

Wm. H. Kemler is working chemist in Oliver Bros. & Co.'s steel works, Pittsburgh, Pa. Hannah's favorite expression while here was "Jersey, it's out."

The Western Engineering Co. recently sold out to the Edison Co. and J. G. White, of '82, and Wm. F. White, of '87, have received positions as agents over a certain territory of the West for the Edison Co.

M. B. Courtwright is working in the office of J. L. Mitchell, a coal operator of Tyrone, Pa.

Miss Edith Clark, of Beech Creek, who was a student here a few years ago visited State College for a few days in the past month.

Dr. Frear attended the meeting of the representatives of the Experiment Stations of Massachusetts, Connecticut, New Jersey and Pennsylvania, to determine upon a scale of fertilizer valuations for the coming year. The meeting was held at New Haven, Conn., on the 21st and 22d of February.

Professor Reber and Mr. Olds, made a trip in the past month to investigate the machine shops of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and Cornell University.

Mr. John Pemberton, past engineer of the U. S. N., has been appointed by the government, assistant professor of Mechanical Engineering at the college. Mr. Pemberton served a number of years as instructor at the United State Naval Academy and has just returned from Japan after several years stay there.

Professor Pond was engaged professionally in the Andrew's murder trial at Bellefonte having made the determination of the blood found on the murderer's shoes.

COLLEGE ORBIT.

Over $2,000 has been subscribed for the Cornell crew.

Harvard has 189 courses of study and Ann Arbor 242.

The total amount of endowments to American colleges last year was $3,673,000.

Ohio has 34 colleges, Pennsylvania 26, Illinois 24, New York 20, Iowa 20, Tennessee 19, and Missouri 17.

The Kentucky University this year opened its doors to women, and now the names of twenty young women are upon its rolls.

At Ursinus College the faculty have issued severe orders against smoking and it has been prohibited in the college building.

There are at present attending regular courses at Harvard 2079 students and 217 instructors connected with the University.

The new gymnasium at Yale is expected to be ready for use by September, 1890. The cost of the building will be about $200,000.

The name of the successful competitor for prize of $25 for the composition of the best Princeton song will not be announced until June 10th.

All students in the German courses at Princeton who have ranked above 85 per cent. in their term work have been excused from the mid-year examination.

Mr. Frederick Percival Farrar, a son of the eminent English archdeacon, has been initiated into Sigma Phi fraternity at Lehigh University, where he is a student.

The University of Pennsylvania Glee and Banjo clubs gave a concert on Thursday evening, February 20th, in the University Chapel for the benefit of the new boat house.