

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

EBENSBURG AND CRESSON RAILROAD. On and after April 25, 1869, trains on this road will run as follows:

LEAVE EBENSBURG.—At 7:40 A. M., connecting with Philadelphia and Pittsburgh Express West, and Southern Express East. At 7:50 P. M., connecting with Mail Train West and Philadelphia Express East.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—The following new advertisements appear in to-day's paper: Thos. J. Lloyd, Lumber. V. S. Rarker, Wall paper.

MEMORANDA.—Though some snow fell on Saturday last, and though the air is full of blunted shafts of cold, yet we know that spring is come. The robin and bluebird have been here long enough, and one day last week the martin arrived, bringing with him a joyous song from the South.

BRANCHING OUT.—We find the following in a letter from Col. John Forney, editor of the Philadelphia Press, dated Lynchburg, April 22, 1869. Col. F. is on a tour through the South, and writes descriptive of the country through which he passes.

HEROIC FEAT.—The Huntingdon Globe says, engineers of locomotives have eventful lives, as the following incident, which happened near Petersburg, this county, one day last week, will illustrate: An engineer on a freight train, while coming towards the above named place, saw a child, a son of Mr. Denny, walking on the track about a half mile ahead.

BUSINESS CHANGE.—Mr. R. H. Tudor, who has been doing business in this place for a number of years, has sold his stock of goods to Mr. A. G. Fry, lumber merchant, who, we understand intends, opening out an entirely new and beautiful stock of dry goods, groceries, hardware, &c., which will be ready for sale in a few days.

MARRIED.—In Johnstown, on the 20th inst., by Rev. P. M. Garvey, Mr. Thomas M. Layton, of Blairsville, to Miss Annie M., eldest surviving daughter of Hon. G. W. Easley.

At the residence of the bride's parents, in Pittsburgh, on Thursday, 22d inst., by Rev. Mr. Miller, Mr. Hosea J. Evans, of Ebensburg, to Miss Annie Hughes, of Pittsburgh. Accept our congratulations.

BOROUGH AND TOWNSHIP ELECTION.—The Johnstown Tribune states that the bill changing the time of holding borough and township elections in Cambria, Indiana and Jefferson counties from the days now fixed by law to the second Tuesday of October has not become a law. It passed the Senate, but was defeated in the House.

LEIGHTY'S WASHING MACHINE.—Mr. Wm. Leighty has disposed of his interest in the manufacture and sale of his Washing Machine to F. H. Barker, who has become sole proprietor of the same. Those wishing to purchase should call on Mr. B.

JOHNSTOWN.—A Medical and Surgical Hospital for Johnstown has been incorporated by the Legislature. The new Court has not yet been organized.

ALMOST A FIRE.—On Sunday last, some boys playing with a box of matches succeeded in setting fire to the stable of Mr. Thomas W. Williams, in the West Ward. The flames, however, were discovered and extinguished before much damage was done. So far, good. But suppose the fire had gained so much headway that it could not have been mastered—what would have been the result? Why, probably a half-dozen buildings would have been burned down. The fact is, Ebensburg is miserably deficient in her fire department—is almost entirely destitute of the necessary means for battling with the "devouring element." The machine we in courtesy call our "fire engine" is a mere squirt, and is of about as much use at a fire as a threshing machine. Some of these days, possibly, half of our town will burn down, and then there will be a loud and earnest call for such an engine as is demanded by the wants of the town. Wouldn't it be to the interest of the fire companies—say the Cambria County Fire Insurance Co.—to agitate the question of the purchase of a suitable engine? We throw out the suggestion for what it is worth.

A LOVE TALE.—One quiet day in leafy June, when bees and birds were all in tune, two lovers walked beneath the moon. Her name was Sue and his was Jim, and he was fat and she was slim; he took to her and she to him. Jim leaned to Sue; Sue leaned to Jim, his nose just touched her jockey brian; four lips met—went—ahem! ahem!! ahem!!! And then—and then—and then—and then these lovers were duly married and went to housekeeping and are living very happily together, and are still buying their flour, groceries, &c., from M. L. Oatman's cheap cash store, where we advise all housekeepers to deal who wish to buy cheap. Oatman keeps none but the best articles in the market.

DEAD.—On Saturday, the 24th inst., at his residence in Cambria township, Robert Williams, aged about 73 years. The deceased was one of the early settlers of the county. He was a devoted Christian and a member of the Disciple church of this place. His remains were taken to their last resting place on Tuesday last.

EBENSBURG FEMALE SEMINARY.—Ladies preparing for professional teachers will find it to their advantage to attend this seminary. Rev. B. M. Kerr, the Principal, is an accomplished scholar, and the measure of patronage accorded him during the past six months shows that his labors amongst us are duly appreciated.

MARRIED.—On the 22d inst., by the Rev. B. M. Kerr, at the residence of the bride's mother, Mr. Ellis G. Kerr to Miss Minnie L. Hutchinson, all of this place. We congratulate our young friends on their happy union, hoping they may fully realize all that has ever been said or sung of wedded life.

ACCIDENT.—On Sunday of last week, Patrick Curtis met with an accident at Gallitzin, which might have cost him his life. It appears that he endeavored to get on the emigrant train west, while it was in motion, and missing his footing, fell, and had his foot badly crushed.

THE MARKETS.—The following are the current prices ruling in our market: Flour $9.00 per bbl.; corn, $1.25 per bushel; oats, 75 cents per bushel; potatoes $1.00 per bushel; butter, 35 cents per pound; eggs, 15 cents per dozen.

NEW SCHEDULE.—A new schedule went into effect on the E. & C. Branch on Monday, the 25th inst. See time table elsewhere.

