OUR COUNTY COMMITTEE.—The Republican County Committee met in the Court House on Monday last. They organized in an out-of-the-way upstairs room. Not only that, but they sat with closed doors. Everybody excepting members of the Committee were barred out.

We submit that the proceedings of the Committee should have been open and above-board. All Republicans have a right to know what is done or is being done by their servants. The idea was a mistaken one, and we hope never to see the experiment repeated.

Another thing: The custom has long prevailed of allowing the County Committee to designate the preference of the Republicans of the county for certain officers. The choice of the Committee on Monday—Gen. John W. Geary for Governor—undoubtedly reflects the wishes of nine-tenths of our voters. But by what vote was he chosen? Why, 16 to 14.

The Committee was chosen a year ago, and without consideration having been given to the fact that they would be called on to express our choice for any office. It is easy to be seen that such a body might make a selection which would be utterly repugnant to a majority of our voters. We think the County Convention should perform all such work. A Convention could be called for an early enough day, and the delegates would be fresh from the people, and could and no doubt would reflect the wishes of their respective constituencies. At any rate, this could not fail to be an improvement on the Committee system.

MEMORANDA.—Gen. T. J. Power, formerly Superintendent of the Portage Road, has been appointed disbursing clerk in the office of the Register of the Treasury at Washington. Hollidaysburg is bothered by burglars. A lodge of the Knights of Pythias has been instituted at Huntington. A young German was run over by the cars and killed near Lewisburg on Thursday morning week. A young man named Michael Hart was instantly killed by a fall of slate in a coal bank in Sewickly township, Bedford county, on the 25th ult. A young man named William Mutzbaugh was drowned in the Susquehanna, at Duncannon, on Thursday. He was swimming after a skiff that had broken from its mooring, and was seized with cramp. There was some frost Monday morning. No damage done to the crops. Davy Powell has not yet heard of his "departed spirits" spoken of by us a couple of weeks ago. But the other day, he received a new supply for his bar, in the shape of some twenty gallons Overholt. He was afraid of further mishaps, and so went only a half barrel this time. Prof. T. J. Chapman, A. M., will teach the Normal School at Loretto. Term to commence the 21st of June, and to continue two months. The Cambria county Democratic Convention is called to meet in Ebensburg on the 23rd inst. A third party, supposed to be implicated in the Clearfield bank robbery, was arrested in Jefferson city, Mo., last week. He is now in jail in Clearfield.

LOCAL POLITICS.—Eds. Alleg.—Last week, I stated in general terms that Mr. John Porter would have considerable trouble securing the re-nomination for Assembly. This week I will be more definite. Mr. John E. McKenzie, of Chest Springs, is an aspirant for the position, and I understand that he has the promise, either express or implied, of the support of many high in authority in the Democratic ranks. If Major Potts only holds off, it will be a pretty tight fight between Porter and McKenzie.

Mr. Edward McGlade, of Washington township, would not be averse to taking the office of Register and Recorder. Mr. Anthony Anna, of Chest, and Mr. John Neason, of Clearfield, are also on the carpet for something or another. The Dem. Co. met in the Court House Tuesday, when, no doubt, a state was made out. We shall see.

NEW BOOK.—The American Reformed Horse Book. A new work on the Horse, giving a treatise on the causes, symptoms and cure of every disease incident to the horse, by Prof. Geo. H. Dadd, Veterinary Surgeon. The importance of such a work to the farmer and stock owner can not be over estimated. It contains more information than any similar work ever before printed. It is a large and beautifully bound book. Price $3. Elbridge Stiles is agent for this county, to whom all subscriptions must be given.

DENTISTRY.—Dr. D. W. Zeigler will be in town next week. All persons suffering from defective molars or incisors should visit him, for he is an able and experienced dentist. Rooms at the "Mountain House."

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE. LETTER FROM JOHNSTOWN.—DECORATION OF SOLDIERS' GRAVES.—EXHIBITIONS AND AMUSEMENTS.—THE DISTRICT COURT QUESTION.—PICNIC AND STORM.—FIRE, &c. JOHNSTOWN June 7, 1869.

Locals have been scarce for some time, and so I have to write anything and everything I can get hold of to make a letter. In the first place, I will notice the decoration of the soldiers' graves, on Saturday, 29th ult. The display was very imposing. The procession formed on Franklin street, the left resting on Washington street. Marched to Lutheran burying ground; then to Union burying ground; from there to Catholic burying ground; thence to Sandy Vale cemetery, where very imposing ceremonies took place in honor of our departed heroes, who, I hope, may never be forgotten by those left behind.

