

EBENSBURG AND CHESSON RAILROAD
On and after Monday, Dec. 1, 1868, trains on this road will run as follows:

LEAVE EBENSBURG—
At 2 30 A. M., connecting with Day Exp.
East and Phil. Exp. West.

LEAVE CHESSON—
At 2 30 A. M., or on departure of Phil.
Express West.
At 2 30 P. M., or on departure of Phila.
Express East.

AN APPEAL.—Having lately purchased a large stock of new type and fixtures for our office, thereby incurring a considerable outlay of money, we submit that our purse needs replenishing. Those of our subscribers and advertisers who can send us the amounts due us will lay us under lasting obligations, and will also at the same time furnish us the wherewithal to procure further and more extensive improvements for the prosecution of our business. Friends, let us hear from you!

MEMORANDA.—A horse belonging to
Mr. Jackson M'Brade, of Jackson
township, was stolen from his stable one night last week. The thief made his way to the eastern portion of Huntingdon county, where he disposed of the animal and made good his escape. The horse has since been recovered by the rightful owner. Some of our young men who attended the Velo-pede School have become quite expert in riding the wooden animal. The death of Richard D. Wood, senior member of the
Cambria Iron Co., and the firm of Wood,
Morrell & Co., died at his residence in Philadelphia on the 1st inst. The Pittsburgh Chronicle has donned a new dress of type, and presents a neat appearance. A number of rafts have gone down the Susquehanna, although the season has not yet fairly opened. A large comet is looked for in this latitude in June next. It is said to be considerably larger than the one last visited us in 1860. Altoona talks of buying the Nicholson pavement in some of its principal streets. Marion Macadue,
of Indiana county, was thrown from a raft,
by its striking a rock, a few days ago, and drowned. Lewistown is being pestered
with thieves. J. L. Holmes has disposed
of his interest in the Tyrore Herald to C.
W. Jones, under whose control it will hereafter be conducted. The ground was covered with snow Tuesday morning last.

MEMORANDA.—A horse belonging to
Mr. Jackson M'Brade, of Jackson
township, was stolen from his stable one night
last week. The thief made his way to the
eastern portion of Huntingdon county,
where he disposed of the animal and made
good his escape. The horse has since been
recovered by the rightful owner. Some
of our young men who attended the Velo-
pede School have become quite expert
in riding the wooden animal. The death
of Richard D. Wood, senior member of the
Cambria Iron Co., and the firm of Wood,
Morrell & Co., died at his residence in
Philadelphia on the 1st inst. The Pitts-
burgh Chronicle has donned a new dress of
type, and presents a neat appearance. A
number of rafts have gone down the Sus-
quehanna, although the season has not yet
fairly opened. A large comet is looked
for in this latitude in June next. It is
said to be considerably larger than the one
last visited us in 1860. Altoona talks of
buying the Nicholson pavement in some of
its principal streets. Marion Macadue,
of Indiana county, was thrown from a raft,
by its striking a rock, a few days ago, and
drowned. Lewistown is being pestered
with thieves. J. L. Holmes has disposed
of his interest in the Tyrore Herald to C.
W. Jones, under whose control it will
hereafter be conducted. The ground was
covered with snow Tuesday morning last.

MEMORANDA.—A horse belonging to
Mr. Jackson M'Brade, of Jackson
township, was stolen from his stable one night
last week. The thief made his way to the
eastern portion of Huntingdon county,
where he disposed of the animal and made
good his escape. The horse has since been
recovered by the rightful owner. Some
of our young men who attended the Velo-
pede School have become quite expert
in riding the wooden animal. The death
of Richard D. Wood, senior member of the
Cambria Iron Co., and the firm of Wood,
Morrell & Co., died at his residence in
Philadelphia on the 1st inst. The Pitts-
burgh Chronicle has donned a new dress of
type, and presents a neat appearance. A
number of rafts have gone down the Sus-
quehanna, although the season has not yet
fairly opened. A large comet is looked
for in this latitude in June next. It is
said to be considerably larger than the one
last visited us in 1860. Altoona talks of
buying the Nicholson pavement in some of
its principal streets. Marion Macadue,
of Indiana county, was thrown from a raft,
by its striking a rock, a few days ago, and
drowned. Lewistown is being pestered
with thieves. J. L. Holmes has disposed
of his interest in the Tyrore Herald to C.
W. Jones, under whose control it will
hereafter be conducted. The ground was
covered with snow Tuesday morning last.

