

'92. J. P. McCreary, supervisor of the Tyrone and Clearfield branch of the P. R. R., while directing the unloading of some plate girders, at the bridge over Moshannon creek, near Osceola, Pa., was struck by a girder weighing five thousand pounds and suffered a compound fracture of the the left leg near the ankle. He is at present doing well with every prospect of a speedy recovery.

'91. C. M. Green, collector for Hughes and Gauthrope, of Pittsburg, was at the college on January 1st. His address is No. 417 Pennsylvania avenue, Pittsburg, Pa.

On the evening of December 31, Miss Catherine D. Price was married to Rev. William N. Hubbell, of Mt. Clair, N. J. The ceremony took place in the Upland Baptist church, of Chester.

COLLEGE ORBIT.

There are one hundred and ninety college papers published in the United States.—Ex.

The Lehigh register for 1891 and 1892, shows an attendance of 527 students, 39 of whom are post graduates.

President Scott, of Rutgers college, lectured the students on cane-rushing and said a repetition of the offense meant expulsion.

Princeton has added six new professors to her faculty this year, the University of Pennsylvania ten, Yale five and Harvard eight.

The total expenses of the victorious foot ball eleven at Andover, for the past season, amounted to $1,963.42. The receipts, on the other hand, amounted to $2,010.62.

A committee representing Columbia college and the college of the city of New York, has been appointed to make arrangements to unite, if possible, those two institutions of learning.

The Alumni of Dartmouth have agreed to make an athletic field, rebuild the gymnasium, and aid in the support of all athletic teams, if the faculty will allow them to have control in athletic matters.

An examination in gymnastics is now required of undergraduates of Johns Hopkins before a degree is conferred.

The Freshman class of the college department of the University of Pennsylvania has fixed its class dues at one dollar per term.

Eton, or the collection of schools which constitute what is popularly known as Eton, has a thousand scholars. This great preparatory school has just celebrated its four hundred and fiftieth anniversary.

The organization of an athletic club in New York, with a membership limited wholly to college graduates, has been talked of for some time, but nothing definite accomplished. Lately the matter has been taken up by those who are anxious to push the proposal, and announcements will probably be made in the near future.

The Yale baseball club has received, from the Boston League club, a challenge to a series of games to be played in April next. The proposition is to play the first game at Boston, on Fast day, the opening day of the season there, and the remainder of the series, probably four games, on the Yale field. The Yale men will accept the offer.—Ex.

A new course of study has been established by the Harvard faculty which will lead to a degree of S.B. The course is intended primarily for those who wish to devote themselves especially to physical culture. The curriculum is a broad one, and those who expect to take up the study of medicine will find this new course a useful aid to their preparatory study.

Professor Blackie, who stands prince among the Greek scholars of Great Britain, in an article in the Independent, discounts classical studies. He cares very little for Greek or Latin on the philological or grammatical side. He believes as Milton did, in studying the classics for what is in them, and he believes that Greek and Latin are not half so important as French or German.