—The movement to put more apparatus in the gymnasium will be carried out within a few weeks.

—Will the degree of M. E. be conferred on completing the course in mechanical engineering?

—If the proposed course is adopted by the Board of Trustees, it would be well to call it by its proper name.

—The select school conducted by Miss Grace M. Moore has been called the Sunnyside Seminary, or "Sem" for short.

—We wonder why the Dickinson College football team would not play our eleven? Every inducement was offered them.

—The rustic bridges leading to the President's and Vice-President's houses have been replaced by new and more substantial ones.

—An enterprising cigar manufacturer has a new brand called "P. S. C. Hep! Hep!! Hep!!! Boom!!!!" Can be had at Foster's store only.

—Stock exchange report for the coming ten days: Ponies fluctuating; partially broken horses slightly above par; thoroughbreds rare at any price.

—During the Bucknell-State College game at Lewisburg, one of the professors gave vent to the exclamation, "Yell till the very heavens resound!"

—Local Editor Hawk went so far astray in logic class the other day as to say "that concept horse and concept dog were put together to form concept man."

—The members of the foot-ball team express themselves as well pleased with the warm reception which they received from the Bucknellians at Lewisburg.

—Rose attributes his pleasing countenance, in the '90 class picture, to the fact that his unpaid wash bill was waved before the camera, instead of a gum rattle or jumping jack.

—Arrangements have been made by which the stone cutters at work on the new laboratory can work all winter, thus making it possible to complete the building by next June.

—The Y. M. C. A. elected the following officers to serve for the coming winter term: President, Beaver; Vice-President, Gilkie; Secretary, Demming; Treasurer, H. W. Mitchell.

—Le Rue Lemer, one of our Harrisburg advertisers, has been elected class photographer by an association of the college classes. His representative visited the college last week and did considerable work.

—Mr. Zink, who has led a cadet life of about a month, has acquired considerable knowledge in qualitative analysis. He says, authoritatively, that the result of the action of Zink on H₂O after sleeping eight hours is a severe cold.

—The editor of THE FREE LANCE met with a serious accident one evening last week while walking through the dark halls. This matter should be attended to before another such occurrence, and the students should have at least sufficient honor not to remove the globes when replaced.

—F. P. Atherton's recitation in physics: Prof.—Mr. Atherton, what is the vena contracta? Atherton—Don't know. What is a vortex line? Don't know. What is a vortex filament? Don't know. What is the strength of a vortex? Don't know. Excused, Mr. Atherton.

—We cannot urge too strongly upon our readers the necessity of patronizing those who advertise in THE FREE LANCE. In no other college paper published will you find a higher class of advertisements. No patent medicine ads. are received. THE FREE LANCE endorses any advertisement admitted to its columns.

—P. M. Brown, '90, met with a seemingly slight accident while boxing in the chemical laboratory on Nov. 30, but which has proved to be of a more serious nature than was at first supposed, as he is still confined to his room. The blow he received caused an internal rupture. A deep sympathy for the sufferer is felt by his fellow-students.
