

The foot-ball eleven has elected C. E. Aull, '92, captain.

Rumberger, '92, was recently made second assistant librarian by the college authorities.

John F. Foster and G. R. Wieland formerly of '92 have returned to college and entered '93.

The present Freshmen class has a membership of sixty-five and is one of the largest in the history of the college.

The college orchestra furnished the music at the Business Men's Carnival held in Bellefonte, on October 1st.

A new improvement, and a decided one, has been made by keeping the lights in the hall on during the entire night.

The orchestra under the leadership of Prof. I. R. Beyer, is now practising every evening and is in better trim than last year.

The following men compose the foot-ball committee: Aull '92, Hile '92, Shields '92, Williamson '93 and Spence '95.

Messrs. Wanamaker and Brown have established a permanent agency at this place under the charge of J. P. Aikens '94.

Up to date there has been enrolled two hundred and nineteen students. Of this number ninety are here for the first time.

At a special meeting of the Washington Literary Society, S. G. Crawford '92 was elected President and E. T. Pyne '94, Vice President.

The Tonsorial shop of "Dad" Gilkey is being run by Fred Weld, he having bought the good will and fixtures of the genial "Dad."

The following men compose the General Athletic committee for the ensuing year: Read, Hildebrand and Aull of '92, Dowler '94 and Cartwright '95.

The college is putting up two handsome brick residences in the grove in the rear of The Ladies' Cottage. They are to be occupied by Professors Reber and Pemberton.

Old and new students alike will appreciate the recent renovation of the post office and especially the new lock boxes which will do away with a great deal of tedious waiting.

Mr. E. H. Haley, '90 of Haverford has entered college and is taking a post graduate course in chemistry. He also fills the position of instructor formerly occupied by W. H. Walker, '90.

The new fire escapes which are being put on the main college building will be quite an improvement over the ones which only reached about half way from the upper story to the ground.

W. P. Rothrock '93 has started a new boarding club at Mrs. Craigs. It is to be known as the Clover Club. It has a membership of twenty-six. W. P. Rothrock is Caterer and Payne P. Sturdevant is Treasurer.

The dirt from the excavation for the new Engineering Building is being used to grade in front of the college Armory. When this has been done, and a lawn is secured, it will make one of the prettiest parts of the campus.

At a meeting of the Athletic Association on September 10th, the following officers were elected: Read, '92 President, Loyd, '92 Vice President; F. Mattern, '94 Secretary; Shields, '92 Treasurer; Belt, '94 Marshal.

Work on the new Engineer building is going rapidly onward. The cellar is being excavated as fast as possible and some parts of the wall have been laid. The contract for the brick and wood work will be let during the fall. When finished the P. S. C. will have one of the finest buildings for that special purpose in the country.