

The Death in Business.

In all parts of the country, and from persons engaged in almost every branch of industry or of commerce, come complaints of the stringency of money and the dullness of the times.

It now requires about one dollar and thirty-four cents in greenbacks to purchase a dollar in gold.

A new registry law was passed by the last Legislature, and has been approved by the Governor.

As a manual of reference, it is eminently fitted for use in families and schools.

NOTICE.—I have sold out my stock of Groceries to A. G. FRY, whom I cordially recommend to my old customers.

DISSOLUTION.—Notice is hereby given that the partnership heretofore existing between E. Boyce & Co., in the lumber business, was mutually dissolved in January, 1869.

DISSOLUTION.—The partnership heretofore existing under the name of Lent & Rodgers, in the carriage business, is this day dissolved by mutual consent.

BOOT AND SHOE EMPORIUM.—The subscriber begs leave to inform the public that he has opened out a Boot and Shoe Store in the rooms formerly occupied by Davis & Evans, on Center street, Ebsensburg.

NEW TAILOR SHOP.—The subscriber has removed his Tailor Shop into LEADER'S NEW BUILDING, on Center street, near Colowade Row, and respectfully informs his old customers and all the rest of mankind that he is now prepared to manufacture all kinds of GENTS AND YOUTHS WEARING APPAREL.

LEIGHTY'S WASHING MACHINE.—The subscriber begs leave to inform the public that he has invented a new and improved WASHING MACHINE!!

WASHING MACHINE!! (Patented.) and solicits the patronage of his friends and the public generally, feeling confident that he can give entire satisfaction.

REFERENCE.—J. Moore, Wm. Clement, W. D. Davis, Mrs. David Davis, D. O. Evans, T. M. Jones, and C. T. Roberts.

ALL orders addressed to WM. LEIGHTY, Ebsensburg, Pa., will be promptly attended to. [Apr. 22-ly.]

AUDITORS' NOTICE.—Morgan E. Strober and G. W. Stroncker for use of the material gathered and the whole batch baked by Jo Cost.

GINGER SNAPS.—This book contains the merriest thoughts of the merriest men; short, crisp, pungent, all selected with care so that they may be read by men, and women, boys and girls, at any time and place.

THE SOLDIERS' GRAVES.—General John A. Logan, Commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, has issued the following order:

General Orders No. 21.—1. The 30th day of March proximo—a day set apart by the Grand Army of the Republic to commemorate the glorious deeds of our departed comrades—will be observed throughout the United States in such manner as befits the solemnities of the occasion.

of increasing the amount of currency as the country requires it, so as not to suffer any relapse of prices until the bulk of our debt should be canceled.

If the country escapes, as we hope and believe it will, with no more serious disaster than a temporary stagnation in business, we ought all to rest content.

constant and significant event of Mr. Davis' administration, will be found to be his jealous repulsion of advisers and assistants, and his descent to rivalry in popularity with his subordinates and lieutenants.

He had, as we shall see, a puerile eagerness to appropriate all the honors of the Confederate cause, and to wear them conspicuously in the sight of the world.

It is the unfailing characteristic of the great man that he never descends to competition with his subordinates, but ingeniously takes every success of theirs as the source and sustenance of his own greatness.
