

—Professor and Mrs. Reber gave a large reception to Ex-senator Coxe on Jan 27th.

—At an athletic meeting on the Jan. 31, it was decided to put a base-ball nine on the field next Spring.

—At a meeting of the foot ball directors J. E. Quigley of the class of '94, was elected manager of the foot ball team for the season of 1893.

—Silver cups will be given as prizes to the winners in the athletic contests. The cups will be on exhibition previous to date of contest.

—The members of the La Vie staff are working hard to get their annual out by the first of May, and a good annual can be expected from the present Juniors.

—On Saturday evening, Jan. 14th, about fifty of the students secured four sleds and went to Pine Grove to attend the grand musicale and concert of home talent. The boys report a pleasant journey and ?

—An entertainment which consisted of vocal and instrumental music was given in the Presbyterian church at Bellefonte, Feb. 13th. About fifty of the students took advantage of the special train in the evening and all report a pleasantly spent evening.

—Lieut. McCaskey deserves credit for the marked improvement in drilling which the battalion has made thus far this term. Battalion drill takes place on Mondays and Tuesdays, and individual company target practice on Wednesdays. That the drills are becoming more popular is shown by the fact that the gallery is daily crowded with spectators.

—The two Literary Societies are each making great efforts to send forth the best debators for the society debating contest, which will take place at or near the close of the spring session.

—A fine electric chronograph, made by Societe Geneveise, for the accurate measurement of small intervals of time, or for recording the exact instant of a phenomenon, is the latest important addition to the apparatus of the department of Physics.

—The new engineering buildings, which are about completed, will be dedicated in a formal manner on Wednesday, Feb. 22nd, '93, several congressmen and college professors will witness the ceremonies and deliver speeches. A programme of the exercises will be gotten out soon.

—Students of the department of Electrical Engineering have designed and begun the construction of a dynamo for electrolytic work. It is intended for electroplating, the electrolysis of water to furnish oxygen and hydrogen gases for the stereopticon, department of Chemistry, etc.

—The third annual mid-winter meet of the athletic association will take place in the college armory on Thursday, Feb. 23rd. As a great many new students have entered since our last contest we have reason to expect new material which, when developed, will add quite a number to our list of entries. Trainer Hoskins is making every effort to bring about such a degree of development in the several contestants as will add interest to lovers of athletic sports.

—The occupants of the several Fraternity houses neglected to turn off the water and drain the boilers before leaving for their vacation, and as the surface of the mercury and the zero-mark were in close proximity during the holidays, the result was when the students returned they found the pipes all frozen solid and several bursted, requiring some time to have them fixed up. The Phi Gama Delta House was considerably damaged by an explosion of a boiler which was caused by building too hot a fire before the ice was melted.