MEMORANDA.—A horse belonging to
Mr. Jackson M'Brade, of Jackson
township, was stolen from his stable one night
last week. The thief made his way to the
eastern portion of Huntingdon county,
where he disposed of the animal and made
good his escape. The horse has since been
recovered by the rightful owner. Some
of our young men who attended the Velo-
pede School have become quite expert
in riding the wooden animal. The death
of Richard D. Wood, senior member of the
Cambria Iron Co., and the firm of Wood,
Morrell & Co., died at his residence in
Philadelphia on the 1st inst. The Pitts-
burgh Chronicle has donned a new dress of
type, and presents a neat appearance. A
number of rafts have gone down the Sus-
quehanna, although the season has not yet
fairly opened. A large comet is looked
for in this latitude in June next. It is
said to be considerably larger than the one
last visited us in 1860. Altoona talks of
buying the Nicholson pavement in some of
its principal streets. Marion Macadue,
of Indiana county, was thrown from a raft,
by its striking a rock, a few days ago, and
drowned. Lewistown is being pestered
with thieves. J. L. Holmes has disposed
of his interest in the Tyrore Herald to C.
W. Jones, under whose control it will
hereafter be conducted. The ground was
covered with snow Tuesday morning last.

MEMORANDA.—A horse belonging to
Mr. Jackson M'Brade, of Jackson
township, was stolen from his stable one night
last week. The thief made his way to the
eastern portion of Huntingdon county,
where he disposed of the animal and made
good his escape. The horse has since been
recovered by the rightful owner. Some
of our young men who attended the Velo-
pede School have become quite expert
in riding the wooden animal. The death
of Richard D. Wood, senior member of the
Cambria Iron Co., and the firm of Wood,
Morrell & Co., died at his residence in
Philadelphia on the 1st inst. The Pitts-
burgh Chronicle has donned a new dress of
type, and presents a neat appearance. A
number of rafts have gone down the Sus-
quehanna, although the season has not yet
fairly opened. A large comet is looked
for in this latitude in June next. It is
said to be considerably larger than the one
last visited us in 1860. Altoona talks of
buying the Nicholson pavement in some of
its principal streets. Marion Macadue,
of Indiana county, was thrown from a raft,
by its striking a rock, a few days ago, and
drowned. Lewistown is being pestered
with thieves. J. L. Holmes has disposed
of his interest in the Tyrore Herald to C.
W. Jones, under whose control it will
hereafter be conducted. The ground was
covered with snow Tuesday morning last.

MEMORANDA.—A horse belonging to
Mr. Jackson M'Brade, of Jackson
township, was stolen from his stable one night
last week. The thief made his way to the
eastern portion of Huntingdon county,
where he disposed of the animal and made
good his escape. The horse has since been
recovered by the rightful owner. Some
of our young men who attended the Velo-
pede School have become quite expert
in riding the wooden animal. The death
of Richard D. Wood, senior member of the
Cambria Iron Co., and the firm of Wood,
Morrell & Co., died at his residence in
Philadelphia on the 1st inst. The Pitts-
burgh Chronicle has donned a new dress of
type, and presents a neat appearance. A
number of rafts have gone down the Sus-
quehanna, although the season has not yet
fairly opened. A large comet is looked
for in this latitude in June next. It is
said to be considerably larger than the one
last visited us in 1860. Altoona talks of
buying the Nicholson pavement in some of
its principal streets. Marion Macadue,
of Indiana county, was thrown from a raft,
by its striking a rock, a few days ago, and
drowned. Lewistown is being pestered
with thieves. J. L. Holmes has disposed
of his interest in the Tyrore Herald to C.
W. Jones, under whose control it will
hereafter be conducted. The ground was
covered with snow Tuesday morning last.

MEMORANDA.—A horse belonging to
Mr. Jackson M'Brade, of Jackson
township, was stolen from his stable one night
last week. The thief made his way to the
eastern portion of Huntingdon county,
where he disposed of the animal and made
good his escape. The horse has since been
recovered by the rightful owner. Some
of our young men who attended the Velo-
pede School have become quite expert
in riding the wooden animal. The death
of Richard D. Wood, senior member of the
Cambria Iron Co., and the firm of Wood,
Morrell & Co., died at his residence in
Philadelphia on the 1st inst. The Pitts-
burgh Chronicle has donned a new dress of
type, and presents a neat appearance. A
number of rafts have gone down the Sus-
quehanna, although the season has not yet
fairly opened. A large comet is looked
for in this latitude in June next. It is
said to be considerably larger than the one
last visited us in 1860. Altoona talks of
buying the Nicholson pavement in some of
its principal streets. Marion Macadue,
of Indiana county, was thrown from a raft,
by its striking a rock, a few days ago, and
drowned. Lewistown is being pestered
with thieves. J. L. Holmes has disposed
of his interest in the Tyrore Herald to C.
W. Jones, under whose control it will
hereafter be conducted. The ground was
covered with snow Tuesday morning last.