The Mission School of Millville Borough, assisted by several members of the Forest Dramatic Association, will give two exhibitions on Saturday and Monday evenings, June 12th and 14th, at Union Hall. The object is to procure clothing for the children connected to the Mission. Mr. A. J. Hawes is Superintendent of the School. The Wallace Sisters Burlesque Troupe gave three entertainments at Union Hall, on Friday, Saturday, and Monday, May 23d, 24th, and 26th. They had very good houses.

Bryan's Caravan and Circus will give an exhibition on Public Square, on Thursday, June 10th.

Things are lively in relation to the much talked of district court. I see by last week's Johnstown Democrat that Judge Easley defends himself in a very able manner from the attacks of certain malcontents.

The Kicknapawing Tribe of Red Men held a picnic at Woodvale grove on Monday, May 31st, which netted them a handsome sum. The festivities of the day were somewhat spoiled by a terrific storm which passed through this section in the afternoon. Considerable damage was done. Trees were torn out by the roots, several cows were killed, and the Johnstown Manufacturing Co. lost about 75,000 brick by the storm.

On Saturday evening last, about nine o'clock, the grocery store situated on Franklin street, adjoining Parke's Marble yard, and occupied by Mr. David G. McCullough, took fire. The fire originated from a lamp being in too close proximity to a barrel of oil. The Assistance Fire Company being promptly on the ground, the flames were soon subdued with very little damage to stock or building. DIO.

LETTER FROM HEMLOCK.—A VARIETY OF NEWS.—WILD GAME, &c., &c. HEMLOCK, June 7, 1869. To the Editors of The Alleghanian: On Sunday last—the better the day the better the deed—a very exciting chase was had in this neighborhood by two well known sportsmen, Messrs. G. and M. The chase was after a wild animal. The wild animal was a groundhog. The dog that did the chasing was named Bingo. Perhaps you have heard of him: B-i-n-g-o—B-i-n-g-o—B-i-n-g-o—Bingo was his name.

After a long and tiresome run, the groundhog was holed, captured, slain, skinned and eaten. The sportsmen were and are covered with glory.

There is no coal miners' strike here, and so news is scarce. After a while, you may hear from me again. DODO.

A DAILY COMPANION.—Webster's Unabridged Dictionary has been in common with other great lexicons of the English language, one of my daily companions. My testimonial to its erudition, the accuracy of its definitions, and to the vast etymological research by which it has been enriched through the labors recently bestowed upon it, can hardly be of much value, sustained as the book is in world-wide reputation, by so general an approbation; but I have no hesitation in thus expressing my sense of its merits. JOHN L. MOTLEY.

ACCIDENT.—One day last week a young lad named Fuskey, and a young girl named Bowers, while on their way to this place on horseback, met with an accident by their horses taking fright from some cattle near the road side, and precipitating them to the ground, seriously injuring the young lady from the fall. The young man sustained injuries about the head by being trampled by the horse. The accident happened in the vicinity of Munster.

PEOPLE in attendance at court should avail themselves of the opportunity of visiting Oatman's cheap store, where all manner of goods are sold decidedly lower than elsewhere in Ebensburg, or indeed in the county. The proprietor, Mr. Ottman, is one of those clever, accommodating gentlemen with whom you will like to deal. Those who price his goods never fail to buy.

A LUSUS NATURÆ.—Our old friend and subscriber, Mr. Hugh Gallagher, near Loretto, writes us that a queer goslin was hatched on his premises lately. It had three perfect legs, two in the natural places, and the third between the other two. Unfortunately for the scientific world, it died soon after its birth.

NEW STORE.—Messrs. George C. K. Zahn & Son have just opened out a new store on Main street. It is filled from garret to cellar with the best of goods, all of which are being sold at astonishingly low prices. Give them a call and see for yourself. Advertisement elsewhere.

LEG BROKEN.—On Saturday last, Casper McCartney, while engaged in the erection of a barn in Jackson township, had one of his legs broken below the knee, by the falling of a piece of timber which was being elevated to the top of the building.

Fry has received another fine assortment of cloths, cassimeres, doe-skings, and ladies' dress goods. He is selling wonderfully cheap and giving bargains to everybody who patronizes him. He has a bargain for you, reader.

IN TOWN.—Messrs. M'Divitt of the Huntingdon Journal and H. D. Woodruff of the Johnstown Democrat are in town, and paid us a visit. Come a gain.

