

Freshman class issued from the main entrance of the college building, and sauntered leisurely down over the campus to the post-office where three large sleighs waited to convey them to the scene of their festivities. Contrary to the expectation of everyone the Sophomore class did not attempt in any way to interfere with their leaving, and the Freshman with cheers and yells rode triumphantly on their way.

About 5.30 they arrived at Bellefonte and immediately set about to enjoy themselves until 11 o'clock, the time set for their banquet. Most of the boys took in the play at the theatre, after which the entire class assembled at Achenbach's, where forty-eight covers were laid for the guests. Through arrangements of a well appointed committee an elaborate menu was served, after the enjoyment of which toast-master G. B. Snyder arose and, in a few well chosen words, introduced the first speaker of the evening. H. L. Wishart, who responded to the toast "Our Class." Following him were M. N. Trone, "Our College," W. A. Stuart, "The Faculty," S. E. Snyder, "The Class of '93," C. E. Scott, "Our Athletics," B. B. Horton, "The FREE LANCE," C. U. Burkett, "Our Future," and several impromptu toasts delivered by different members of the class. After the last speech had been given the thoroughly tired, but happy, crowd departed for the college, arriving there as the first streaks of dawn were appearing over the eastern horizon.

The Second annual Mid-Winter sports of the Preparatory students were held, in the Armory Saturday evening, March 12th, before a large and enthusiastic gathering. The annual meeting of the State Inter-Collegiate Athletic Association was held, in Philadelphia on Saturday, March 6th, and at that meeting the Pennsylvania State College was admitted to membership. J. F. Shields represented our college. This association comprises the following colleges: Lehigh, University of Pennsylvania; La Fayette, Swarthmore, Dickinson, Haverford, Franklin and Marshall, and State College. The annual athletic meeting will be held, on May 20th, on the grounds of the University of Pennsylvania and it is expected that our college will be represented in a number of events as a large number of our men are now hard at work training.

Trainer Hoskins offers to any one making any one of the athletic records given below, what will be known as a team cap. The cap will be of a special design and none but those who come up to the given standard will be allowed to wear them. The offer is a generous one on the part of the trainer and will doubtless be an incentive to our men to work for the honor. The following is the list of events.

100 yards dash in 11 seconds.

220 " " in 25 "