MEMORANDA.—A horse belonging to
Mr. Jackson M'Brade, of Jackson
township, was stolen from his stable one night
last week. The thief made his way to the
eastern portion of Huntingdon county,
where he disposed of the animal and made
good his escape. The horse has since been
recovered by the rightful owner. Some
of our young men who attended the Velo-
pede School have become quite expert
in riding the wooden animal. The death
of Richard D. Wood, senior member of the
Cambria Iron Co., and the firm of Wood,
Morrell & Co., died at his residence in
Philadelphia on the 1st inst. The Pitts-
burgh Chronicle has donned a new dress of
type, and presents a neat appearance. A
number of rafts have gone down the Sus-
quehanna, although the season has not yet
fairly opened. A large comet is looked
for in this latitude in June next. It is
said to be considerably larger than the one
last visited us in 1860. Altoona talks of
buying the Nicholson pavement in some of
its principal streets. Marion Macadue,
of Indiana county, was thrown from a raft,
by its striking a rock, a few days ago, and
drowned. Lewistown is being pestered
with thieves. J. L. Holmes has disposed
of his interest in the Tyrore Herald to C.
W. Jones, under whose control it will
hereafter be conducted. The ground was
covered with snow Tuesday morning last.

MEMORANDA.—A horse belonging to
Mr. Jackson M'Brade, of Jackson
township, was stolen from his stable one night
last week. The thief made his way to the
eastern portion of Huntingdon county,
where he disposed of the animal and made
good his escape. The horse has since been
recovered by the rightful owner. Some
of our young men who attended the Velo-
pede School have become quite expert
in riding the wooden animal. The death
of Richard D. Wood, senior member of the
Cambria Iron Co., and the firm of Wood,
Morrell & Co., died at his residence in
Philadelphia on the 1st inst. The Pitts-
burgh Chronicle has donned a new dress of
type, and presents a neat appearance. A
number of rafts have gone down the Sus-
quehanna, although the season has not yet
fairly opened. A large comet is looked
for in this latitude in June next. It is
said to be considerably larger than the one
last visited us in 1860. Altoona talks of
buying the Nicholson pavement in some of
its principal streets. Marion Macadue,
of Indiana county, was thrown from a raft,
by its striking a rock, a few days ago, and
drowned. Lewistown is being pestered
with thieves. J. L. Holmes has disposed
of his interest in the Tyrore Herald to C.
W. Jones, under whose control it will
hereafter be conducted. The ground was
covered with snow Tuesday morning last.

MEMORANDA.—A horse belonging to
Mr. Jackson M'Brade, of Jackson
township, was stolen from his stable one night
last week. The thief made his way to the
eastern portion of Huntingdon county,
where he disposed of the animal and made
good his escape. The horse has since been
recovered by the rightful owner. Some
of our young men who attended the Velo-
pede School have become quite expert
in riding the wooden animal. The death
of Richard D. Wood, senior member of the
Cambria Iron Co., and the firm of Wood,
Morrell & Co., died at his residence in
Philadelphia on the 1st inst. The Pitts-
burgh Chronicle has donned a new dress of
type, and presents a neat appearance. A
number of rafts have gone down the Sus-
quehanna, although the season has not yet
fairly opened. A large comet is looked
for in this latitude in June next. It is
said to be considerably larger than the one
last visited us in 1860. Altoona talks of
buying the Nicholson pavement in some of
its principal streets. Marion Macadue,
of Indiana county, was thrown from a raft,
by its striking a rock, a few days ago, and
drowned. Lewistown is being pestered
with thieves. J. L. Holmes has disposed
of his interest in the Tyrore Herald to C.
W. Jones, under whose control it will
hereafter be conducted. The ground was
covered with snow Tuesday morning last.

