MEMORANDA.—Last week, we thought that spring had come. But we were mistaken. The robin, blue-bird, and martin, and the frog and the blue-bottle fly were here on a visit; but on Sunday, a snow storm chased them all away, and Monday an additional snow-storm sent them still further home. May they come back soon!

A young German lost $600 in Johannesburg one day last week. Of course he will never recover it... Rev. J. R. Sidman, of the U. B. Church, died at his residence, in Richland township, on the 24th ult. A young man named Savage, residing in Somerset county, committed suicide by hanging on the 23d ult., and a woman named Mrs. Catharine Mowery, residing in Bedford county, also put herself beyond the reach of trouble in this way by drowning herself the same day.

The barn and warehouse of Mr. Daniel Welty, Westmoreland county, were totally destroyed by fire on the 27 ult. The work of an incendiary... A Centre county cow recently gave birth to a calf without a tail... The Sarah Furnace coal house, containing about 125 loads of charcoal, was destroyed by fire on the 28th inst. Loss about $1,500. The rolling mill attached to the Juniata Iron Works, near Alexandria, Huntingdon county, was destroyed by fire on Sunday night. Loss heavy, but covered by insurance. On the evening of the 22d inst., two horses were stolen in Hill Valley, Huntingdon county, one from Seth E. Myers and the other from John Spanogle.

Christian Hanawalt, of Mount Union, was struck by passing engine on the P. R. R. on Thursday evening week, and was instantly killed. A man named Patrick Rice, white but laborated, attempted to crawl under a train of cars at Altoona on Friday evening last. White in transit, the cars started, knocking Patrick over and nearly through not quite reducing him to mementoes... A man named Harmony shot and killed a man named Spinal, near Chambersburg, on Monday week... Mr. Wm. Berkeley met with an accident last Saturday at his saw mill in Cambria township, by falling down and a log rolling over him. His injuries are not serious... Some countrymen came to town on Monday, got on an over-dose of benzine, engaged in a fight, and got hurt. He was fined $2.50 and sent for disorderly conduct... Miss M. Brockbank, of Ebensburg, has been appointed teacher of public school No. 8, Johnstown. A box containing about $30 was stolen from the office of the Williamsburg Manufacturing Co. on the evening of the 27th ult. A very interesting vocal concert was held at the Independent church, south of town, one night last week. The choir was under the leadership of Prof. Wm. Howell. It was largely attended... Henry Arnold, residing in Milford county, committed suicide by hanging on Sunday week... Col. James M. Swank, of the Johnstown Tribune, was in town on Tuesday, and called to see us... Ebensburg boasts of three velocipedes, and many number of accomplished velocipedians... Christopher Hanawalt, a Milford county farmer, was run over by the cars near Newton Hamilton on Thursday evening week, and was instantly killed... A vein of zinc ore has been discovered in Milford county.

LOOK OUT FOR HIM.—A fellow calling himself Parker, and who claims to be a stock dealer, visited a number of farmers in Jackson township with a view of buying their farms. After looking at the farms and staying a day or two, he concludes to buy on condition that he can purchase the adjoining farm. Thus, he spent a week or so in that section, in which time he succeeded in bargaining for some eight or ten farms. While on the hunt of more land, as he pretended, and during which time some one or two from whom he had bought were preparing to leave, this moneyed man was nowhere to be found, leaving that part of country to practice the same game elsewhere. We next hear of him in Alleghany township, where he had bargained for some ten thousand dollars worth of land. After staying a week or so among his landlords, he suddenly disappeared, doubtless to operate in some other locality.

FRIENDS, help us in the work of obtaining 200 subscribers by the 4th of July. We must have them.

