

Following we have the newly elected officers of the Washington and Cresson Literary Societies:

Washington
J. H. Yocum.....	President.
H. P. Dowler.....	Vice President
F. G. Smith.....	Rec. Secretary.
Fred Dale.....	Cor. Secretary.
F. J. Pond.....	Treasurer
C. M. Caughey, } John Foster, }	Editors
M. E. McDownell ..	Librarian
Cresson
H. P. K. Rumberger.....	President
W. R. Motz.....	Vice President.
J. E. Quigley.....	Rec. Secretary.
John White.....	Cor. Secretary.
H. W. Mattern.....	Treasurer.
J. M. Small, } B. Musser, }	Editors
H. R. Pratt.....	Critic
Frank Orbin.....	Librarian.

PERSONALS.

'93. J. B. Greer is attending Duffs Commercial College at Pittsburg.

'93. George H. Danforth is employed as a draughtsman by the Pittsburg Bridge Co., of Pittsburg.

'92. R. M. Fitch is Principal of the Broughton, N. Y. Public Schools.

Ryland W. Green, formerly of '91, is on the University of the Penna's Boat crew.

'90. J. M. Walker is studying law at Emporium, Pa., his home.

'90. G. A. Beaver spent a few days recently with his many friends at the College.

'90. F. A. Bryan is employed as an engineer by the Denver and Rio Grand R. R. Co., with headquarters at Leadville, Colorado.

'90. J. B. Walker, on his road home from the Y. M. C. A. State Convention at Danville, Pa., stopped off at the College for a few days.

'90. Phil. Gossler has resigned his position with the Chester Foundry and Machine works at Chester, Pa., to accept a more lucrative one with the United States Illuminating and Power Co., of New York City.

'85. Dugald C. Jackson spent a few days, during the early part of the month, at his home here in State College.

Capt. C. W. Roberts, of West Chester, made a flying trip to the college recently.

George H. Linsz is in the employment of the Westinghouse Electric Co., at Norristown, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Palmer were the guests, for a short time recently, of their son Prof. G. G. Pond.

M. Beyers, '89 of the University of Penn'a., has accepted the position of Assistant Instructor of Civil Engineering in our institution.

J. C. Mock, W. Stevenson, H. McClaren and C. W. Heppenstall, all former State College students, are playing on the Allegheny Foot Ball Eleven, of Pittsburg. A team composed entirely of college men.

COLLEGE ORBIT.

Yale's new gymnasium will cost $100,000.

Merrill E. Gates, Ex-President of Rutgers college, is the new presiding officer at Amherst.

The Freshman class at Cornell numbers about 450, of whom a large percentage are women,

An examination in gymnastics is now required of John Hopkins under graduates before a degree is conferred.

The cost of athletics in all its branches at Harvard last year, has been estimated to average $25.00 for each student.

The Stevens Institute Athletic Association has withdrawn from the Athletic League, and dropped foot-ball from the list of college sports.

Syracuse University has the finest college building in America. It cost $700,000, and was the gift of one man.

O. S. Campbell, of Columbia college, won the tennis championship of America in the recently held tournament.