised by those who had elected him to power. The honest and patriotic but tender-hearted Lincoln had been removed by the hand of violence, and only, as it was thought, for the author of such sentiments as "traitors should take a back seat" to vindicate his views. Why he failed to carry out these utterances, can only be explained on one of two hypotheses. He was hypocritical and did not mean what he said, or he was cowardly and feared that the desperadoes infesting the South would resort to their familiar code of violence. The first suspicions entertained of him, after assuming the Presidential chair, were in his associations. A class of conservatives with rebel affinities became his confidants and counsellors, while the friends and most intimate advisers of the lamented Lincoln were given the cold shoulder. It was as clear an evidence of defection as for a temperance man to forsake the temperance meeting and become a hanger-on at the bar-room. It is useless to charge that ultra radicals, by the obnoxiousness of their views, forced Andrew Johnson beyond the pale of the party that elevated him to power. He was treated with deference and honored to the last degree, before he was denounced, but all in vain. High-minded men had too much self-respect to be hypocritical, and he was left to his own course; and what a pitiable spectacle of rain-glory and ruined hopes does he present as he takes his departure from power! "But yesterday, his name might have stood against the world, now lies he there, with none so low to do him reverence."

A. A. BARKER.

EBENSBURG, March 15, 1869.

To the Editors of The Alleghanian: As the time approaches when the Republican party must place in nomination a candidate for the Governorship of Pennsylvania, and the modus operandi appears to be the selection of the candidate by the people, and not at the dictation of the candidates to the people, it is highly important we should make a judicious selection from the good material we have throughout the State. Permit me to name some of them. Our present worthy Chief Magistrate, Gov. John W. Geary, Hon. W. W. Ketchum, of Luzerne, Hon. Peter Shanley, of Alleghany, Col. John W. Forney and Col. Peter Sides, of Philadelphia—these are all high-toned, elegant gentlemen, tried and true, having filled high official positions, both civil and military, with honor and fidelity. They have records that will stand the most severe criticism. With a selection from such material, we need not fear the result of the campaign.

APALACHIAN.

EBENSBURG, March 15, 1869.

To the Editors of The Alleghanian: Among the pleasing incidents connected with the fair which closed last Saturday night was the presentation of a token to "the most popular landlord in Ebensburg." Now, Ebensburg is proverbial for the hospitality, kindness, and considerate attention of all its landlords. It has borne that reputation for years, and all the active agencies that minister to the comfort of the inner man are to be found in this "village."

Now, to the point. Isaac Crawford, Esq., the worthy proprietor and caterer to the tastes of the hungry and dry at the "Logan House" was made the recipient by public acclaim of a dissecting instrument used at hotel tables at times when bovine favors are prepared for distribution to hungry people.

The favor was accepted by Mr. Crawford, who returned his thanks in a manner peculiar to himself, viz, cleverly and kindly. He promised that he would remember his friends for the kindness done him on the occasion, and that they would hear from him after the "fish" season was over.

Mr. Crawford's observations and hints were duly appreciated by his townpeople, who have known and respected him so long. It was among the most pleasing and amusing features of the fair just closed.

MEMORANDA.—The blue bird and the robin paid us a visit on Sunday, but a snow-storm the same night caused them to go back whence they came. Blairsville had a mad dog last week. It was killed. On Saturday afternoon week, a man named John Dorsch, of Cherryhill township, Indiana county, was killed in a sudden and unexpected manner. He had visited Indiana, and was on his way home, riding in a wagon, when the wagon jolted and threw him off, the wheels crushing him in such a manner as to cause his almost instant death. The first skid of the season were in our market last week. A young man named Wagoner was drowned in Sewickly township, Westmoreland county, on Monday week. The fair in aid of the Ebensburg Catholic church closed on Saturday evening, after a run of two weeks. We understand that about $2,000 were realized. A fire in Pansutawney last week destroyed the store-room of Mr. Rosenberger, and its contents. Pittsburg has the meanest man. He has brought suit against his brother's estate for time alleged to have been lost in attending said brother's funeral. See advertisement of dissolution of partnership between Messrs. G. F. & T. S. Robinson. Johnston has a literary association. On Thursday of last week, an old lady, named Mathias, living with her daughter and a small grandchild on the outskirts of Somerset, during the temporary absence of her daughter accidentally set fire to her clothing, and was literally roasted before assistance could arrive. She died on the following night. Gilbert Hogle, of Mifflin county, had his arm broken the other day by being thrown by a mule. Through tickets to all points west are now sold at Cresson station. The Republicans of Huntingdon county talk of adopting the Crawford county system of making nominations. Somebody in Blair county has discovered that iron furnaces emit, with the waste about the stacks, a considerable quantity of zinc, which is worth $15 or $20 per ton.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.—We subjoin the conclusion of the proceedings in the Common Pleas of Cambria county: Gillingham vs. Snyder—feigned issue. Jury find for plaintiff. Margaret Snyder vs. Weakland and Thomas—feigned issue. For plaintiff. John Snyder vs. Weakland and Thomas—feigned issue. For plaintiff. Frederick Snyder vs. Weakland and Thomas—feigned issue. For plaintiff. Leighty vs. Stimer—feigned issue. For plaintiff. Williams vs. Stimer—feigned issue. For plaintiff. Devlin and O'Neill vs. Will, Flick, and others—feigned issue. Plaintiffs discontinued action. Sarah Rowley and George Rowley vs. Dominic McHugh and others—ejectment. Continued at cost of defendants. McCormick vs. Sanker and Wise—ejectment. Plaintiff nonsuited. Pomeroy vs. Nagle, and Pomeroy vs. Scanlan—settled. Court adjourned Thursday evening last.

COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT.—The election of a Superintendent of Common Schools for Cambria county will be held on the first Tuesday of May next. Mr. Thomas J. Chapman, the present incumbent of the office, will be a candidate for re-election. He has given the fullest satisfaction in the discharge of his official duties, and will, we have no doubt, be re-elected.

THE M. B. B. FAIR.—The Mountaineer Base Ball Fair commenced Monday evening, and is progressing finely. Large numbers attend it nightly. Many valuable articles have already been given away, and many more remain to be disposed of. The fair will continue throughout the week. We advise those of our local readers who desire to pass a pleasant evening to attend it. Admission free.

AN exchange very sensibly remarks that every public sale in the county should be advertised in the county papers as well as by hand-bills. A hand-bill is only seen by a few, while the newspaper reaches the many—goes into the houses and is read by the family. The larger the crowd is at the sale, the more competition there is in bidding. By saving a few dollars in not advertising, very often hundreds are lost.

$100 REWARD.—One hundred dollars will be paid to any individual for the arrest of any person or persons who will not acknowledge that they can buy cheaper at M. L. Oatman's cheap cash store than any other store in Ebensburg. A large stock of fresh groceries just received and for sale very low. Where everybody buys must be the best place to buy.

M. B. B. CLUB.—The Mountaineer Base Ball Club met and reorganized on Friday evening last, and elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, Peter L. Linton. Vice President, F. P. Tierney. Secretary, F. H. Barker. Treasurer, V. S. Barker.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.—On Saturday last, a man residing near Loretto, whose name we could not learn, attempted to commit suicide by cutting his throat with a razor. He cut an ugly gash in his throat, and injured himself so seriously that it is supposed he must die.

NEW COURT.—It is said that a bill will be introduced into the State Legislature shortly, providing for the establishment of a court of limited jurisdiction at Johnstown.

TEMPERANCE LECTURE.—Mr. J. H. Moore, of Philadelphia, will deliver a lecture on temperance to-night (Wednesday) in the Presbyterian church.

LATEST ARRIVAL.—L. Mayer, of the New York Dry Goods Store, who is always in advance of his competitors, has received his new spring goods, embracing the finest selection of dress goods ever brought to Johnstown. His rooms are immensely crowded from early morn till late at night with seekers after bargains, and truly bargains are to be had. It is the headquarters for dry goods and millinery in Johnstown.

THE cheapest clothing store—the finest goods—the best selection—the greatest variety—the best fits—the cleverest gentlemen to deal with are the Leopold Bros., in Johnstown. They have received their spring goods which embrace all the latest patterns in the market. They are doing the largest clothing business in Johnstown, and not only this, but they sell a little better goods for less money than any of their competitors.

SOMETHING NEW.—Fast gaining public favor—a new and superior quality of tea and coffee. V. S. Barker, sole agent for this place, takes special delight in announcing to the public that he has now in store the best and by far the cheapest lot of tea and coffee ever offered to the public. Give it a trial and you will use no other.

TO YOUR INTEREST.—When in search of any article of hardware—we care not what-of the latest and most improved design, go to Huntley's, where a full and complete stock may be found. Those who intend building should give him a call before going elsewhere. Bargains to be had.