TEMPERANCE, &c.—The subjoined communication has been handed us:—

MESSRS. EDITORS.—It is scarcely worth while to accumulate evidence to prove that precept and practice are two different things, or that very many men in this world who preach well are frequently very remiss in their own personal conduct. Yet the last Temperance Vindicator contains such a glaring example of Precept vs. Practice that I am tempted to refer to it. In the column and a half editorial devoted to The Alleghanian, in the issue of that paper for the present week, and in which your journal is spoken of as the "advocate of the whisky interest—the most contemptible and God-forsaken business that has the sanction of an infamous law"—occurs the following very forcible, if not very elegant, sentence: "We say whisky-selling is a murderous business, and the seller is a murderer, for he gives to men the wherewith to take their own lives, and that which causes them to murder their fellow men." Now turn, if you please, to the next page of the same number of this "Fireside Weekly," (being "red hot," of course the fireside, if not the fire without the side, is the proper place for it,) and you will find a somewhat elaborate and extremely complimentary notice of a "murderer" who pursues his murderous business of selling "liquid death" to "common bar-room loafers and whisky suckers" in the godly town of Hollidaysburg. True, the editor essays his conscience by saying that the "objectionable feature—a licensed liquor law—applies to all the other hotels in the place, and consequently christian and temperance people have no choice in the matter." But where is the need of a "red hot" temperance paper puffing any of them? What excuse can be offered for recommending a "murderer" to the patronage of "christian and temperance people?"

You fellows may be "fusil-fuddled" champions of "the most disgraceful occupation on earth," and all that sort of thing, but when you denounce a man in one column, even by implication, as a "murderer," and recommend him to the patronage of "christian and temperance people" in another, I want you to stop my paper instantly. Nor will I accept the excuse for puffing him offered by the Vindicator—namely, that he is a subscriber to your paper. In conclusion, it may not be out of place to say that this communication is not a "blast from a whisky hell" nor an emanation from any "boiling cauldron of damnation," but is the opinion, briefly expressed, of one who has never drank a drop of spirituous liquor as a beverage in all his life, and he is not as young a man as the editor of the Temperance Vindicator either. Consistency is indeed a jewel, which should be found as well in the glittering crown of temperance advocates as in that of all other great moral reformers.

Yours, &c. SUB ROSA.
Ebensburg, April 29, 1869.

CHILD DESERTION.—The Johnstown Tribune says that a woman hailing from Wilmore, with a small baby in her arms, called at the house of a resident of Conemaugh Borough one day last week, and upon pretense that she was about to rent a house in Johnstown, left the baby in the care of the mistress of the household, promising to return when she had succeeded in her object. She did return, and on some other pretense, again left. She has not yet called for the child, which has temporarily been given to a kind-hearted but childless woman for safe keeping. The heartless mother we learn is unmarried and the mother of two other children. The father of the deserted babe is said to be a resident of Wilmore.

COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT.—The convention of School Directors to elect a Superintendent of Common Schools for Cambria county met in Ebensburg on Tuesday. Present, 90 Directors. On motion, T. J. Chapman, A. M., was re-elected Superintendent by acclamation. The salary was continued at the former prevailing figure—$1,000 a year. Mr. Chapman is a competent and deserving man, and his re-election, and particularly by acclamation, is a compliment of which he may well feel proud.

TEACHERS' ADVOCATE.—Mr. Geo. W. Cope, editor of the Teachers' Advocate, having removed from Ebensburg to Johnstown, that paper will hereafter be published at the latter place. Mr. C. has been chosen Superintendent of Common Schools for Johnstown, for which position he is well qualified. We may add that the Teachers' Advocate is a very able educational journal, and worthy of very extended support. Every school teacher ought to take it.

A NUMBER of the juveniles of this place celebrated the May anniversary by holding a party in the town hall. They seemed to enjoy themselves very much, and were only sorry the occasion did not last longer.

LIST OF LETTERS.—Following is a list of uncalled-for letters remaining in the Ebensburg P. O. May 1, 1869:

Henry Altenbaugh 2, Ella Albaugh, Walburg Beringer, John Blichendorfer, John Campbell, Felix Doyle 2, Richard D. Davis, Asenith Davis, Jane Davis, Eliza Davis, Steven Davis, Mary Delehunt, Rebecca Evans, David E. Evans, Jr., Harrison Field, John Frighthouse, William Garner, Erastus E. Rager, J. Ripple, Christian Snyder, Rebecca Shaffer, Lizzie R. Shaffer, D. H. Thomas, A. Walters, J. B. Waddle, Ellis Westover.