PISCATORIAL.—The trout season has opened out. During the past ten days, we have noticed a number of disciples of Ike Walton arriving in town, with baskets of trout holding from one dozen to ten dozen of the "speckled beauties." If there is any one section better than another for trout-fishing, it is The Mountain. Our streams are literally swarming with trout, and, with proper protection in the spawning season, the supply would exceed any possible demand. April, May and June are the proper months to angle for trout. After the first of July, no line should be thrown into a stream which they frequent.

POST OFFICE.—Under the new railroad schedule, mails will arrive and depart from the Ebensburg Post Office as follows: Arrive—Way East and Through West, 10:20 A. M.; Through East and way west, 9:30 P. M.

DEPART.—East and West, 7:40 A. M.; East, 7:10 P. M. Mails to go on the morning train will close at 7:20 A. M.; for the evening train at 6:30.

THE NORTHERN MAILED WILL ARRIVE AND DEPART AS HERETOFORE.

A coal miner named Patrick Boyle was found drowned, on Tuesday last, in the Conemaugh river, about five miles west of Johnstown. How he came to his death is shrouded in mystery. The presumption is that he fell from a train while on his way home to Ligonier. Coroner Harrod, of Johnstown, held an inquest, and a verdict of accidental death was rendered.

THE VOICE OF TRUTH.—This is the title of an excellent monthly journal devoted to the interest of temperance. We have glanced hastily over its pages and find it to be brimful of good, sound temperance articles. It is published by Rev. Edwin H. Neven, Lancaster, Pa. Price only 50 cents per year. Subscribe for it.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS AND HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC, The Great Remedies for all Diseases of the Liver, Stomach or Digestive Organs.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS is composed of the pure juices (or, as they are medicinally termed, Extracts) of Roots, Herbs, and Bark, making a preparation, highly concentrated, and entirely free from alcoholic admixture of any kind.

Those preferring a Medicine free from Alcohol admixture, will use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS. Those who have no objection to the combination of the Bitters, as stated, will use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC. They are both equally good, and contain the same medicinal virtues, the choice between the two being a mere matter of taste, the Tonic being the most palatable.

The stomach, from a variety of causes such as Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, etc., is very apt to have its functions deranged. The Liver, sympathizing as closely as it does with the Stomach, then becomes affected, the result of which is that the patient suffers from several or more of the following diseases:

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fulness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or fluttering at the pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Harried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of vision, Dots or webs before the sight, Dull pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginations of Evil, and great depression of Spirits.

The sufferer from these diseases should exercise the greatest caution in the selection of a remedy for his case, purchasing only that which he is assured from his investigations and inquiries, possesses true merit, skillfully compounded, is free from injurious ingredients, and established for itself a reputation for the cure of these diseases. In this connection we would submit those well-known remedies—Hoofland's German Bitters, and Hoofland's German Tonic, prepared by Dr. C. M. JACKSON, PHILADELPHIA, PA. Thirty-five years since they were first introduced into this country from Germany, during which time they have undoubtedly performed more cures, and benefited suffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies known to the public.

These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Chronic Diarrhoea, Disease of the Kidneys, and all diseases arising from a disordered Liver, Stomach or Intestines.

DEBILITY RESULTING FROM ANY CAUSE whatever; Prostration of the System, induced by Severe Labor, Hardships, Exposure, Fever, &c. There is no medicine extant equal to these remedies in such cases. A tone and vigor is imparted to the whole system, the appetite is strengthened, food is enjoyed, the stomach digests properly, the blood is purified, the complexion becomes sound and healthy, the yellow tinge is eradicated from the eyes, a bloom is given to the cheeks, and the weak and nervous invalid becomes a strong and healthy being.

PERSONS ADVANCED IN LIFE, And feeling the hand of time weighing heavily upon them, with all its attendant ills, will find in the use of this Bitters, or the Tonic, an elixir that will instill new life into their veins, restore in a measure the energy and ardor of more youthful days, build up their shrunken forms, and give health and happiness to their remaining years.

It is a well established fact that fully one-half of the female portion of our population are seldom in the enjoyment of good health, or, to use their own expression, "never feel well." They are languid, devoid of all energy, extremely nervous, and have no appetite.

To this class of persons the Bitters, or the Tonic, is especially recommended. WEAK AND DELICATE CHILDREN Are made strong by the use of either of these remedies. They will cure every case of MARASMUS, without fail.

Thousands of certificates have accumulated in the hands of the proprietor, but space will allow of the publication of but a few. Those, it will be observed, are free of note, and of such standing that they must be believed.

Hon. Geo. W. Woodward, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pa., writes:—Philadelphia, March 16, 1867.—"I had Hoofland's German Bitters is a good tonic, useful in diseases of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility, and want of nervous action in the system."

Hon. James Thompson, Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania. PHILADELPHIA, April 28, 1866. "I consider Hoofland's German Bitters a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it. Yours, &c. JAMES THOMPSON."

From Rev. Joseph Kennard, D. D., Pastor of the Truth Baptist Church, Philadelphia. Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my own family of the use of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that, for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes. Yours, very respectfully, J. H. KENNARD."

CAUTION. Hoofland's German Remedies are counterfeited. See that the signature of C. M. JACKSON is on the wrapper of each bottle. All others are counterfeit. Principal Office, and Manufactory at the German Medicine Store, No. 63 ARCH-ST., Philadelphia, Pa.

CHARLES M. EVANS, Proprietor. Formerly C. M. JACKSON & Co. PRICES: Hoofland's German Bitters, per bottle, $1 00 " " " " " " half dozen, 5 00 Hoofland's German Tonic, put up in quart bottles, $1 50 per bottle, or a half dozen for $7 50.