MEMORANDA.—A horse belonging to
Mr. Jackson M'Brade, of Jackson
township, was stolen from his stable one night
last week. The thief made his way to the
eastern portion of Huntingdon county,
where he disposed of the animal and made
good his escape. The horse has since been
recovered by the rightful owner. Some
of our young men who attended the Velo-
pede School have become quite expert
in riding the wooden animal. The death
of Richard D. Wood, senior member of the
Cambria Iron Co., and the firm of Wood,
Morrell & Co., died at his residence in
Philadelphia on the 1st inst. The Pitts-
burgh Chronicle has donned a new dress of
type, and presents a neat appearance. A
number of rafts have gone down the Sus-
quehanna, although the season has not yet
fairly opened. A large comet is looked
for in this latitude in June next. It is
said to be considerably larger than the one
last visited us in 1860. Altoona talks of
buying the Nicholson pavement in some of
its principal streets. Marion Macadue,
of Indiana county, was thrown from a raft,
by its striking a rock, a few days ago, and
drowned. Lewistown is being pestered
with thieves. J. L. Holmes has disposed
of his interest in the Tyrore Herald to C.
W. Jones, under whose control it will
hereafter be conducted. The ground was
covered with snow Tuesday morning last.

MEMORANDA.—A horse belonging to
Mr. Jackson M'Brade, of Jackson
township, was stolen from his stable one night
last week. The thief made his way to the
eastern portion of Huntingdon county,
where he disposed of the animal and made
good his escape. The horse has since been
recovered by the rightful owner. Some
of our young men who attended the Velo-
pede School have become quite expert
in riding the wooden animal. The death
of Richard D. Wood, senior member of the
Cambria Iron Co., and the firm of Wood,
Morrell & Co., died at his residence in
Philadelphia on the 1st inst. The Pitts-
burgh Chronicle has donned a new dress of
type, and presents a neat appearance. A
number of rafts have gone down the Sus-
quehanna, although the season has not yet
fairly opened. A large comet is looked
for in this latitude in June next. It is
said to be considerably larger than the one
last visited us in 1860. Altoona talks of
buying the Nicholson pavement in some of
its principal streets. Marion Macadue,
of Indiana county, was thrown from a raft,
by its striking a rock, a few days ago, and
drowned. Lewistown is being pestered
with thieves. J. L. Holmes has disposed
of his interest in the Tyrore Herald to C.
W. Jones, under whose control it will
hereafter be conducted. The ground was
covered with snow Tuesday morning last.

MEMORANDA.—A horse belonging to
Mr. Jackson M'Brade, of Jackson
township, was stolen from his stable one night
last week. The thief made his way to the
eastern portion of Huntingdon county,
where he disposed of the animal and made
good his escape. The horse has since been
recovered by the rightful owner. Some
of our young men who attended the Velo-
pede School have become quite expert
in riding the wooden animal. The death
of Richard D. Wood, senior member of the
Cambria Iron Co., and the firm of Wood,
Morrell & Co., died at his residence in
Philadelphia on the 1st inst. The Pitts-
burgh Chronicle has donned a new dress of
type, and presents a neat appearance. A
number of rafts have gone down the Sus-
quehanna, although the season has not yet
fairly opened. A large comet is looked
for in this latitude in June next. It is
said to be considerably larger than the one
last visited us in 1860. Altoona talks of
buying the Nicholson pavement in some of
its principal streets. Marion Macadue,
of Indiana county, was thrown from a raft,
by its striking a rock, a few days ago, and
drowned. Lewistown is being pestered
with thieves. J. L. Holmes has disposed
of his interest in the Tyrore Herald to C.
W. Jones, under whose control it will
hereafter be conducted. The ground was
covered with snow Tuesday morning last.

MEMORANDA.—A horse belonging to
Mr. Jackson M'Brade, of Jackson
township, was stolen from his stable one night
last week. The thief made his way to the
eastern portion of Huntingdon county,
where he disposed of the animal and made
good his escape. The horse has since been
recovered by the rightful owner. Some
of our young men who attended the Velo-
pede School have become quite expert
in riding the wooden animal. The death
of Richard D. Wood, senior member of the
Cambria Iron Co., and the firm of Wood,
Morrell & Co., died at his residence in
Philadelphia on the 1st inst. The Pitts-
burgh Chronicle has donned a new dress of
type, and presents a neat appearance. A
number of rafts have gone down the Sus-
quehanna, although the season has not yet
fairly opened. A large comet is looked
for in this latitude in June next. It is
said to be considerably larger than the one
last visited us in 1860. Altoona talks of
buying the Nicholson pavement in some of
its principal streets. Marion Macadue,
of Indiana county, was thrown from a raft,
by its striking a rock, a few days ago, and
drowned. Lewistown is being pestered
with thieves. J. L. Holmes has disposed
of his interest in the Tyrore Herald to C.
W. Jones, under whose control it will
hereafter be conducted. The ground was
covered with snow Tuesday morning last.

