M., connecting with Philadelphia and Pittsburgh Express West, and Southern Express East. At 10:10 P. M., connecting with Mail Train West and Philadelphia Express East. LEAVE CRESSON—At 9:20 A. M., or on departure of Pittsburgh Express West. At 8:31 P. M., or on departure of Mail Train West.

DECEMBER DAY.—Last Saturday was decoration day—the day when the graves of the heroes of the late war were visited by their living friends and companions, and strewn with flowers to keep their memory green. Notwithstanding that rains and storms prevailed for thirty hours preceding, the day was warm and the sky cloudless. The very heavens smiled auspiciously on the solemn and appropriate ceremonies.

According to previous arrangement, the soldiers and citizens of the place and vicinity met at the Court House at one o'clock, p. m. They were formed into one grand division, in the following order: Martial Band. Sing dressed in mourning, and borne by Sergeants Humphreys and Stiles. Color Sergeants in the late war. Officiating Clergymen. Decorating Committee of thirty young ladies. Division, composed of one hundred soldiers, each wearing a red-white-and-blue rosette.

The division was under the command of the following officers: Chief Marshal, Samuel W. Davis. Assistant Marshals, John D. Barkley, William H. Seebler. Captain of Company, George W. Brown. At 1:30 o'clock, the procession took up its line of march. The Catholic Cemetery was first visited. The several graves therein, to the memory of three, were strewn with garlands of evergreen and flowers. After which, Rev. R. C. Christy delivered an appropriate address. The Congregational Cemetery was next visited. Two graves were here decorated. The address was delivered by Rev. W. H. Seebler.

The graves were the next, and last, visited. The number of soldiers interred therein is eleven. Their graves were wreathed with evergreens and flowers. — Mrs. T. R. Jones, and B. M. Kerr, each delivered an address. All the addresses were replete with eloquent and touching allusion to the useful lives and heroic deaths of our soldiers, some of whom slept at home, among friends and kindred, while many—oh! how many—were mouldering into dust in the far-away battle-fields of the blood-stained South.

A prayer was delivered at each Cemetery, and a national ode was also sung. Following is a list of the soldiers buried in our cemeteries: James C. Noos, Adj. 133d P. V., killed at Gettysburg, Va., Dec. 13, 1862. Thomas D. Litzinger, Adj. 11th Pa. Reserves, died. Andrew J. Litzinger, drummer Co. F., 1st P. V. died. George W. Todd, Major 91st P. V., killed at Fredericksburg, Va., Dec. 13, 1862. Edward E. Davis, Co. A., 11th Pa. Reserves, died. Evan R. Davis, First Lieutenant Co. D, 15th P. V., killed at Chancellorsville, May 3d, 1863. Thom Jones, Second Lieutenant Co. C., 2nd P. V., killed at receipt of Fort Steadman, Va. March 25, 1865. Lewis T. Evans, Co. A., 54th Emergency Regiment, died. Adam Shireffelt, Co. C., 200th P. V., died. David S. Jones, Co. E., 4th P. V. M., died. Thomas J. Evans, Corporal Co. C., 200th P. V., killed at Gettysburg, Va., April 3d, 1863. William E. Roberts, Co. D, 5th Pa. Heavy Artillery, died in hospital at Alexandria, Va. Grenville Evans, Co. A., 11th Pa. Reserves, died in hospital. James Roberts, Army of the South-west, died. John S. Libby, Army of the Potomac, died in hospital at Washington.

The stores, shops, and places of business in town, we believe without exception, were closed during the continuation of the ceremonies, and the Court House bell and the several church bells were tolled at proper intervals. The procession returned to the Court House and was disbanded at four o'clock. All in all, the day was well observed. Each citizen vied with all others to do honor to the memory of our lamented dead. Memorial day, we think, will hereafter be kept in Ebensburg as religiously as any holiday in the calendar.

