

pealed. Previous to this time, the Q. T. V. fraternity had existed, sub rosa. The same year that the "anti frat." law was repealed, the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity established a chapter in the College, and last Fall a chapter of the Beta Theta Pi was established. The Q. T. V. "frat." occupy the entire second floor of the Foster block, and next September, both the Phi Gamma Delta and the Beta Theta Pi chapters expect to open their chapter houses, now in course of erection. These buildings are all situated in the town. The Theta Nu Epsilon, a Sophomore society, has a flourishing chapter in the College. There are three local fraternities, two in "prepdom," and a Dutch letter, the Fow Ypsilon Tset. on college side. Fraternity life, though new at Pennsylvania State College, will soon become one of the leading features.

This article is written for the purpose of interesting our Alumni in their Alma Mater, and showing reasons why you should manifest your interest. You may do much for us if you will.

LOCALS.

"I am a free man. I'm a walking Republic." So says Cuba.

The celebration of our victory over Dickinson, was a very novel affair.

The work of cleaning for Commencement is being rapidly pushed forward.

"Mac" says the man that says he's an Irishman is "contis ventis," begorra.

Assorities: "Firen' dem cannons is a bad sing; I am afraid they got Mr.— into it."

Phi Gamma Delta and Beta Theta Pi, both expect to occupy homes of their own next year.

Wanted.—To know some speedy process of erasing censure marks. Address, "One of them."

During freshmen artillery drill the other day, it was noticed that a sponge-staff was missing.

One Senior to another. What do you think of Roop's story, illustrating a principle in Psychology?

Moore, the Chinese laundry man, says: "Melican man no good; him no pay washy bill; him a dead beat."

The surveyors are at work on the track and it is expected that we will have a quarter mile course by September.

Our Co-eds, are to have a cottage all by themselves; with big porches, cozy rooms, and lots of hammocks—u—m—.

"Sam," who brought the Delmonico boarding club to an untimely end by his enormous appetite is now trying to bankrupt Grieb.

Mr. William Williamson, of West Chester, Pa., has been appointed assistant architect for the new improvements at State College.

Mr. Billium Nye, alias Mr. Peter Meek, will give a "Shoo Fly" Lecture sometime during the coming month. The date will be announced by posters.

Will the Gods be more propitious?
Will the bar-tender cease to rage?
Over that ever perplexing question,
"Young man, are you of age?"

Weidner says that it might all be true about a girl who wears bangs being a nuisance but he'll be hanged if he believes the same of a boy,

Sam Crawford has lately been carrying on from his window, a highly colored flirtation. Sam, if you don't behave, we will get Miss J—to write home to your mother.

Dr. Frear and Prof. Butz, were caught in Lewistown by the flood. As their visit was of a rather peculiar nature, we suppose the detention was not at all disagreeable.