

Now, fellow-students, let us hopefully resign ourselves to our loss, and remember, we are a class with class feelings—that an uncalled-for insult to one is an insult to the class, and although it is not our right in the future to assume the aggressive, yet Russia-like we will push our frontier as far as possible, making Unity our motto and Honor our shield.

Now still in death is this A Prep laid;
He has gone to a land of eternal's haid;
His work was done, he no longer could wait
To harken to the Profs with their weeny prate.
A relic of by-gone days is he;
Ne'er will he get on a hard cider spree;
And these last wrods he expressed with a grin:
"No more will the Profs dare to rope you in
To rope, to rope, to rope,
Dare to rope you in."

"Long have you borne with the tyranny
Of rules that say you shan't be free,
To pester your classmate in study hour,
Or fool with the military power.
Soon you'll step in the Freshman's shoes
Feeling like a Sophomore on a booze.
But come what will, be it thick or thin,
Don't let them rope, let them rope you in,
Do not, do not, do not
Let them rope you in."

---

HYMNUS.

---

[Tune: Windham.]

---

Dust unto dust our comrade must;
His home on earth he has resigned,
His faded form
To waste and worm;
At last corruption claims her kind.

Through paths unknown his soul hath flown
To seek eternal realms of woe,
Till fiery pain
Shall purge the stain,
Of many actions done below.

In that sad place by Satan's grace
Brief may his hapless dwelling be,
Till valiant deeds
And well-earned meeds
At length shall set the captive free.

---

PERSONALS.

---

H. T. Fernald, a graduate of Amherst, now taking a post-graduate course at Johns Hopkins, is visiting Prof. Pond.

'87. W. F. Strouse is with an engineer corps in Cambria county, this State.

'90. John Mitchell is to pitch a trial game with the "Philadelphias" this month.

'91. F. K. Gray is clerking in a Pittsburgh bank.

'79. Prof. Heston is a member of the Republican Committee of Centre County.

H. M. Davidson, who left here while in prepdom, and entered the "Western University of Pennsylvania," has returned to Pennsylvania State College and entered the class of '91.

Miss Josephine Hoogs has been appointed instructor of music at Pennsylvania State College, vice Miss Julia Gorselin.

'91. S. G. Allen is reading law in his father's office, at Warren, Pa.

'91. Miss Martha Noyes, of Westport, is taking a course in elocution at Lock Haven, Pa.

'90. W. E. Stevenson is in the employ of the Westinghouse Electric Co., at Pittsburgh, Pa.

'89. Geo. Johnson, who has been out of College two years has returned and joined the class of '91.

'89. J. B. Walker, who dropped out at the end of his Sophomore year has returned and joined the class of '90.

'88. W. P. Jones has obtained a position with Leonard & Izard, Electrical Engineers, Chicago, Illinois.

'91. J. H. Smiley, who was a member of the FREE LANCE editorial staff last year, is acting as a reporter to the Pittsburgh Dispatch, at Pittsburgh, Pa.

T. W. Spanutius, a graduate of Sheffield Scientific School, has been appointed assistant to Prof. Pond in the chemical department.

'89. J. F. L. Morris is taking the newly established course of journalism at Cornell University.