

One of the most pleasant features of this Commencement was the great number of alumni who were present and enjoyed with a number of the students' friends the week's program. Some are as follows :

- '63, W. W. Mills.
- '66, Cyrus Gordon.
- '74, W. H. Thompson.
- '76, E. L. Orvis.
- '79, Frank Knoche, Charles F. Reeves.
- '79, Rev. W. N. Foster, F. B. Greenawalt, G. W. Johnstonbaugh.
- '80, J. F. Hickman, Miss E. E. Hunter, Jas. F. Robb.
- '81, E. R. Chambers, D. O. Etters.
- '82, John M. Dale, Irwin P. McCreary.
- '83, W. E. Gray.
- '84, Jos. W. Reeves.
- '85, D. C. Jackson, H. C. Rothrock.
- '86, H. J. Patterson.
- '88, Miss C. R. Hunter.
- '89, James Foster, W. B. N. Hawk, J. D. Hunter, Miss E. B. Meek, J. B. Struble, R. P. Swank, J. S. Weller.
- '90, Miss A. D. Ball, G. A. Beaver, W. P. Brew, H. B. McLean, George R. Meek.
- '91, Arthur G. McKee.

COLLEGE ORBIT.

There are six schools in Ireland where Irish is taught.

Yale will hold entrance examinations at thirty places this year.

The University of Oxford has appliances for printing 150 different languages.

Oxford will send an eight oared crew to the World's Fair to compete with American college crews.

The University of Texas has received a library of 38,000 volumes referring to China, valued at nearly $150,000, from Tan Kee, a Chinese lecturer.

L. P. Sheldon, holder of the world's record for the standing high jump, enters Yale next fall.

The trustees of the University of Illinois have appropriated $400 to the support of their college paper.

In 1850 only one co-educational college existed in the country, at which six women were in attendance.

The percentage of men attending college in the United States is more than twice as great as that in England.

Washington College, in Virginia, has educated 37 governors, 8 United States senators and 31 college presidents.

A recent census of the University of Michigan showed 1,500 Republicans, 900 Democrats and 250 Prohibitionists.

The captains of the Yale, Princeton and Columbia inter-collegiate athletic teams are all members of the N. Y. A. C.

Of the 182 daily newspapers in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland not one publishes a Sunday edition.

In the last six years, 389 students of the Prussian schools have committed suicide on account of failure in examination.—Ex.

The University of Chicago has begun the granting of scholarships by offering twelve scholarships to twelve of the high schools of that city.

There will be a meeting at Chicago, in May of representatives from college fraternities to perfect plans for a collective exhibit at the World's Fair.

The largest library in the world was founded by Louis XIV. at Paris, and contains 1,400,000 volumes, 75,000 manuscripts, 300,000 maps and 1,800,000 medals and coins.

The management of the Yale Foot-Ball Association have presented each member of the team flags as trophies of the last season. They are of blue silk, prettily designed and mounted on poles. The player's name and position are written on