SERENADE.—We return our thanks to the Loretto College Brass Band for the honor of a serenade last Monday. The young gentlemen composing the Band visited town for a day's recreation, and while here discoursed some excellent music. We hope they will call and see us often.

BASE BALL.—A meeting of the Mountaineer Base Ball Club will be held in the Court House this (Thursday) evening, at 8 o'clock. A full attendance is requested, as business of importance will be transacted.

MEMORANDA.—Court begins next Monday. We hope all our subscribers who may visit town will visit us, see our new office, pay their subscriptions, and go back home wiser and better men....The Secretary of the British Legation and other distinguished Europeans made a tour of inspection of the Cambria Iron Works, Johnstown, on Monday week....Butter has gone down to 25 cents per pound....The two Hollidaysburg nail factories have stopped operations....Thomas Morrow, of Altoona, has been appointed mail agent on the P. R. R. between Altoona and Pittsburgh....On Friday last, a German emigrant was robbed of 4,000 francs on the railroad between Millin and Altoona. The money was contained in a belt, buckled around his waist, which was cut and carried off. The thief was not discovered....James Watt, conductor of a freight train on the P. R. R., while looking out of an engine window, was struck on the head by a car on a side track. He was severely but not dangerously injured....Bryan's circus is said by the papers to be a humbug and a swindle....The clothing of a little girl residing in Saltsburg took fire from a stove one day last week, and she was badly burned before the flames could be extinguished....Fourth of July comes on Sunday. By legal enactment, Monday, the fifth, will be observed....The Pittsburgh Commercial and our old friend Hon. George Wilson, of Allegheny, are quarrelling. George wants to go to the State Senate, and the Commercial thinks he isn't fit for the position....We have received a copy of the Pittsburgh Dispatch, asking a puff for a proposed enlargement of that paper. We decline, at any price, to puff the Dispatch....Thad. Banks, Esq., of Hollidaysburg, is suggested as the next Democratic candidate for the Legislature in Blair county....The Cresson Mountain House will be opened for guests on the 15th inst....R. J. Hughes, formerly of Ebensburg, has been appointed second assistant Auditor of the Pennsylvania Railroad....A new Republican paper will be established in Greensburg soon....A. M. Henderson, of Bolivar, was run over by the cars near Johnstown on the 24th ult., and was instantly killed....Hon. Jerry S. Black had his arm broken in four places by a recent railroad accident between Louisville and Nashville....Richard Elder, of Chest township, was kicked in the breast by a horse on Thursday last and severely injured.

LOCAL POLITICS.—E. S. Alleghanian: Last week, I said that John Porter, member of the last House of Representatives, would have no opposition for re-nomination. I have since learned that several Democrats—names to be mentioned hereafter—would have no objection to seizing the dear people in the capacity named, and that Mr. P. will have to hoe a hard row to make the landing.

Besides Outman and McKernan, James M. Singer, of Jackson township, is out for Register and Recorder. James is a reasonably smart young man—can write either prose or poetry—is five feet ten inches high—and will therefore be a formidable candidate.

Capt. William Linton, of Johnstown, would like to be County Treasurer. His chances are good as the best, and he would make a strong candidate, and, in case of election, an efficient officer.

For County Commissioner, Patrick O'Donoghue, of Alleghany township, is named. His name ought to commend him to favorable consideration.

Familiarity breeds contempt; filth breeds a pestilence; the months of May and June breed a swarm of officers-hunters in Democratic Cambria. The office ought to seek the man; but here, a score of men seek the office. Some of them will be disappointed. OBSERVER.

LIST OF LETTERS.—Following is a list of letters remaining in the Ebensburg Post office, June 1, 1869:

TEMPERANCE.—On our first page today we print the initial number of a series of letters on temperance, written by a gentleman fully competent to do the subject justice. We ask for it, and for the letters which shall follow, a careful perusal.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.

LETTER FROM CRESSON—THE SUMMER RESORTS—FIXING UP FOR THE HOT SEASON—A NEW BELL FOR LORETTO—THE CROPS—MATTERS HYMNICAL, &c., &c. CRESSON May 28, 1869.

