

The team cap list is as follows: Atherton, Brown and Hildebrand, '92, Cartwright '95, Connelly, Dixon, Fisher and Thompson "Prep."

The Preparatory department has made an excellent record in athletics this year. If we only had a little of their enthusiasm in college classes we might accomplish more.

The bleachers, or seats on the athletic grounds will be erected as soon as possible. They will occupy a position near the finishing stakes and will accommodate about 300 persons.

The Senior commencement orators have recently been announced. They are Miss Nellie Meek, H. R. Pratt, R. Kessler, W. McKee, and M. McDowell. The class has elected McDowell valedictorian.

R. B. Mattern, '93, represented the FREE LANCE at the "Central Inter-Collegiate Press Association" meeting held at the Colonnade Hotel, Phila., May 7. The FREE LANCE had a paper on "The Possibilities of a Consolidated Collegiate Press Association in the United States."

It is understood that a lecture will be given this month on the Treasury department by one of the treasury experts. If it proves as entertaining and instructive as the address by Col. Seeley, U. S. Commissioner of Patents, on "Our Patent System," Wednesday, April 20, we shall consider ourselves very fortunate.

Several promotions have been made in the battalion to fill vacancies caused by students not returning for the spring term and by resignation. Following are the names of those promoted: Lieut. L. G. Crawford to Cadet Lieut., and Adjutant to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Nelson McA. Loyd. Cadets Dowler, Walker, Waite, Thompson, Kirk, and Kremer were appointed corporals.

The class of '92 gave their last assembly in the armory on the evening of April 29. It was a decided success. The patronesses were Mrs. Andrew Curtin, Mrs. Jas. Beaver, Mrs. G. L. Sanderson, Mrs. A. O. Furst, Mrs. P. G. Meek, Mrs. Daniel Rhodes, Mrs. D. H. Hastings, Mrs. W. F. Reeder, Mrs. J. L. Mitchell, Miss H. E. McElwain, Mrs. Jno. Pemberton, and Mrs. S. A. Wolf. Dancing began at 8.30. The music was furnished by Stopper and Fisk of Williamsport. It was the opinion of all who have attended any of the former assemblies that this one overshadowed all others, and that '92's last hop will not soon be forgotten. To accommodate the Bellefonte people, a special train was run on the Central, reaching here about 8 and returning after the dance.