GREAT BARGAINS.—Messrs. A. A. Barker & Son are offering great inducements to purchasers of goods, as they are selling their present stock in order to make room for new goods. Now is the time while the opportunity is given to buy goods cheap. Go and see. Two doors below the Bank.

TINWARE.—T. W. Williams has in his employ a first-class mechanic and manufacturer of all tinware, which he claims to be superior to city manufacture. Every article manufactured from the heaviest tin, thus enabling him to guarantee to the purchaser a good substantial article. Give him a trial.

CARPETS! CARPETS! &c.—Great bargains in carpets, oil-cloths, &c. R. R. Davis desires to call the attention of the public to his magnificent assortment of carpets, &c., which he is now offering at figures that will suit the most fastidious. In a word they will be sold at cost for cash.

THE fair for the benefit of the base ball club increases in interest and attraction, and is receiving a generous support from our citizens. Everything is beautifully arranged, and is also the display of goods at O. T. Roberts' fancy jewelry establishment. "You pay your money and takes your prize."

TO THE WORKING CLASS!—I am now prepared to furnish all classes with constant employment at their homes, the whole of the time, or for the spare moments. Business new, light and profitable. Fifty cents to $5 per evening, is easily earned by persons of either sex, and the boys and girls earn nearly as much as men. Great inducements are offered those who will devote their time to the business; and that every person who sees this notice, may send me their address and test the business for themselves. I make the following unparalleled offer: To all who are not well satisfied with the business, I will send $1.00 to pay for the trouble of writing me. Full particulars, directions, &c., sent free. Sample sent by mail for 10 cents. Address E. C. Allen Augusta, Maine. [March 11-3m.]

WORTH KNOWING.—That when in want of a perfect likeness of yourself, you should go to Spence's. He is acknowledged to be the best workman in the county, and only asks a trial to satisfy any and all of this fact. His prices are exceedingly low.

FOR flour, bacon, cheese, crackers, sugars, tea, coffee, molasses, vinegar, salt, fish, tobacco, cigars, rice, prunes, and everything in the grocery line, go to M. L. Oatman's cheap cash store, Ebensburg, Pa.

ORDINANCE FOR THE REGULATION OF CHESTSPRINGS BOROUGH, FOR THE YEAR A. D. 1869. Sec. 1.—Be it enacted and ordained by the Burgess and Town Council of the borough of Chest Springs, and it is hereby enacted and ordained by the authority of the same, That if any person or persons, after the publication of this ordinance, shall drive or ride any horse, mare or gelding through any of the streets of this borough at a faster gait than a trot or slow canter, he, she or they so offending shall forfeit and pay the sum of One Dollar for each and every offense.

PRICES GOING DOWN! AT THE EBENSBURG HARDWARE & HOUSE FURNISHING STORE.

I once more return my sincere thanks to my old friends and customers for their liberal patronage extended towards me, and now, owing to the great fall in prices, by which many articles can be sold as cheap as before the war, and having a thorough knowledge of the business and the wants of the public, I take pleasure in announcing that I can and will sell goods at a less figure than any similar establishment in city or country.

My stock will consist in part as follows: DOOR AND CUPBOARD LOCKS, CATCHES, BOLTS, HINGES, SCREWS, WINDOW SPRINGS, SHUTTER HINGES, WINDOW GLASS, NAILS, PUTTY, BORING MACHINES, AUGERS, CHISELS, BRACES AND BITS, HATCHETS, SQUARES, COMPASSES, TRY SQUARES, BEVELS, POCKET RULES, JACK, SMOOTHING, AND FOR PLANES, PANEL BLOWS, LEVELS, SASH, RAISING, AND MATCH PLANES, SAW SETS, BENCH SCREWS, CROSS-CUT, PANEL, RIP, COMPASS, AND BACK SAWS, GAUGES, OIL STONES, SCREW DRIVERS, PLOWS, POINTS, SHOVELS, FORKS, SCYTHES AND SNATHES, RAKES, HOES, SPADES, SHEEP SHEARS, HORSE BRUSHES, CARDS, CURRY COMBS, BELLS, HAMES, WHIPS, BUT, TRACE, BREAST, HALTER, FITH, TONGUE, AND LOG CHAINS, RIFLES, SHOT GUNS, REVOLVERS, AND PISTOLS, CARTRIDGES, POWDER, SHOT, CAPS, LEAD, POUCHES, POWDER FLASKS, GAME BAGS, GUN LOCKS, MAIN SPRINGS, PIVOTS, &c. HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS AND HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC, The Great Remedies for all Diseases of the Liver, Stomach or Digestive Organs.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS is composed of the pure juices (or, as they are medicinally termed, the Extracts) of Roots, Herbs, and Barks, being a preparation, highly concentrated, and entirely free from alcoholic admixture of any kind.

A combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with the purest quality of Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, &c., making one of the most pleasant, agreeable remedies ever offered to the public. Those preferring a Medicine free from Alcoholic admixture, will use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

Those who have no objection to the combination of the Bitters, we advise, will use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC. They are both equally good, and contain the same medicinal virtues, the choice between the two being a mere matter of taste, the Tonic being the most palatable.

The stomach, from a variety of causes, such as indigestion, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, etc., is very apt to have its functions deranged. The Liver, sympathizing as closely as it does with the Stomach, then becomes affected, the result of which is that the patient suffers from several or more of the following diseases:

Constipation, Flatulence, Inaction of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fullness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or fluttering at the pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Buried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of vision, Dots or webs before the sight, dull pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginations of Evil, and great depression of Spirits.

The sufferer from these diseases should exercise the greatest caution in the selection of a remedy for his case, purchasing only that which he is assured from his investigations and inquiries, possesses true merit, skillfully compounded, is free from injurious ingredients, and established for itself a reputation for the cure of these diseases. In this connection we would submit those well-known remedies—Hoofland's German Bitters, and Hoofland's German Tonic, prepared by DR. C. M. JACKSON, PHILADELPHIA, PA.

Thirty-five years since they were first introduced into this country from Germany, during which time they have undoubtedly performed more cures, and benefited suffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies known to the public. These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Chronic Diarrhoea, Disease of the Kidneys, and all diseases arising from a disordered Liver, Stomach or Intestines.

DEBILITY RESULTING FROM ANY CAUSE whatever; Prostration of the System, induced by Severe Labor, Hardships, Exposure, Fever, &c. There is no medicine extant equal to these remedies in such cases. A tone and vigor is imparted to the whole system, the appetite is strengthened, food is enjoyed, the stomach digests properly, the blood is purified, the complexion becomes sound and healthy, the yellow tinge is eradicated from the eyes, a bloom is given to the cheeks, and the weak and nervous invalid becomes a strong and healthy being.

PERSONS ADVANCED IN LIFE, And feeling the hand of time weighing heavily upon them, with all its attendant ills, will find in the use of this Bitters, or the Tonic, an elixir that will instil new life into their veins, restore in a measure the energy and ardor of more youthful days, build up their shrunken forms, and give health and happiness to their remaining years.

NOTICE! It is a well established fact that fully one-half of the female portion of our population are seldom in the enjoyment of good health, or, to use their own expression, "never feel well." They are languid, devoid of all energy, extremely nervous, and have no appetite. To this class of persons the Bitters, or the Tonic, is especially recommended. WEAK AND DELICATE CHILDREN Are made strong by the use of either of these remedies. They will cure every case of MARASMOUS, without fail. Thousands of certificates have accumulated in the hands of the proprietor, and space will allow of the publication of but a few. These, it will be observed, are from men of note, and of such standing that they must be believed.

TESTIMONIALS: Hon. Ged. W. Woodward, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pa., writes—Philadelphia, March 16, 1867.—"I had Hoofland's German Bitters is a good tonic, useful in diseases of the Digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of Debility, and want of nervous action in the system. Yours, truly, Geo. W. Woodward."

Hon. James Thompson, Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania. PHILADELPHIA, April 26, 1866. "I consider Hoofland's German Bitters a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can testify this from my experience of it. Yours, &c. JAMES THOMPSON."

From Rev. Joseph Kennard, of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia. Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in my own family of the use of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that, for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes. Yours, very respectfully, "J. H. KENNARD."

CAUTION. Hoofland's German Remedies are counterfeited. See that the signature of C. M. JACKSON is on the wrapper of each bottle. All others are counterfeit. Principal Office, and Manufactory at the German Medicine Store, No. 63: ARCH-ST., Philadelphia, Pa. CHARLES M. EVANS, Proprietor. Formerly C. M. JACKSON & Co.

PRICES: Hoofland's German Bitters, per bottle, $1.00 " " half dozen, 5.00 Hoofland's German Tonic, put up in quart bottles, $1.50 per bottle, or a half dozen for $7.50. Do not forget to examine well the article you buy, in order to get the genuine. For sale by all Druggists and Storekeepers everywhere. [18-6m.]