MEMORANDA.—A horse belonging to
Mr. Jackson M'Brade, of Jackson
township, was stolen from his stable one night
last week. The thief made his way to the
eastern portion of Huntingdon county,
where he disposed of the animal and made
good his escape. The horse has since been
recovered by the rightful owner. Some
of our young men who attended the Velo-
pede School have become quite expert
in riding the wooden animal. The death
of Richard D. Wood, senior member of the
Cambria Iron Co., and the firm of Wood,
Morrell & Co., died at his residence in
Philadelphia on the 1st inst. The Pitts-
burgh Chronicle has donned a new dress of
type, and presents a neat appearance. A
number of rafts have gone down the Sus-
quehanna, although the season has not yet
fairly opened. A large comet is looked
for in this latitude in June next. It is
said to be considerably larger than the one
last visited us in 1860. Altoona talks of
buying the Nicholson pavement in some of
its principal streets. Marion Macadue,
of Indiana county, was thrown from a raft,
by its striking a rock, a few days ago, and
drowned. Lewistown is being pestered
with thieves. J. L. Holmes has disposed
of his interest in the Tyrore Herald to C.
W. Jones, under whose control it will
hereafter be conducted. The ground was
covered with snow Tuesday morning last.

MEMORANDA.—A horse belonging to
Mr. Jackson M'Brade, of Jackson
township, was stolen from his stable one night
last week. The thief made his way to the
eastern portion of Huntingdon county,
where he disposed of the animal and made
good his escape. The horse has since been
recovered by the rightful owner. Some
of our young men who attended the Velo-
pede School have become quite expert
in riding the wooden animal. The death
of Richard D. Wood, senior member of the
Cambria Iron Co., and the firm of Wood,
Morrell & Co., died at his residence in
Philadelphia on the 1st inst. The Pitts-
burgh Chronicle has donned a new dress of
type, and presents a neat appearance. A
number of rafts have gone down the Sus-
quehanna, although the season has not yet
fairly opened. A large comet is looked
for in this latitude in June next. It is
said to be considerably larger than the one
last visited us in 1860. Altoona talks of
buying the Nicholson pavement in some of
its principal streets. Marion Macadue,
of Indiana county, was thrown from a raft,
by its striking a rock, a few days ago, and
drowned. Lewistown is being pestered
with thieves. J. L. Holmes has disposed
of his interest in the Tyrore Herald to C.
W. Jones, under whose control it will
hereafter be conducted. The ground was
covered with snow Tuesday morning last.

TEMPERANCE.—Elsewhere in this paper will be found a communication from our friend Hon. A. A. Barker, on the subject of temperance. Barring a couple of introductory paragraphs, which may be good advice, logic, philosophy, or sarcasm, just as you take it, the communication is devoted to an argument in favor of temperance and temperance organizations.— In this particular, it is a marked improvement over any possible series of resolutions in favor of temperance. As a general thing, resolutions embody an appeal to one's prejudices or passions; whereas argument appeals to the reason. We recognize importance to be a very great evil, and are certainly in favor of its amelioration or absolute extirpation. Yet we opine that on this subject, as on all other subjects of import, men differ, and will continue to differ, as to the proper mode of arriving at the end aimed at. Some favor secret organizations; others do not. Some endorse "red-hot" temperance papers, such as the "Indicator"; others see in such papers only an evil and a reproach. Some favor a prohibitory liquor law; others look upon sumptuary laws as a failure. All these favor the same end—temperance, yet differ as to the means to be used for attaining that end. We may be "youths," and "imprudent," but it occurs to us that the proper and only way to evolve light from the darkness of any abstruse question is to invite suggestions and criticism—not to frown upon such; to meet ideas with ideas, and argument with argument—not to meet ideas with resolutions, and argument with abuse.

SHUT UP THE ANIMALS.—At a meeting of our Town Council, held Saturday evening last, Sec. 7 of Chap. XI of the Ordinance for the regulation of Ebensburg borough, passed April 2, 1868, and repealed December 3, 1868, was reinstated and declared to be a part of the original ordinance. The Section referred to provides that hogs, sheep, and certain other animals, shall not be permitted to run at large in the borough, but shall be kept stabled, penned, cooped, or otherwise confined within doors, or within fields or other enclosures. The ordinance is published in full in our advertising columns. It is thought it will give unlimited satisfaction to non-owners of hogs, sheep and the like, while those who are the unfortunate possessors of such animals, or either of them, will be apt to look at it in an entirely different light.

NOT MUCH OF A MISTAKE.—A short-sighted Deacon, recently, in giving out a hymn to be sung, when he came to the line—
"The eastern sages shall come in With messengers of grace."
put the audience in a roar of laughter by reading out in a loud voice—
"The eastern sages shall come in
With sausages and cheese.
To Oatman's cheap cash grocery—His customers to please."
He had evidently been thinking of the cheap groceries he bought at Oatman's, and wished to notify his congregation at what place to buy to save money.