To the Editors of The Alleghanian: Let your readers may come to the conclusion that your correspondent is dead or has run off, or that some infuriated and indignant monster finding himself herculean in muscular accomplishments has wiped out, decapitated or lusted him, I have concluded to try and gather together a few items, and have another little chat with the readers of The Alleghanian, though this time from this city of fashion.

Just now, Cresson is very dull. Persons who had been here in the summer coming here now would not recognize it to be the same place. Now, the walks are not thronged with fine and fashionable clothing on the backs of the bon ton and elite of the cities, as then, but instead we have the good, honest mechanic and laboring man—the "bone and sinew" of the country—who are here repairing and fixing up this popular summer resort regardless of expense. Everything in connection with the hotel is being refitted, with a view of making it as comfortable as possible.

Wm. Callan, Esq., proprietor of the Callan Hotel, is also repairing and refitting his house in the most elegant and attractive style, with a determination of not being surpassed by any in his line. Mr. Callan keeps one of the best regulated and most comfortable hotels in the country.

The good people of Loretto have finally got a bell for St. Mary's Church of that place. It is a very fine one, and weighs 1,100 pounds. I believe it is one of the finest bells in this part of the country. Its tone is clear and very loud, and it will be a decided ornament to the place.

In a little trip to the country a few days ago, I noticed the very promising appearance of the crops. Fall grain at this time of the year never looked better; the grass looks promising, and if Jack Frost keeps off, there will be an abundance of fruit. Altogether, the prospects are good, and decidedly encouraging to those who have recently embarked in the ship hymenal.

Speaking of matter pertaining to life here one reminds me of the many notices contained in your last issue of our young friends, who have "gone and done it."—Some of them are old school mates of your correspondent. They are good fellows, and I wish them all the happiness that wedlock in its brightest form affords.—And I might add that if you have any more young ladies who are inclined that way, just say to them that there is an old back at Cresson who would like to take a hand and who will never play it alone if he can get a partner. ACORN.

LETTER FROM CARROLLTOWN—RELIGIOUS CEREMONIES—MORE IMPROVEMENTS, &c., &c. CARROLLTOWN May 31, 1869.

To the Editors of The Alleghanian: The most interesting local affair that took place here last week was the grand procession and benediction, in honor of the establishment of the blessed Sacrament, on the festival of Corpus Christi. It is estimated that not less than two thousand persons took part in the procession and witnessed the grand ceremonies of the occasion. A large and selected choir of singers with the Brass Band belonging to our town rendered the music on the occasion in a most beautiful and agreeable manner, pleasing to the ear and touching to the heart.

In addition to the improvements mentioned in my last, I may add that what promises to be a fine dwelling, for the use of Mrs. Mary Buck, is in progress of erection at the southern end of town. At about the middle of the village a huge pile of stone will put the stranger on the inquiry which will be answered Blum is about putting up a fine cellar of large proportions, arched overhead, &c., for the preservation of lager beer and such other uses as a good brewery suggests.

And now, dear Alleghanian, there is another and an important improvement that does not confine itself to the borough that is well worthy of mention. I mean an improvement in the manner of farming in our rural district that already speaks in the most eloquent terms to all our farmers by the appearance and promise of our growing crops. I trust this may only be the entering wedge of a spirited rivalry among our farmers to destroy, not alone break up, the old careless system of conducting a farm. Let any person go look at many acres of the farm belonging to the Brothers here, that a few years ago were acres of stumps, but are now in lieu of hundreds of that unprofitable and unbeautiful class of landor. R. Thomas; Kate Trainer; Maggie Tierney; J. Wherley; J. P. Way; Sylvester Wenkland; Andrew Wielle; Geo. Williams; Clem Williams.

On this subject, more again. Yours &c., Fuzzy-Buzzy.

