

'77. The Rev. Geo. A. Landes who has been for some time past a missionary among the Catholics at Coritiba, Brazil, is soon to return to the United States.

'79. S. V. Holliday has been appointed Collector of Customs at the port of Erie.

'84. E. L. Orvis has been canvassing Centre Co. for the Prohibition cause.

'85. Rev. Owen Reber has accepted a charge in a Lutheran church, at Buttonville, Canada.

'85. R. F. Hunter of Buffalo Run, spent a day among his numerous friends at P. S. C. recently.

'86. Harry E. Patterson has published an article in the American Chemical Journal, on improved apparatus for fat determination.

'87. Wm. P. Fisher graduates at the Columbia Law School this year.

'87. A. O. Shaeffer was recently elected County surveyor of Cameron, Co., Pa.

'88. Geo. M. Downing expects to visit us during Commencement week.

'88. A. Scott Harris, in connection with his position as resident manager of the Chest Creek Coal and Coke Co., is one of the editors of a journal recently started at Hastings.

'89. J. B. Struble and H. D. Miles have left College and gone to Pittsburgh, where they have obtained positions as mechanical engineers in the Union Switch and Signal Co.

'90. W. E. Stephenson and C. M. Kessler will visit their many friends at P. S. C. during Commencement.

'91. Miss Mary B. Struble has gone to Philadelphia, where she is training to become a nurse, in one of the hospitals of that city.

Daniel Ulrich, a former student, has left Erie and is now engaged in the construction of a large shipping wharf at Buffalo, N. Y.

Miss Julia E. Gray has for some time past been visiting friends in New York and Philadelphia.

COLLEGE ORBIT.

The Cornell crew row eight miles a day, regularly.

George Bancroft, the historian, is the only living member of Harvard '17.

The Trustees of Princeton have given Dr. McCosh a pension of $2,500 a year.

At Lafayette, a Japanese student has been elected president of the Sophomore class.

Only 175 of the 390 universities and colleges in the United States publish papers.

The largest library in the world contains 2,000,000 volumes. It is the Imperial Library of Paris.

Massachusetts has 23,000 pupils in her evening schools, an increase of fifty per cent. in one year.

Ann Arbor has a regularly detailed United States naval officer for the classes in marine engineering and shipbuilding.

A feature of the gymnasium exhibition at Bates College will be a fencing match between a gentleman and a young lady of '91.

The latest craze with some of the students at Troy Polytechnic is to adorn the ceilings of their rooms with the envelopes of letters from their best girls.

The plan for the wearing of caps and gowns on class day, by the Senior class at Yale, has been abandoned, as not enough men were willing to purchase them.