FROTH.—The Temperance Indicator this week has a characteristic attack on the Alleghenian. When we say characteristic, we mean that it abounds in such meaningless language as "hissings of the whisky serpent," "brains muddled with the fumes of alcoholic potations," "fiery furnace of intemperance," "waters of death," &c. If the editor of that paper is not a well-educated blackguard, then he is a fool, and with either of these characters we cannot consent to bandy words.

BOOTS AND SHOES.—Mr. John D.
Thomas, at his boot and shoe manufactory, High street, has just received a large assortment of fine French calfskin and other leathers, and is prepared to "take the measure" of any number of customers.— If you want a good, neat, nice-fitting boot or shoe, go to Thomas'. Prices to suit the times.

CIGARS.—Do you smoke? Do you like a good cigar—a cigar enjoyable, a cigar costly, a cigar as a cigar? Then go to M. L. Oatman's. He keeps the largest and best assortment in town, and no lover of the weed ever went from his doors dissatisfied. Try him.

THE NEW COURT.—On our opposite page will be found a copy of the bill creating an additional Court for Cambria county, to be held at Johnstown. The bill has passed the House, and will probably come up before the Senate this week.

APPEALS.—Appeals from the assessments of Internal Revenue Assessors will be received by Assessor Stewart, at Huntington, on Saturday, April 17th, for Mif-fin and Huntingdon, and on Monday, April 19th, for Cambria and Blair.

SEED POTATOES.—An excellent seed potato is offered for sale cheap at Oatman's cheap store. Go and see.

MEMORANDA.—A horse belonging to
Mr. Jackson M'Brade, of Jackson
township, was stolen from his stable one night
last week. The thief made his way to the
eastern portion of Huntingdon county,
where he disposed of the animal and made
good his escape. The horse has since been
recovered by the rightful owner. Some
of our young men who attended the Velo-
pede School have become quite expert
in riding the wooden animal. The death
of Richard D. Wood, senior member of the
Cambria Iron Co., and the firm of Wood,
Morrell & Co., died at his residence in
Philadelphia on the 1st inst. The Pitts-
burgh Chronicle has donned a new dress of
type, and presents a neat appearance. A
number of rafts have gone down the Sus-
quehanna, although the season has not yet
fairly opened. A large comet is looked
for in this latitude in June next. It is
said to be considerably larger than the one
last visited us in 1860. Altoona talks of
buying the Nicholson pavement in some of
its principal streets. Marion Macadue,
of Indiana county, was thrown from a raft,
by its striking a rock, a few days ago, and
drowned. Lewistown is being pestered
with thieves. J. L. Holmes has disposed
of his interest in the Tyrore Herald to C.
W. Jones, under whose control it will
hereafter be conducted. The ground was
covered with snow Tuesday morning last.

MEMORANDA.—A horse belonging to
Mr. Jackson M'Brade, of Jackson
township, was stolen from his stable one night
last week. The thief made his way to the
eastern portion of Huntingdon county,
where he disposed of the animal and made
good his escape. The horse has since been
recovered by the rightful owner. Some
of our young men who attended the Velo-
pede School have become quite expert
in riding the wooden animal. The death
of Richard D. Wood, senior member of the
Cambria Iron Co., and the firm of Wood,
Morrell & Co., died at his residence in
Philadelphia on the 1st inst. The Pitts-
burgh Chronicle has donned a new dress of
type, and presents a neat appearance. A
number of rafts have gone down the Sus-
quehanna, although the season has not yet
fairly opened. A large comet is looked
for in this latitude in June next. It is
said to be considerably larger than the one
last visited us in 1860. Altoona talks of
buying the Nicholson pavement in some of
its principal streets. Marion Macadue,
of Indiana county, was thrown from a raft,
by its striking a rock, a few days ago, and
drowned. Lewistown is being pestered
with thieves. J. L. Holmes has disposed
of his interest in the Tyrore Herald to C.
W. Jones, under whose control it will
hereafter be conducted. The ground was
covered with snow Tuesday morning last.