MAN KILLED.—On Saturday last an appalling accident occurred near Pine Flat, Indiana county. A man named McCulloch was engaged at some sort of work in a steam saw-mill. By some mischance, he fell against a circular saw in full motion, and was cut in pieces. One report says he was cut in half through the abdomen; another says that one of his arms was cut off and that he was otherwise horribly mutilated. He died almost instantly.

THE STORM.—A terrific storm passed over this section of country on Monday. The damage done in this immediate neighborhood was not great, but we learn that in other sections the effects were most disastrous. In many places, trees were torn up by the roots, houses unroofed, and fields of grain destroyed. We hear that a house near Johnstown was razed by the wind. Hail fell in many places, and much damage was done to windows and the growing crops.

JOHNSTOWN DRUG STORE.—We publish to day an advertisement of the Johnstown Drug Store, C. T. Frazer proprietor. This is one of the oldest drug stores in the State, and the measure of prosperity and popularity which it has attained is evidence that it is one of the most reliable. We commend it and its proprietor to the favorable consideration of our readers.

ACCIDENT.—On Monday, Mr. George Tiley met with a narrow escape from death at Lilly's station. He was standing on the track, when a train struck him, knocking him clear of the wheels of the car but seriously though not fatally injuring him.

READ THIS.—A place to buy good cheap Tea and Coffee. The Empire Tea and Coffee Co., of New York, have appointed V. S. Barker, of this place, their agent for the sale of their choice Teas and Coffees. Below will be found the prices of Teas. Any person on looking it over can see for themselves that they can save from 25 to 50 per cent. by purchasing from him: Best Black, per lb. $1.30; Y. Hyson, 1.00; Japan 1.35; Eng. Breakfast 1.35; Imperial 1.00; Gun Powder 7.00; Eng. Breakfast Coffee 30 cents per pound; Java 35.

GROCERIES.—We earnestly recommend our readers when in want of groceries to give our merchant friend Ostman a call, as he is the only one in town who makes this branch of business a specialty. His stock is large and choice, and his prices decidedly lower than the lowest. Martin is a capital fellow, clever, accommodating, and polite, dealing alike to all, to both little and big—one price to all. He buys for cash and sells for cash. Ten per cent. saved by buying at this store.

SHOEMAKER'S CHEAP STORE.—Messrs H. A. Shoemaker & Co's. Store, located on High Street, Ebensburg, offers inducements to purchasers of goods rarely to be found anywhere. Their stock comprises every article kept in a well-regulated dry goods store. In addition to their dry goods department, there is also a large and varied stock of clothing, hats, caps, boots, shoes, etc. Go and see.

FACTS.—That Mayer's store in Johnstown is the headquarters for the latest styles of dress goods, millinery, notions, etc. It is the largest store, sells more goods, and cheaper than all other dry goods merchants combined in Johnstown. When you go to Johnstown, buy from this store and no other, if you want bargains.

NEW GOODS.—Barker & Son have just received their new goods, embracing a general assortment of dry goods, dress goods, notions, clothing, hats and caps, boots and shoes, &c., &c. Their stock of clothing is of the latest and most fashionable styles in the market. See their goods before buying elsewhere.

$1,000 REWARD.—Will be paid for any one who can find a place where clothing is sold as cheap as Leopold & Bro., of Johnstown, are now offering to the trade. All garments guaranteed to fit and at lower prices than can be bought at any similar establishment in Johnstown.

THE NEW STORE.—Fry's new dry goods and dress store seems to be the center of attraction. Go when you will, his store is filled to its utmost with eager purchasers of the cheap and beautiful goods he is offering to the public. He sells cheaper than all his competitors.

HARDWARE.—The most extensive variety of Hardware in western Penna. is that kept by Geo. Huntley at his large and extensive rooms on High-st. Everything is sold exceedingly low. Everybody buys there.—So ought you, reader, if you are not already one of his customers.

SPENCE, the popular artist, never fails to give satisfaction to those who favor him with their patronage. It is a fact undeniable that Spence takes by far the most correct likeness of any artist in the country.

