

of immediate importance to the farmers of the state, and to publish the results in reports and bulletins which will be distributed free of charge to all citizens of the state who may apply for them. Specimens of agricultural products, when of public interest, are examined and reported upon free of charge. Correspondence is invited, and inquiries upon agricultural matters will be answered as far as possible. All communications should be addressed to the Agricultural Experiment Station, State College, Centre Co., Pa.

--"Right wheel, -- remember movable pivot march. Steady in the centre touch toward the pivot miserable, miserable—1, 2, 3, 4,—back Mr.— Step, step, step, step. Forward march. You men will have to do better than that. Don't gaze around in ranks. Step, step, step, step. Guide left. The GUIDE IS LEFT, Mr. —. 1, 2, 3, 4. Get step there—step, step, step—very good, very good. Up in the centre—miserable, miserable. You're reported, Mr. —. By the right flank, march. Don't get your feet tangled—step, step, step. Keep the cadence, 1, 2, 3, 4. Column right, march. Where are you going, Mr —; you are drilling with this squad. Square up to the wheel—square up to the wheeling point. Squad, halt! When I give the command to halt, I mean halt. See the distance you have lost Close up. Right face—turn around promptly there. Forward, common time, march —1—2—3—4—90 steps per minute, quick time, march. 1, 2, 3—(120 steps per minute)—4—double-time, march—step, step, step, step," &c. The above is a specimen of "Zack's" windiness on the campus during drill.

PERSONALS.

'87—W. F. Strouse was mingling with the P. S. C. boys last week.

'79—Geo. W. Johnstonbaugh, is a teacher in the Bellefonte schools.

—H. M. Davidson is attending the Western University of Pennsylvania.

—H. P. McCrea, former member of the class of '87, has just recovered from a severe illness.

—A. Scott Harris, of Bellefonte, former member of class of '87, is writing the history of his class.

--Lieut. James A. Leyden, former commandant at P. S. C., is now situated at Fort Sherman, Idaho.

—Dr. J. F. Bell, of Osceola, former student, was among the visitors to P. S. C. during the last month.

--John I. Harvey, formerly of P. S. C., visited us a few weeks ago. He was accompanied by his wife.

—L. P. Greenman, a last year's student, is clerking for the Monroe Reed Organ Co, Worcester, Mass.

—Mrs. William Foster, of Philadelphia, wife of Mr. Wm. Foster, a former student, is visiting relatives at State College.

'79—A. O. Smith, after graduating, took the law course at University of Pennsylvania. He is now practicing law at Clearfield, Pa.

'87—Miss Grace M. Moore, teacher of the select school of State College, has a very cosy little building. Her school opened Nov. 9.

—Mrs. Pague, wife of Commandant S. S. Pague, is now at her home in Columbia, where she will remain until after the holidays.

'80—John F. Hickman, who was for some time superintendent of the Eastern Experimental Farm, is now at his home in East Liverpool, O.

'61—Hon. John N. Banks, a member of the first graduating class of P. S. C., and former trustee, is now a prominent lawyer in Indiana, Pa.

'87—A. G. Wilson is in the employ of the Union Switch and Signal Co. His work is to take measurements for the location of signal stations at railroad junctions and drafting plans of construction.