

Ornithologist, W. W. Bohn, received first prize for the finest exhibit of "Jay's birds" and "Saplin Suckers" at the Paris exposition.

Camp cordially invites all to call at his room, No. 480, to listen to some of his bear and "deer" stories. They are quite interesting.

What kind of a bird was that which perched itself upon the flag-staff one morning last week? It somewhat resembled the American Eagle.

Several "Preps" have undergone physical examination at the hands of the Freshmen, and are now ready to enter the corps of cadets.

Patsy is the telephone connected with the business office of the College?

"Hullo Doctor" is it yerself that's a spak-en to me?

Mrs. Flemming who so ably filled the position as Stenographer for the President of the College has accepted a responsible position in Cincinnati, Ohio.

An (asider)—"The Sophs. had a barrel last night,

A (presider)—Préx.

A (decider)—Faculty.

Within the past year, two ministers have died shortly after preaching here. The attention sometimes paid to sermons would discourage almost any minister.

The students are unanimous in pronouncing the new walk from the college to the village one of the most decided improvements made about the college during vacation.

C. M. Green was called away to attend the funeral of his uncle, Rev. S. H. Hamill, who died suddenly of heart disease. Rev. Hamill preached here the Sunday before his death.

Mr. D. A. Centre, of Gloucester, Mass., and a graduate of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, has been appointed to the position of assistant in the Physic's Department.

G. A. Beaver, J. B. Walker and W. E. Moore have been elected by the Y. M. C. A. as delegates to the Y. M. C. A. State Convention, to be held at New Castle, Oct. 10th, 11th, 12th and 13th.

Every old student came back this year, with the expectation of entering the new gymnasium, in order to keep up the muscles that they had developed and hardened during vacation.

Weiland, better known as "Arbutus" is at present engaged in writing up a revised edition of the play entitled "The Two Johns." Price and Read will do the starring this coming season.

Equal to the surprise given us by our new halls last year, was the surprise received by learning that the apparatus had not yet been purchased. The money is at our disposal why not use it?

The "Rebel" has once more returned to the haunts of civilization after spending the summer in the wilds of Tennessee, where he says the mountains are so thick that there is no room for valleys.

"Ben" Beaver, upon seeing his picture in the "La Vie" of '90,—"Ven I first seen it I didn't like it at all, but ven I seen that they had gags on the rest of the faculty I didn't care so much.

Prayer of a Freshman, as revised by a Sophomore. God bless the Sophomore class, may they multiply and be powerful. Make them merciful to me, a poor Freshman. And also bless Prof. X Y Z.

New waiter to Pillow—"Will you have tea or coffee?"

Pillow—"Yes'm."

N. W.—"Which do you want?"

Pillow—"I'll take t-t-t-t, coffee."