REUNION .- Eds. Alleghanian : The elders of the Happy Family met in the Court House last week, and, after reading the Riot Act and exhibiting some rough and ill-shaped wood cuts, decided to hold a County Convention for the purpose of confirming the nominations already adopted by the Ring-to-wit : A most a ratio as

Assembly, John Porter; Register and Recorder, J. M Singer; County Treasurer, Harrison Kinkand, Councy Commissioner, James Neason; County Auditor, one Craig. There was some little growling at this grangement, but it was soon checked by the arrangement of the following ticket for

John Buck for Assembly ; Isaac Wike for Sheriff; Anthony Anna for County Commissioner; Thomas M'Kernan for Poor Honse Director; and Geo. W. Oatman for County Auditor.

There was a little Ruff work done at this stage of the game, the military spirit growing strong, as will be seen by the above nominations. After the resolutions of the Committee are submitted and acted on by the Convention, the following resolution will be offered.

"That it is the duty of all lovers of law and order to give the Ring Ticket (this day placed before the unterrified) their undivided attention and support, with the pledge and understanding that the ticke supported or even spoken of in the presence of the Happy Family, under very severe penalties, death not excepted. In ease of the resignation or desertion of any one of the above named, Major Pmay be snaked in, (provided the office is not one of profit or of heavy responsibility) with a view to healing up his numerous old a res inflicted in divers shapes during the last quarter of a contury, though, of course it s intended that the plan shall be kept

SHOCKING MURDER .- A horrible murder occurred Monday forenoon, 7th inst. about eight miles from West Newton, Westmoreland county. A well known farmer, in a moment of sudden insanity, fractured his wife's skull with a huge club. The murderer, whose name is Samuel Morrow, is a resident of South Huntingdon township, Westmoreland county. On Jonday forenoon, he was at work in a field near the house, with his son, who is a young man about eighteen years of age Mr. Morrow left the field and went to the house about ten o'clock, and soon after the dang man heard his mother screaming "sourder." On rushing into the house, he found her lying on the kitchen floor and his father beating her in a terrible manner with a large club. The young tan interfered and endeavered to wrest the club from the hands of his enraged father, but was unsuccessful, the old gen-

He ran for assistance, but before he returned the cries of the poor woman had ceased, and she was found lying on the floor, life being extin t. There was a large number of bruison her body, and her skull was fractured by a terrific blow in the back of the

Morrow escaped into the woods. The murder produced great excitement in the neighborhood, and large parties turned they found him, but, horrible to relate, they found him hanging on the limb of a about a half-mile from his house, quite dead. All accounts agree in saying and was greatly beloved by all who knew hat Morrow was greatly exercised on the subject of religion, and that the murder was committed at a time when reason had fled its throne. He was about 55 years of and bore a good reputation.

To the Editors of The Alleghanian: On Saturday night, 5th inst., this city was again alarmed by the cry of "fire! The flames were found to proceed from the lumber yard of Messrs. D. &. C. Moore, on Virginia street. The fire spread rapidly, but was ultimately subdued by the united exertions of our steam engines. The Messrs. Moore's loss was about $1

Sunday morning following, Detective Kelley, of Pinkerton's Detective Agency, Philadelphia, arrived here. He at once proceeded to ingratiate himself into the confidence of certain members of the "Good Will Fire Company." Very soon, he came into possession of the knowledge that a certain gang belonging to this Company were uniformly first at the enginehouse and at the scene of the fire on the occasion of an alarm. He worked up this vein, along with others, until, on Monday, he found himself in possession of enough last week: evidence to warrant the arrest of three young men belonging to the Good Will. Their names are John Campbell, James McConnell, and Thomas A. Beales, alias "Farmer" Beales. These parties were locked up in the Logan House, each in a separate room. They were closely watched, and undergo imprisonment in County jail and were not allowed to communicate with for 10 days. each other. On Wednesday, Campbell and McConnell turned State's evidence and made a clean breast of it, divulging four other young men on the same charge, County jail for 3 months. namely, Howard Maguire, James Pressell, Subsequently, Beales acknowledged to land of T. Thayer was merely an assistant. It is reported that Kelley was here for a "ran" with the Good Will crowd, drank with them, &c., in order to get the desired information. But this is doubted.

It appears that there is a secret organzation among these members of the Good Will Company for the destruction of property, and that the members are bound by a terrible oath never to peach on one auother. This organization has been in existence for several years, and has been the cause of the destruction of an incalculable amount of valuable property. Thank God that it has at last been broken up, and that the fiends composing it are in a fair way of having meted out to them their

To the Editors of The Alleghanian: Locals are very scarce, but I will try and scrape up something for your columns.

Pienics, I believe, will soon be the order of the day. The St. Joseph's Beneficial Society (German) intend holding one on Saturday, June 25th, at Woodvale grove, when a gala day is anticipated. The society, joined by the St. Peter's Beneficial Society, will form in procession on Franklin st. at 10 o'clock, A. M., preceded by the Johnstown Silver band, and parade through town and thence to the grove. A picnic held at the same place on Saturday, July 3d, for the benefit of his stock is much larger than all others, and St. John's (Catholie) church. I will notice it at more length again.

The Union Hall is going through the process of being fitted up for the District Court. Jury rooms and offices are being

I notice that "Rob Roy" of the Freeman has the very bad habit of exaggerating in his local correspondence. In noticing the late fire here, he states that the fire was fired up, which is glaringly untrue. He also states that the fire happened on the corner of Washington and Franklin sts., and that the building was owned by Mr. Eb. Smith and occupied by Mr. Kennedy, all which is equally untrue. In justice to the Assistance Fire Company, I would say the boys were promptly on the ground, and by their sole exertions the flames were quickly subdued. So much for R. R.

The Jannehill troupe will give one of their grand parlor entertainments at Park's Opera House on Tuesday, June 15th. The well known talent of Mr. Frank and Miss Mollie Jannehill cannot fail to draw them a crowded house.

Bryan's circus gave two exhibitions here on Thursday, 10th inst. They netted something in the neighborhood of two thousand dollars, which they carried away aving Johnstown so much poorer.