MEMORANDA.—A horse belonging to
Mr. Jackson M'Brade, of Jackson
township, was stolen from his stable one night
last week. The thief made his way to the
eastern portion of Huntingdon county,
where he disposed of the animal and made
good his escape. The horse has since been
recovered by the rightful owner. Some
of our young men who attended the Velo-
pede School have become quite expert
in riding the wooden animal. The death
of Richard D. Wood, senior member of the
Cambria Iron Co., and the firm of Wood,
Morrell & Co., died at his residence in
Philadelphia on the 1st inst. The Pitts-
burgh Chronicle has donned a new dress of
type, and presents a neat appearance. A
number of rafts have gone down the Sus-
quehanna, although the season has not yet
fairly opened. A large comet is looked
for in this latitude in June next. It is
said to be considerably larger than the one
last visited us in 1860. Altoona talks of
buying the Nicholson pavement in some of
its principal streets. Marion Macadue,
of Indiana county, was thrown from a raft,
by its striking a rock, a few days ago, and
drowned. Lewistown is being pestered
with thieves. J. L. Holmes has disposed
of his interest in the Tyrore Herald to C.
W. Jones, under whose control it will
hereafter be conducted. The ground was
covered with snow Tuesday morning last.

MEMORANDA.—A horse belonging to
Mr. Jackson M'Brade, of Jackson
township, was stolen from his stable one night
last week. The thief made his way to the
eastern portion of Huntingdon county,
where he disposed of the animal and made
good his escape. The horse has since been
recovered by the rightful owner. Some
of our young men who attended the Velo-
pede School have become quite expert
in riding the wooden animal. The death
of Richard D. Wood, senior member of the
Cambria Iron Co., and the firm of Wood,
Morrell & Co., died at his residence in
Philadelphia on the 1st inst. The Pitts-
burgh Chronicle has donned a new dress of
type, and presents a neat appearance. A
number of rafts have gone down the Sus-
quehanna, although the season has not yet
fairly opened. A large comet is looked
for in this latitude in June next. It is
said to be considerably larger than the one
last visited us in 1860. Altoona talks of
buying the Nicholson pavement in some of
its principal streets. Marion Macadue,
of Indiana county, was thrown from a raft,
by its striking a rock, a few days ago, and
drowned. Lewistown is being pestered
with thieves. J. L. Holmes has disposed
of his interest in the Tyrore Herald to C.
W. Jones, under whose control it will
hereafter be conducted. The ground was
covered with snow Tuesday morning last.

MERCHANTS visiting Philadelphia for spring goods will find E. E. Allen, the enterprising grocerman, with the reliable firm of Janney & Andrews, 123 Market street. They have an excellent stock of groceries, which will be sold to the trade at lowest market rates. Give them a call.

PUBLIC SALE.—Richard Edwards will sell certain personal property, at his farm, three miles north of Ebensburg, on the 22d of April, inst. See bills.

CLOTHING.—Just at this time of year a new spring suit of clothes is needed by all who wish to be neatly and fashionably clad.
In order that our readers may know where to get the cheapest as well as the latest and most approved style, we will here mention that the Messrs. Leopold & Bro. of Johnstown are acknowledged the leading clothing merchants of the place. Buy from them.

GREAT EXCITEMENT.—Johnstown shook to its center by the immense throng wending their way to L. Mayer's dry goods emporium. His large and beautiful selection of dress goods surpasses any and all combined in the place, and his prices lower than the lowest. Save your money and get an article that suits you by calling at this store.

NOT DENIED.—We have yet to learn of a single instance in which merchants have denied that M. L. Oatman does not sell cheaper goods and a better quality than all others.
Every day new patrons are added to his list of customers. People will buy where the best goods can be obtained for the least money.

FARMERS.—If you purpose buying a mowing machine we advise you to call on our hardware merchant Geo. Huntley, who is agent in this place for the well known and popular Etna machine, universally acknowledged the model machine of the day. See it before buying any other.

A FACT.—Everybody is free to admit that Spence surpasses all competitors in taking a correct likeness. He has at great expense supplied himself with large and commodious rooms and every facility known to the art, thus feeling confident that entire satisfaction will be given in every instance.

THE public are interested in knowing where the best article of tinware can be had at moderate prices. It is scarcely necessary to say that T. W. Williams' is the place. This branch of business made a specialty. Repairing done promptly.

FIRST ARRIVAL.—R. R. Davis, ahead of all competitors, has received his new goods, embracing the finest selection of dress goods, ladies' shoes, hats, caps, boots and shoes, ever brought to town. Everything cheap.— Go and get a bargain.

CIGARS.—C. T. Roberts' stock of cigars is rarely equaled for both number and quality outside our large manufacturing establishments. If you want a good cigar at the lowest price in town, we advise you to go to C. T. Roberts.

JUST RETURNED.—V. S. Barker has just returned from the east with one of the finest assortments of goods ever brought to this market. Ladies are invited to go and see the beautiful dress patterns he has now opening. Great bargains to be had.