For choice navy tobacco go to T. W. Williams' store, south-west corner of Diamond. This is the best navy in town. Buy it. Try it.

TO THE WORKING CLASS!—I am now prepared to furnish all classes with constant employment at their homes, the whole of the time, or for the spare moments. Business new, light and profitable. Fifty cents to $5 per evening, is easily earned by persons of either sex, and the boys and girls earn nearly as much as men. Great inducements are offered those who will devote their time to the business; and, that every person who sees this notice, may send me their address and test the business for themselves, I make the following unparalleled offer: To all who are not well satisfied with the business, I will send $1 to pay for the trouble of writing me. Full particulars, directions, &c., sent free. Sample sent by mail for 10 cents. Address E. C. Allen Augusta, Maine. [March 11-3m.

PRICES GOING DOWN!

AT THE EBENSBURG HARDWARE & HOUSE FURNISHING STORE.

I once more return my sincere thanks to my old friends and customers for their liberal patronage extended towards me, and now, owing to the great fall in prices, by which many articles can be sold as cheap as before the war, and having a thorough knowledge of the business and the wants of the public, I take pleasure in announcing that I can and will sell goods at a less figure than any similar establishment in city or country.

My stock will consist in part as follows: DOOR AND CUPBOARD LOCKS, CATCHES, BOLTS, HINGES, SCREWS, WINDOW SPRINGS, SHUTTER HINGES, WINDOW GLASS, NAILS, PUTTY, BORING MACHINES, AUGERS, CHISELS, BRACES AND BITS, HATCHETS, SQUARES, COMPASSES, TRY SQUARES, BEVELS, POCKET RULES, JACK, SMOOTHING, AND FOR PLANES, PANEL PLOWS, LEVELS, SASH, RAISING, AND MATCH PLANES, SAW SETS, BENCH SCREWS, CROSS-CUT, PANEL, RIP, COMPASS, AND BACK SAWS, GAUGES, OIL STONES, SCREW DRIVERS, PLOWS, POINTS, SHOVELS, FORKS, SCYTHES AND SNATHES, RAKES, HOES, SPADES, SHEEP SHEARS, HORSE BRUSHES, CARDS, CURRY COMBS, BELLS, HAMES, WHIPS, BUT, TRACE, BREASt, HALTER, FITH, TONGUE, AND LOG CHAINS, RIFLES, SHOT GUNS, REVOLVERS, AND PISTOLS, CARTRIDGES, POWDER, SHOT, CAPS, LEAD, POUCHES, POWDER FLASKS, GAME BAGS, GUN LOCKS, MAIN SPRINGS, PIVOTS, &c. LAMPS AND OILS, COOKING, PARLOR, & HEATING STOVES, TIN AND SHEET IRON WARE, WASHING MACHINES, AND WRINGERS, &c., &c., &c., &c., &c. Also—FLOUR, TEA, COFFEE, SUGAR, &c. Odd Stone Plates, Grates, and Fire Brick always on hand to suit Stoves sold by me. Well and Cistern Pumps and Tubing at manufacturers' prices. Spouting made, painted, and put up, at low rates. Persons owing me debts of long standing will confer a favor by calling and paying up as soon as convenient, as it takes a great deal of money to keep up my stock and pay expenses, and owing to the small profits that I am making on goods I cannot afford to give long credit—the interest would soon eat up the profits. HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC, The Great Remedies for all Diseases of the Liver, Stomach or Digestive Organs.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS is composed of the pure juices (or, as they are medicinally termed, Extracts) of Root, Herbs, and Bark, making a preparation, highly concentrated, and entirely free from alcoholic admixture of any kind.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with the purest quality of Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, &c., making one of the most pleasant, agreeable remedies ever offered to the public.

