

pants furnishing their own bed-covering, towels, pitcher and bowl. Table board can be procured at a cost not exceeding $3 per week. Students will provide their own drawing instruments, books and stationery. No examination will be required for admission, but, as the number for whom instruction can be provided will be necessarily somewhat limited, applications for admission must be made not later than June 15th. Rooms in the college cannot be guaranteed after that date. Lemont, the nearest railroad station, is easily accessible from all parts of the State. Free conveyance between Lemont and the College will be provided for specified trains. Pamphlets giving full accounts of the equipment of the shops and the methods of work, or information on any other point, can be procured by addressing the President, or Prof. Louis E. Reber.

PERSONALS.

'74—Curtis G. Campbell, the leading druggist of Johnstown, has a fine store.

'67—Daniel Cessna is a prominent leather and lumber dealer in Bedford, Pa.

—Frederick Perkins, member of class of '87, is now attending Hamilton College.

—Miss Marion Ayres South spent the summer in Europe and is now a teacher in Brooklyn, N. Y.

'86—Frederick Darlington is connected with the Westinghouse Electric Co., at Pittsburgh.

—Married, W. E. Tyson to Miss Ida Floyd, Jan. 31, both of Philipsburg, Pa. Only a few relatives were present.

—Wat. L. Barclay, of '89, is attending the Business College at Williamsport preparatory to entering the lumber business.

—G. J. Thomas of '88, former editor of FREE LANCE, is now engaged as proof reader on the Pittsburg Commercial Gazette.

—Captain Roberts visited State College on business connected with the new buildings, as a member of the Building Committee.

'86—John F. Healy visited State College recently and expects to return again soon. He is a civil engineer situated in Nashville, Tenn.

'86—Miss Helen G. Foster has returned to her home at State College. She has been attending the conservatory of music at Potsdam, N. Y.

'87—We are glad to learn that A. G. Wilson has been promoted and is now supervising the erection of signals in the P. R. R. yards at Pittsburg.

—John G. Mitchell has signed as pitcher with Portland Base Ball club. He will leave school in April for the purpose of fulfilling his engagement.

—Harry Thompson a former student of P. S. C., who died Dec. 31st of typhoid fever, was buried Jan. 2. He has relatives in State College and vicinity.

—Mrs. J. W. Cooke, mother of Harry T. Cooke, of class of '87, died suddenly Saturday night, January 7th, at Bellefonte, and was buried January 10th.

—Frank Peabody Atherton, member of present junior class, left on Friday Jan. 13th for Thomasville, Ga., a winter resort where he expects to lead the orchestra.

—William S. Elliot, former member of class of '87, is in Topeka, Kan. He is Gen. Agent for the Sprager Electric Light Co. He graduated at Cornell as M. E. last year.

—J. Arthur Musser, has been at his home (State College) for some time during a severe attack of typhoid fever contracted at Pittsburg, to which place he will soon return.

—John H. Louchary, former member of class of '87, was in and about State College during the going out of '87 and the coming in of '88. He is now attending Cornell University.

—John S. Robb, Jr., married to Miss Mary E. Foster, at bride's home, Mansfield, Pa. J. W. Clark, Dr. W. Ross Foster and Harry Duncan, were groomsmen, the latter two former students of P. S. C.

—We are sorry to note the death of Mrs. Gen. Jas. S. Brisbin at Fort McKinney on December the 13th, 1887. Mrs. Brisbin was the mother of Winfield S. Brisbin, a former student at this college.

[From La Opinion, Cienfuegos, Cuba.]

* * * "THE FREE LANCE este es el titulo de un periodico bien imprero y exelentemente redactado que publican los discipulos del colegio del estado de Pensilvania.

"A contlnnacion traducinnos algunas noticias de las muchas que publica el colega estudiantil," etc., etc

[TRANSLATION.]

* * * THE FREE LANCE is the title of a well-printed and perfectly written paper published by the students of the Pennsylvania State College. We translate some of the good articles published by our college scholastic, etc.