

one desirous of knowing what this word means will please inquire of the "Halogen Group."

At the regular meeting for the election of officers, the W. L. S. elected the following: W. H. Walker, President; Eachus, Vice-President; H. Brown, Recording Secretary; Caughey, Corresponding Secretary; P. M. Brown, Treasurer; Yocum and Pard, Editors.

Sentences that reached our ears during the Preps "undress" parade on the campus Friday night, January 31st:—"Get into line there Aaron, can't you?"—"Kid," keep step with the man behind you!"—"Teddy," keep off my heels!"—"Stop your spitting tobacco juice on my uniform!" As they enter the front door of the college some Freshmen throw water upon them, "——! ——!!——!!!——!!!!" They then disappear.

All the alumni and students of P. S. C. should subscribe liberally to the "La Vie" soon to be published by the Junior class. The annual will contain much that is interesting to all the former and present students and will be a model college annual. It is the object of the staff to present a book which will give genuine pleasure to all and offense to none. The illustrations of the college buildings and grounds will be such that each alumnus and student shall deem his money well spent in gaining possession of them alone. The reading will be spicy and interesting. The cuts will explain what the pen fails to convey.

Every day occurrences, J. H. Mitchell playing the drum, and R. Mattern blowing the fife. Linsz borrowing tobacco and matches. Dad cutting hair in the hall. "Bobby" Green measuring the electromotive force in the electric light wires. "Granny" Watts planting cabbage plants. Charley Atherton playing something. Ford making noise in the hall. Hamilton bragging about the "Lectechics" course. Kinsel raising a beard. J. B. Walker visiting the Ladies' parlor. Weidner catching bed-bugs. W. J. McDowell fighting for the rights of his country (Ireland.) Green relating how the Sophomores got the Freshmen flag. Orbin waking up sleepy students. Suloff wishing to be married. Love sleeping. Professor Pyle hunting preps. Professor Reeves receiving "conditioned" dollars.

The Gamma Phi chapter of the Phi Gamma Delta Fraternity gave a reception to the other fraternities in their new Chapter House on Friday evening, January 31st. About 60 guests were present including many young ladies. The music was furnished by the Æolian Orchestra of Bellefonte, and was one of the features of the evening. The guests began to arrive about eight o'clock and soon after dancing commenced and was kept up throughout the evening. Refreshments were served at ten o'clock. Among the guests from a distance were the Misses Mary Meek, Emily Harris and Jennie Shortlidge, of Bellefonte. Miss Mary Thompson, of Lemont, and Miss McFarlane, of Boalsburg. Mr. Chas. Kurtz and Mr. Dorsey Hunter.

Mrs. Atherton, Mrs. Heston, Mrs. Refer and Mrs. Reeves chaperoned the party and in their graceful and elegant manner made all welcome.

A certain Freshman was trying to write some sentimental piece in Latin to his best girl and got his room-mate to help him find some words. He took the English and his room-mate the Latin dictionary. When they came to the word "squeeze" they got stuck and the following dialogue took place.

Freshman.—"I'll look for the word "Waiste."

His mate-room.—"You had better look for "Bust."

Freshman.—"Alright, I'll find "Waiste" or "Bust."