

When the Lafayette foot-ball team learned that there was a "bottle" in our club, they immediately tried to break "it," and did so.

Pood Read as he sat upon the narrowest end of a needle placed perpendicularly to the seat of a chair exclaimed, "Who's got it?"

A walk of some kind from the college to the east gate is much needed, as a great many of the students go in that direction to their meals.

To delinquent students:—Insure yourselves against paying that "conditioned" dollar by securing a 25c. policy from the Library Insurance Co. (?)

Messrs. P. M. Brown, Yocum and Girvin, were the guests of Mr. George Meek over Thanksgiving.

We predict that some day in the near future Shields and Camp will have a duel. You should see the envious glances which they cast at each other.

Recently, fifth hall has been the scene of several enjoyable dances. The first thing one hears after 10 o'clock, P. M. is "Get your partners for a quadrille."

"Reb," who is now taking private lessons in dancing, expects to make his debut sometime during the coming season, under the chaperonage of Mrs. Brown.

"The ladies building will soon be completed." A statement very much to this effect was made of the laboratory and armory nearly eighteen months ago.

Dinkey Danforth and his camera are inseparable companions. The majority of the photographs taken by him are of buildings belonging to the college farm.

The class of '90, at their last meeting drew up resolutions to the effect that they would hereafter hold monthly parties at the residences of the different Professors.

The students in civil engineering have completed their task of erecting signal stations throughout the county. They will be used next Spring for triangulation work.

Fatty Price's argument.—Since equal volumes contain the same number of molecules, it therefore follows that equal volumes of different substances occupy the same space.

Mr. Mc——, (in boxing class.) "Boys, he never touched me, I bloodied my nose against the wall. I never saw the man yet that could lick me, but I never saw Sullivan."

Wednesday evening, November 13, a mite society for the benefit of the Presbyterian church was held at the residence of Mrs. John Hamilton. Quite a number of students were present.

"Jeffy" offers a reward to anyone who can eliminate the known quantity in the following proportion, P. S. C., o.

L. U., 106

It appears strange, that their being so many young men in the college classes, some of the young ladies had to go to the President's reception without escorts. Young men where is your chivalry?

The ladies cottage will contain a well equipped gymnasium. It will be situated on the third floor where there is plenty of ventilation. Take care girls, that you do not fall off the trapeze and hurt yourselves.

Through the energies of Lieutenant Wolfe, a drum corps has been organized. It will consist of four fifers, four tenor drums, and one bass drum, and will prove a much desired acquisition to the battallion.

"Dr. Lloyd" has been prescribing for several Freshmen who were feeling a little shaky over the coming examinations. He advises them to try and cut off the Profs. supply of "Condition Powders."