CAUGHT.—We learn that the Altoona incendiaries, to the number of six or eight, have at last been caught. Particulars next week.

DIED.—In Alleghany township, on Friday 4th inst, Mary Eleanor, wife of E. C. M'Mullen, aged 43 years.

If a body meet a body Coming down the street, Would it be any harm to look what That body had upon his feet; And if that body's shoes are toin, It would be no harm to say to him Shoemaker keeps the best to wear. Oh, if a body would buy from us, Instead of spending for "rye," They would always please the women in shoes. And you'll never hear them sigh. H. A. Shoemaker & Co., dealers in everything, High Street, Ebensburg.

READ THIS.—A plea to buy good cheap Tea and Coffee. The Empire Tea and Coffee Co. of New York, have appointed V. S. Barker, of this place, their agent for the sale of their choice Teas and Coffees. Below will be found the prices of Teas. Any person on looking it over can see for themselves that they can save from 25 to 50 per cent by purchasing from him. Best Black, per lb $1.20; Y. Hyson, 1460; Japan 1455; Eng. Breakfast 1385; Imperial 1600; Gun Powder 1600; Eng. Breakfast Coffee 20 cents per pound; Java 30.

GROCERIES.—We earnestly recommend our readers when in want of groceries to give our merchant friend Oatman a call, as he is the only one in town who makes this branch of business a specialty. His stock is large and choice, and his prices are decidedly lower than the lowest. Martin is a capital fellow, clever, accommodating, and polite, dealing alike to all, to both little and big—one price to all. He buys for cash and sells for cash. Ten per cent. saved by buying at this store.

FACTS.—That Mayer's store in Johnstown is the headquarters for the latest styles of dress goods, millinery notions, etc., it is the largest store, sells more goods, and cheaper than all other dry goods merchants combined in Johnstown. When you go to Johnstown, buy from this store and no other, if you want bargains.

NEW GOODS.—Barker & Son have just received their new goods, embracing a general assortment of dry goods, dress goods, notions, clothing, hats and caps, boots and shoes, &c., &c. Their stock of clothing is of the latest and most fashionable styles in the market. See their goods before buying elsewhere.

$1,000 REWARD.—Will be paid for any one who can find a place where clothing is sold as cheap as Leopold & Bro., of Johnstown, are now offering to the trade. All garments guaranteed to fit and at lower prices than can be bought at any similar establishment in Johnstown.

THE NEW STORE.—Fry's new dry goods and dress store seems to be the center of attraction. Go when you will, his store is filled to its utmost with eager purchasers of the cheap and beautiful goods he is offering to the public. He sells cheaper than all his competitors.

HARDWARE.—The most extensive variety of Hardware in western Penna. is that kept by Geo. Huntley at his large and extensive rooms on High-st. Everything is sold exceedingly low. Everybody buys there. So ought you, reader, if you are not already one of his customers.

For choice navy tobacco go to T. W. Williams' store, south-west corner of Diamond. This is the best navy in town. Buy it. Try it.

Great inducements are offered those who will devote their time to the business; and that every person who sees this notice, may send me their address, and tell the business for themselves, I make the following unparalleled offer: To all who are not well satisfied with the business, I will send $1 to pay for the trouble of writing me. Full particulars, directions, &c., sent free. Sample sent by mail for 10 cents. Address E. C. Allen Augustin, Maine. [March 11-3m.]

Persons owing me debts of long standing will confer a favor by calling and paying up as soon as convenient, as it takes a great deal of money to keep my stock and pay expenses, and owing to the small profits that I am making on goods I cannot afford to give long credit—the interest would soon eat up the profits. HOOPLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS The Great Remedies for all Diseases of the Liver, Stomach or Digestive Organs.

HOOPLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS Is composed of the purest juices (or, as they are medicinally termed, Extracts) of Roots, Herbs, and Berries, making a preparation, highly concentrated, and entirely free from alcoholic admixture of any kind.

HOOPLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with the purest quality of Santa Cruz (Cruzeiro) Orange, &c., making one of the most pleasant, agreeable remedies ever offered to the public.

Those preferring a Medicine free from Alcoholic admixture, will use HOOPLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS. Those who have the objection to the combination of the Bitters, as stated, will use HOOPLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

They are both equally good, and contain the same medicinal virtues, the choice between the two being a mere matter of taste, the Tonic being the most palatable.

The stomach, from a variety of causes such as indigestion, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, etc., is very apt to have its functions deranged.