EXTENSIVE ART GALLERY.—Next to the Bible, no book is more useful than Webster's Dictionary. The Unabridged is an extensive art-gallery, containing over three thousand engravings, representing almost every animal, insect, reptile, implement, plant, etc., which we know anything about. It is a vast library, giving information on most every mentionable subject. It indeed has been well remarked that it is the most remarkable compendium of human knowledge in our language.—Household Advocate.

NEW MAIL ROUTE.—We are informed that a new mail route will be instituted in Cambria county, commencing the first of July next. The route will extend from Carroltown by way of Glen Connell to Fallen Timber, in White township, and will be served once a week. This arrangement will prove a great convenience to a considerable body of people who have heretofore been practically cut off from the benefits of the mail service.

HANDBILLS.—During the past two weeks, we have printed an extraordinarily large number of handbills, to say nothing of other species of job work. We have lately added largely to our stock of job and display type, and the public appear to have discovered that our facilities for doing all sorts of job work are unsurpassed in this section. Pile in—we can accommodate all!

PATENT.—Among the patents issued from the United States Patent Office for the week ending April 27, 1869, we find the following: "Spool-case or cabinet," J. Patton Thompson, of Philadelphia." J. P. T. was formerly an Ebensburg, and is not unknown to fame as a patentee. We hope his invention may prove as much a success as he himself has proven a success as a gentleman and good fellow.

STRING BAND.—We understand some of our young men have organized a string band, which is composed of some of the best musical talent of the place. The band will be under the leadership of our musical friend, Prof. Geo. W. Jones. Let us hear from you.

BEAR IT IN MIND.—Travelers will find it to their interest to remember that the morning train will leave Ebensburg at 5:20 a. m. on Mondays. The balance of the week (Sundays excepted) it will leave at 7:40 a. m.

MARKET.—In the Ebensburg market, butter sells at 30 cents per pound; eggs, 15 cents per dozen; potatoes, $1.00 to $2.00 per bushel.

THE NEW COURT.—We are informed that the additional Court for Cambria county, at Johnstown, will be formally organized on the 5th of July next.

THE BOOK OF FORTUNE.—Everybody should have a copy of this work, published by our enterprising merchant, L. Mayer, of Johnstown. It is given away. By all means get one, and you will know where, when and how to buy cheap goods, besides many other useful things.

If you contemplate building, dear reader, we have a word of advice to whisper in your ear, which is this: Go to Humphrey's to buy all your necessary building fixtures and thus you will save money—reason, he sells cheaper than the cheapest.

STOCK OWNERS.—On receipt of 50 cents you can have forwarded to you the best receipt now in use, for making a condition powder for Horses, Mules, Cattle, Hogs and Sheep. Address for two weeks, Lock Box 12, Johnstown, Pa.

SEED POTATOES.—A car load of seed potatoes has been received by M. L. Oatman. Farmers and all others should avail themselves of the opportunity of getting all they want before they are disposed of. An endless variety on hand.

THE place to buy a coat, vest or pants, is at Leopold & Bro., of Johnstown. Or if you want a hat or cap, neck tie, suspenders, &c., go to this establishment. Everything very cheap. Beautiful new spring suits just received.

Go to L. Mayer's dry goods emporium in Johnstown if you want to buy any kind of dress goods, millinery goods, &c. He has by far the largest stock of goods ever brought to that place, as well as the cheapest.

ONE of the most wide-awake, go-ahead and indefatigable business men in town is V. S. Barker. He has received his spring goods and invites the public to drop in and examine prices and quality. Well directed energy never fails to pay—hence his prosperity.

The spring seems now to be fairly opening, and all who are engaged in building operations will find it an economy to buy any article they may need at T. W. Williams'. His stock is unlimited in variety.