Those preferring a Medicine free from Alcoholic admixture, will use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS. Those who have no objection to the combination of the Bitters, as stated, will use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

They are both equally good, and contain the same medicinal virtues, the choice between the two being a mere matter of taste, the Tonic being the most palatable. The stomach, from a variety of causes such as Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, etc., is very apt to have its functions deranged. The Liver, sympathizing as closely as it does with the Stomach then becomes affected, the result of which is that the patient suffers from several or more of the following diseases:

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fullness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or fluttering at the pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Headache or Difficulty of Breathing, Fluctuating at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of vision, Dots or webs before the sight, dull pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginations of Evil, and great depression of Spirits.

The sufferer from these diseases should exercise the greatest caution in the selection of a remedy for his case, purchasing only that which he is assured from his investigations and inquiries, possesses true merit, is skillfully compounded, is free from injurious ingredients, and established for itself a reputation for the cure of these diseases. In this connection we would submit those well-known remedies—Hoofland's German Bitters, and Hoofland's German Tonic, prepared by DR. C. M. JACKSON, PHILADELPHIA, PA. Thirty-five years since they were first introduced into this country from Germany, during which time they have undoubtedly performed more cures, and effected more suffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies known to the public.

These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Chronic Diarrhoea, Disease of the Kidneys, and all diseases arising from a disordered Liver, Stomach or Intestines.

DEBILITY RESULTING FROM ANY CAUSE whatever; Prostration of the System, induced by Severe Labor, Hardships, Exposure, Fever, &c. There is no medicine extant equal to these remedies in such cases. A tone and vigor is imparted to the whole system, the appetite is strengthened, food is enjoyed, the stomach digests properly, the blood is purified, the complexion becomes sound and healthy, the yellow tinge is eradicated from the eyes, a bloom is given to the cheeks, and the weak and nervous invalid becomes a strong and healthy being.

PERSONS ADVANCED IN LIFE. And feeling the hand of time weighing heavily upon them, with all its attendant ills, will find in the use of this Bitters, or the Tonic, an elixir that will instil new life into their veins, restore in a measure the energy and ardor of more youthful days, build up their shrunken forms, and give health and happiness to their remaining years.

NOTICE: It is a well established fact that fully one-half of the female portion of our population are seldom in the enjoyment of good health, or, to use their own expression, "never feel well." They are languid, devoid of all energy, extremely nervous, and have no appetite.

To this class of persons the Bitters, or the Tonic, is especially recommended. WEAK AND DELICATE CHILDREN Are made strong by the use of either of these remedies. They will cure every case of MARASMOUS, without fail.

Thousands of certificates have accumulated in the hands of the proprietor, but space will allow of the publication of but a few.—Those, it will be observed, are from men of note, and of such standing that they must be believed.

TESTIMONIALS: Hon. Geo. W. Woodward, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pa., writes:—Philadelphia, March 16, 1867.—I find Hoofland's German Bitters is a good tonic, useful in diseases of the Digestive Organs, and of great benefit in cases of Debility, and want of nervous action in the system.

"Yours, truly, Geo. W. Woodward." Hon. James Thompson, Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania. PHILADELPHIA, April 28, 1866.

"I consider 'Hoofland's German Bitters' a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it. Yours, &c. "JAMES THOMPSON."

From Rev. Joseph Kennard, D. D., Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia. Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in my own family of the use of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that, for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes. Yours, very respectfully, "J. H. KENNARD."

CAUTION. Hoofland's German Remedies are counterfeited. See that the signature of C. M. JACKSON is on the wrapper of each bottle. All others are counterfeit.

Principal Office, and Manufactory at the German Medicine Store, No. 53 ARCH-ST., Philadelphia, Pa. CHARLES M. EVANS, Proprietor. Formerly C. M. JACKSON & Co.

PRICES: Hoofland's German Bitters, per bottle, $1 00 "Half dozen, 5 00 Hoofland's German Tonic, put up in quart bottles, $1 50 per bottle, or a half-dozen for $7 50.

Do not forget to examine well the article you buy, in order to get the genuine. For sale by all Druggists and Storekeepers every where. [19-6m]
