

Tyrone, Pa. It occurred at Atlanta, Georgia, where he had been working on an engineer corps, on June 19th, the cause being brain fever.

'91. F. P. Atherton spent several weeks at the home of his father, President Atherton, in the present month.

Ex-'91. Ryland W. Green will go to England this summer with the boat crew of the University Pennsylvania, of which he is a member.

'90 Phil. Gossler who is with the Edison Co., of New York city, visited his Alma Mater on the 22, inst.

'90. J. W. Walker has been staying about the college for a few days.

'90. W. H. Walker will sail for Europe on the steamer Friesland on the 5th of August. He will go to Germany where he will remain for several years pursuing the study of chemistry at Heidelberg University and at the Berlin Polytechnic Institute.

'90. W. P. Brew, now located at Pittsburg, spent a week's vacation on a visit to his parents' home in Bellefonte during the latter part of May. He also called to see his friends at the College while off duty.

'90. I. C. M. Ellenberger was married to Miss Hastings, of Graysville, May 13th. He has accepted a position as Principal of a school in Ky.

'89. James Foster, who has been employed as Chemist in one of the leading firms of Pittsburg, is now filling a similar, but more lucrative, position in Virginia.

'89. H. C. Blair has been at his home, in Tyrone, for some time suffering from an attack of sickness. He expects to return to his studies at the Law School in Philadelphia, as soon as he recovers.

'85. P. F. Nshikian, who has his headquarters in Kansas City Mo., and who has been employed as chemist in that city for several years, is now publishing a book entitled "Nihilism."

'83. Rev W. C. Calder, who has for several years been in India as a missionary and who has been for some months at his home in Harrisburg, recuperating his health, is now making a short visit to State College.

'81 Co. Supt. D. O. Etters is one of the Board of examiners to visit the Lock Haven Normal June 16th, 17th and 18th.

'79. Prof. G. U. Johnstonbaugh, principal of the Bellefonte High School visited the College recently.

Mr. Rogers, of Cornell University, was visting Prof. Osmond a few days

Mr. J. T. Pyke, formerly assistant in the preparatory department, has entered the ministry and is now preaching at Providence, R. I.

Prof. G. G. Pond, the head of our department of chemistry, will go abroad during the summer vacation to visit and inspect some of the leading laboratories of Germany; some of the mines and metallurgical works both in England and on the continent and manufactories of chemical apparatus; to make some purchases for the college and in general to keep in touch with the advancing progress in chemistry. He will sail by the Teutonic on July 1st and return by the Majestic on August 20, from Liverpool.

On June 6th, Dr. Atherton delivered the graduation address to the class of '91 of the W. S. Naval Academy, at Annapolis.

Ex-Gov. James A. Beaver, together with his son Gilbert, of '90, attended the exercises in the College Chapel May 24th. Gilbert conducted the Y. M. C. A. meeting in the evening.

Mr. Moses Thompson, of Centre furnace, who was the treasurer of the college some years since, died at his residence at an advanced age, on Friday, June 19th, and was buried at the Branch cemetery on June 21st.

COLLEGE ORBIT.

A foot-ball league is to be formed between Columbia, Cornell, Lehigh, and Wesleyan.