For bargains in dress goods, clothing, boots and shoes, hats and caps, groceries, &c., go to the big store of A. A. Barker & Son. Customers waited upon by polite salesmen.

The finest and largest assortment of boots, shoes and gaiters ever offered to the public are now in store at R. R. Davis'. For cheapness they cannot be equaled.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC,
The Great Remedies for all Diseases of the Liver, Stomach or Digestive Organs.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS
Is composed of the purest juices (or, as they are medicinally termed, Extracts) of Roots, Herbs, and Bark, making a preparation, highly concentrated, and entirely free from alcoholic admixture of any kind.
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC
Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with the purest quality of Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, &c., making one of the most pleasant, agreeable remedies ever offered to the public.

Those preferring a Medicine free from Alcoholic admixture, will use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS. Those who have no objection to the combination of the Bitters, as stated, will use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC. They are both equally good, and contain the same medicinal virtues, the choice between the two being a mere matter of taste, the Tonic being the most palatable.

The stomach, from a variety of causes such as Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, etc., is very apt to have its functions deranged. The Liver, sympathizing as closely as it does with the Stomach, then becomes affected, the result of which is that the patient suffers from several or more of the following diseases:
Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fullness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or fluttering at the pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Harried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of vision, Dots or webs before the sight, dull pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, &c., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and great depression of Sp. Rts.

The sufferer from these diseases should exercise the greatest caution in the selection of a remedy for his case, purchasing only that which he is assured from his investigations and inquiries, possesses true merit, skillfully compounded, is free from injurious ingredients, and established for itself a reputation for the cure of these diseases. In this connection we would submit those well-known remedies—Hoofland's German Bitters, and Hoofland's German Tonic, prepared by DR. C. M. JACKSON, PHILADELPHIA, PA. Thirty-five years since they were first introduced into this country from Germany, during which time they have undoubtedly performed more cures, and benefited suffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies known to the public.

These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Chronic Diarrhea, Disease of the Kidneys, and all diseases arising from a disordered Liver, Stomach or Intestines.
DEBILITY RESULTING FROM ANY CAUSE whatever; Prostration of the System, induced by Severe Labor, Hardships, Exposure, Fever, &c.

There is no medicine extant equal to these remedies in such cases. A tone and vigor is imparted to the whole system, the appetite is strengthened, food is enjoyed, the stomach digests properly, the blood is purified, the complexion becomes sound and healthy, the yellow tinge is eradicated from the eyes, a bloom is given to the cheeks, and the weak and nervous invalid becomes a strong and healthy being.
PERSONS ADVANCED IN LIFE,
And feeling the hand of time weighing heavily upon them, with all the attendant ills, will find in the use of this Bitter, or Tonic, an elixir that will instill new life into their veins, restore in a measure the energy and ardor of more youthful days, build up their shrunken forms, and give health and happiness to their remaining years.
NOTICE!
It is a well established fact that fully one-half of the female portion of our population are seldom in the enjoyment of good health, or, to use their own expression, "never feel well." They are languid, devoid of all energy, extremely nervous, and have no appetite. To this class of persons the Bitters, or the Tonic, is especially recommended.
WEAK AND DELICATE CHILDREN are made strong by the use of either of these remedies. They will cure every case of MARASMUS, without fail.
Thousands of certificates have accumulated in the hands of the proprietor, but space will allow of the publication of but a few. Those, it will be observed, are from men of note, and of such standing that they must be believed.

TESTIMONIALS:
Hon. Geo. W. Woodward, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pa., writes—Philadelphia, March 16, 1867. "I find Hoofland's German Bitters to be a good tonic, useful in diseases of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility, and want of nervous action in the system."
"Yours, truly, Geo. W. Woodward."
Hon. James Thompson, Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, writes—PHILADELPHIA, April 28, 1866.
"I consider Hoofland's German Bitters a valuable medicine in cases of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it."
Yours, &c.
"JAMES THOMPSON."

From Rev. Joseph Kennard, D. D., Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia. Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my own family of the use of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that, for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes.
Yours, very respectfully,
"J. H. KENNARD."