WE were shown some fine goods suitable for business suits at the store of A. A.
Barker & Son, which, if we may judge, are of a style and quality that will suit the tastes of an appreciative public. See for yourself.

M. L. OATMAN
—DEALER IN—
CHOICE FAMILY GROCERIES! consisting in part of DOUBLE EXTRA FAMILY FLOUR, GRAIN, FEED, BACON, SALT FISH, DRIED APPLES AND PEACHES, ALL KINDS OF CANNED FRUITS!!
SUGARS! TEAS! COFFEES!
SYRUPS! MOLASSES! CHEESE!
&c., &c., &c.
Also a large stock of the best brands of CIGARS AND TOBACCO!
Store on High-st., three doors east of Crawford's Hotel. [Feb. 4]

TO THE SCHOOL DIRECTORS OF CAMBRIA COUNTY.—Gentlemen: In pursuance of the forty-first section of the act of the 8th of May, 1854, you are hereby notified to meet in convention, at the court house, in Ebensburg, on the first TUESDAY in MAY, A. D., 1869, being the fourth day of the month, at 1 o'clock in the afternoon, and select a committee of three persons, one of whom shall be a member of the school, and one of literary and scientific acquirement, and of skill and experience in the art of teaching, as county superintendent, for the three succeeding years; determine the amount of compensation for the same; and certify the result to the State Superintendent, at Harrisburg, as required by the thirty-ninth and fortieth sections of said act. F. J. SHAPIRO, Co. Superintendent of Cambria Co.

AUDITOR'S NOTICE.—
The undersigned, auditor, appointed by the Court of Common Pleas of Cambria county, to report distribution of the money in the hands of the Sheriff arising from the sale of defendant's personal property, in the case of John F. Will vs. James Henry, No.
41, Dec. Term, 1868, and other writs in hands of Sheriff at time of sale, hereby gives notice to all persons interested, that he will attend to the duties of his appointment at the office of Shoenmaker & Oatman, in Ebensburg, on MONDAY, the 28th day of MAY, 1869, at 2 o'clock, p. m., when and where they may attend, or be debarred from coming in upon said fund. GEO. W. OATMAN, Auditor.
April 8, 1869-31.

AUDITOR'S NOTICE.—
The undersigned, auditor, appointed by the Orphans' Court of Cambria county, to report distribution of the funds in the hands of Francis J. Christy, Trustee for the sale of the real estate of John C. McGuire, dec'd., (pursuant to proceedings in partition), as shown by his second and final account, hereby notifies all persons interested that he will attend to the duties of said appointment, at the office of Shoenmaker & Oatman, in Ebensburg, on FRIDAY, the 29th day of APRIL, 1869, at 2 o'clock, p. m., when and where they must present their claims, or be debarred from coming in for a share of the funds.
GEO. W. OATMAN, Auditor.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE.—
Letters of administration on the estate of Julia Ann Carney, late of Ebensburg, deceased, having been granted the subscriber by the Register of Cambria county, all persons indebted to said estate are required to make immediate payment of their respective debts, and those having claims against it will present their accounts, properly authenticated, for settlement. A. A. BARKER, Ebensburg, March 4, 1869-61.

AN ORDINANCE.—
Resolved, That Section VII of Chapter XI of the ordinance of the Borough of Ebensburg, passed on the second day of April, A. D. 1868, and repealed by resolution of Council, on the third day of December of the same year, be and is hereby reinstated and declared to be a part of said ordinance, as it originally stood, and that this resolution and the said Section VII be published in two consecutive issues of the two newspapers of this Borough and also by hand-bills, posted in public places in said Borough.
This Resolution to take effect in ten days after its publication.
Sec. 7.—Any person who shall willfully suffer his horse, mare, gelding, mule, goat, sheep, swine, dog, pig, sow or shoot to run at large in the borough shall pay a fine, on conviction of such offense, of not less than $66 nor more than ten dollars. It shall be the duty of the street commissioner and police to seize and impound any such animals so running at large, and to give information to the burgess of every such offense. If, after four days public notice of the taking up of any such animal, the same is not claimed, and the fine, costs and charges for keeping paid, it shall be sold at public sale to the highest and best bidder; and the proceeds, after deducting the fine, costs, and charges, shall be paid to and remain in the hands of the borough treasurer, subject to the call or order of the owner of said animal. Any person who shall possess any domestic fowl shall enter or trespass may take up or kill the same, between April first and November first of each year. AREL LLOYD, Burgess.
Attest—Ed. JONES, Clerk
April 10, 1869.

PUBLIC SALE.—
Will be sold at public sale at Carroll-town, on TUESDAY,