

G. Luther Fon Dersmith, of Lancaster, and ushers Phil. Gossler, of New York, John S. Rengier, of Lancaster, H. R. Leyden, of Chicago, H. W. Mitchell and A. A. Patterson, of Pittsburg, Jos. Heistand, of Philadelphia, Dr. W. H. Walker, of State College and H. C. Quigley, of Bellefonte. There was a reception afterwards at the residence of the bride's parents. Lieut. and Mrs. S. S. Pague assisted in receiving.

COLLEGE ORBIT.

Amherst Freshmen have subscribed $350 toward the foot ball fund.

The University of Chicago has adopted orange as the University color.

The Harvard observatory has been undergoing extensive repairs this Summer.

Daily, monthly and weekly papers will be published by the students of Chicago University.

The total membership of Greek letter societies in the American colleges is estimated at 77,000.

The Senior Class of Cornell is to be built an athletic club house on Percy Field, as a memorial.

During the last seven years Yale has played 78 games of foot ball with a total of 3863 points to her opponents 88.

The University of Michigan, last year, graduated 689 men, the largest class ever graduated from an American institution.

The University of Pennsylvania is to have a dormitory building costing $125,000. It will be the largest in the United States.

H. D. Williams, Yale's famous half-back and hurdler, has entered the medical department of the University of Pennsylvania.

At Harvard, arrangements have been made to allow students to complete the course necessary for the degree of A. B. in three years, and in the fourth year to accomplish the work necessary to secure the degree A. M.

Beaumont, the coacher of the Dickinson foot ball team, resigned his position because the players would not train as he desired.

Yale is to have a new telescope. It is now being built by Clark, at Cambridge, and will cost $50,000. The glass is to be twenty-eight inches and will be one of the best ever constructed.

A round trip to the World's Fair has been offered to the member of the University of Pennsylvania eleven scoring the most points against opponents this season. Camp has secured the prize.

The largest foot ball scores on record were made by Harvard against Exeter in 1886, when she scored 128-0. Yale's largest is 136-0, against Wesleyan in 1886, and Princeton's 140-0, against Lafayette in 1884.

One-third of the University students of Europe die prematurely from the effects of bad habits acquired in college; one-third die prematurely from the effects of close confinement at their studies, and the other third govern Europe.

The board of directors of the University of Chicago have voted to erect a gymnasium, to cost $200,000. A. A. Stagg, chief instructor, will assume his duties at Chicago October 1, and will have three assistants, one of whom will be a woman.

The University of the City of New York has bought nineteen acres of land near Fordham Heights, opposite Two Hundredth Street. New buildings are to be commenced next year. Eight acres have been laid out for athletic grounds, and a boat house is to be built on a part of the transfer which fronts on the Harlem river.

Brown University has opened its doors to the fair sex and with pleasing results, if the following from the Brown Herald voices the sentiments of the student body. That paper says: "The present attitude of Brown University toward young ladies finds favor with all, including young ladies. It is time for all leading colleges to take down the boards from across their 'ladies' entrance.'"