

Some of the prep. girls want to study "How to drive a horse," in case of emergency.

A new Whist Club of 13 members has been organized. It is no fictitious club for the annual.

The fellow who intended to sleigh (slay) things this winter hasn't had much of an opportunity.

Hildebrand, while reading French.—"I love her with all my heart," then sits down overcome with emotion.

A new society of some kind has been formed of which we cannot get the name. Judging from the badge, a penny and blue ribbon, it is a penny-mite society.

One of the numerous rules of Girdom.—"No taffy or candy made by us shall be eaten by the boys; nor shall we give them any candy should they beg most piteously."

Ice was taken off the frog-pond on the campus during the cold snap. Next summer some person will be surprised while drinking ice-water, to find that he has swallowed a "straddley-bug."

Bobby Green has started in the business of erecting telephones on a large scale. He recently erected one at Lemont for Dr. Dale. Sometime hence you shall hear of the Green Telephone Company.

With the following formula: $r r^2(x^h x^n) d F$, Mac McDowell claims that he can do anything from ascertaining the difference between a Scotchman and an Irishman, to whipping Sullivan after he's "met."

Prof. and Mrs. McKee entertained the elite of the college and community on the evening of February 27th. The occasion was that of their eldest son, George C. McKee, having reached his majority.

Prof. in chemistry.—"Mr. Fitch! did the $KClO_3$ in the tube explode when H_2SO_4 was added?"

Mr. Fitch.—"No, Sir! It only blowed the test-tube to pieces."

Freshman (in English).—"Who was the greatest man, Professor?"

Professor.—"Shakespeare says Cæsar was."

Freshman.—"Then he never heard about 'us' Freshmen yet."

One Student to another (in the vicinity of the Post Office).—"Hit him with a snowball."

Martha (catching the sound of the last word sticks her head out of the window).—"See here chile, I'll break your back if you don't stop callin' me names."

We are exceedingly sorry to hear that, owing to a misunderstanding with the Faculty, the Cornell Glee and Banjo clubs will not take their proposed spring trips; consequently we will not have the pleasure of hearing them in Bellefonte as we expected.

"Lucy" Linsz (after he had tasted some sulphuric acid).—"Ich habe sauerstufte geschmact."

Professor (in German).—"Ueber sitzen sie class."

Williamson.—"Did you tell me to sit down?"

GYMNASIUM NOTES.
